ADAMSON LAW SET ASIDE BY JUDGE HOOK, KANSAS CITY

Federal Judge Declares the Eight-Hour Day State Unconstitutional at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 22.—The Adamson eight-hour law was held unconstitutional here today by Judge William S. Hook in United States district court.

Judge Hook directed the receivers of the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf railroad, who brought the original action in this case, to enjoin the law from going into effect, to assist the government in expediting the case to the supreme court for final decision and to invite the attorneys of every railroad in this country to participate in the hearings before the supreme court.

This was requested in the government's motion to dismiss the injunction petition of the railroad, the government desiring to avoid "prolonged, unnecessary and scattered litigation" that would be made necessary by the hearing of countless similar suits filed by the railroads.

It is expected that the ultimate decision as to whether the law will go into effect January 1 will be handed down before those suits come up for hearing. A transcript of the present case will be filed in the United States supreme court before it reconvenes December 4.

To Hurry Decision.

Washington, Nov. 22.—An agreement between the railroads and the department of justice to ask the supreme court to pass on the constitutionality of the Adamson act before January 1, when it takes effect, appeared to be near at hand today.

Counsel for the Pennsylvania, New York Central and Burlington roads are conferring on the subject and it is said that they may seek to have the suit of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe set for hearing at Kansas City tomorrow, made a test case. In that event, other suits already instituted attaching the Adamson act may be dropped.

Final decision in the matter, however, probably will await word from G. C. Todd and Marvin E. Underwood, of the department of justice, who will appear in the Santa Fe case.

Washington Interested.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Government officials were greatly interested in Judge Hook's decision holding the Adamson act unconstitutional and, while hopeful that final decision by TAX RETURNS FOR 1917.

Notice is hereby given that the office of the County Auditor will be open from Jan. 1st to Feb. 20, 1917, inclusive, for the purpose of taking tax returns of personal property for fiscal year 1917. Also the following places will be visited either by myself or an authorized agent for the purpose of receiving tax returns, namely:

Whitmore, Thursday, Jan. 4th.
Glenn Lowery Mfg. Co., Friday, Jan. 5th.

Longshore, Tuesday, Jan. 9th.

Silver Street, Wednesday, Jan. 10th.

The law requires that tax returns shall be signed and properly sworn to. Tax payers will take notice that no returns will be accepted unless made to me or my authorized agent, or some one qualified to administer an oath.

It is requested that so far as possible, returns be made to me or my agent. This will aid me in preventing errors in your 1917 returns. Come prepared to give the name and number of School District in which you live, also the School District in which your own property. Do not ask that your property be taken from last year's Tax Duplicate.

J. B. HALPACRE, County Auditor.

the supreme court may be given by January 1, when the law becomes effective, they were not certain that it will be possible to expedite proceedings sufficiently to have determination by that time.

Attorney General Gregory showed interest in the decision, but declined to comment. It was believed, however, it will hasten the contemplated agreement between the department of justice and attorneys for the railroads to center the fight on a test case with a stipulation that the supreme court's decision shall prevent the bringing of other actions and lead to the abandonment of those already instituted.

The plans for an improved telephone system for the town of Newberry have been approved by the railroad commission. The wires are to be placed underground on certain streets. The company is also given the right to increase rates. The rate increase was asked by the citizens of Newberry on the condition that the service be improved.—The State.

JACK LONDON, AUTHOR SUCCEEDS TO DEATH

Lived a Strenuous Life and Was the Author of Forty Books and Several Plays.

Santa Rosa, Cal., Nov. 23.—Jack London, the author, died at his Glen Ellen (Cal.) ranch near here at 7:45 o'clock last night, a victim of uremic poisoning. London was taken ill Tuesday night and was found unconscious early yesterday by a servant who went to his room to awaken him. His condition at first alarmed his physician, who summoned several physicians from this city. It was at first believed that the author was a victim of ptomaine poisoning.

Dr. J. W. Shields of San Francisco, a close friend of the writer, was summoned during the day and declared the patient's condition was serious.

From the time London was found Wednesday morning he did not regain consciousness. About midday he seemed to rally, but later suffered a relapse and sank rapidly until the end came.

Besides his sister, Mrs. Shepard, London is survived by a daughter, who is a student at the University of California; his mother, who lives in Oakland, Cal., and his wife, Charmion London. Mrs. London was with her husband when death came. London would have been 41 years old on January 12.

Recently Returned From Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. London recently returned from a sojourn of several months in the Hawaiian islands and have been living on their Glenn Ellen ranch, one of the most elaborately equipped in northern California.

Jack London was born at San Francisco, Cal., January 12, 1876. After completing his high school education he entered the University of California, but did not complete his course and left college to go to the Klondike during the famous gold rush to Alaska in 1897. He went to sea before the mast in 1892 and the next year made a trip which included a visit to Japan and a seal hunting cruise in the Bering sea. In 1899 he tramped through the United States for the purpose of making a first-hand study of social and economic problems, which studies he used with his other experiences in his prolific writings.

Cruise of the Snark.

In 1906 London built a 55-foot yacht, the Snark, in which during 1907-1909 he cruised the South seas. His life was strenuous and many of his books particularly "John Barleycorn" were popularly accepted as autobiographical experiences. Early in his career he set himself the task of writing a certain amount every day and lived up to the undertaking to the last.

London was deeply interested in socialism and recently devoted himself to farming, a hobby, he testified in court a few days ago, to which he devoted all the earnings from his pen. He made a deep study of agricultural problems and recently qualified as an expert on farm irrigation.

He married Bessie Maddern, of Oakland, Cal., April 7, 1900. Kittredge of Berkeley, Cal. London came into literary prominence in 1903 when he published "The Call of the Wild." This was followed the next year by "The Sea Wolf." He was the author of at least 40 books, several plays and a great many short stories.

The body will be cremated in Oakland tomorrow at noon. Only relatives will be present.

Miss Mayer Entertained.

Mrs. O. W. Leonard was hostess yesterday afternoon at her home on Hampton avenue, complimenting her niece, Miss Cornelia Mayer, a Converse student. Twenty-four guests, composed of Converse students, were included in the list of guests.

In the rooms, decorated in gay purple and gold, Converse colors, tables were arranged for the interesting game of rook. Yellow chrysanthemums and yellow covered lights added to the interior decorations.

Following the games, ices carrying out the college colors were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Roy Leonard.—Spartanburg Journal.

NEWBERRY HARDWARE CO.

The Anderson Phosphate & Oil Company Offer the Following Prizes to Farmers

Sowing wheat this fall who use the Anderson "Fish and Blood" goods when sowing and Anderson Phosphate and Oil Co.'s top dressing and soda next spring:

For the best five acres of wheat	$100
For the second best five acres of wheat	75
For the third best five acres of wheat	60
For the fourth best five acres of wheat	50
For the best three acres of wheat	50
For the best one acre of wheat	25

Mr. S. M. Byars, County Demonstration Agent, will name a committee in due time to award the prizes. All you will have to do to get the prize is to make the yield. Raising wheat and oats successfully is largely a matter of preparation and fertilization when grain is sown.

If the next wheat crop should be short four would make another advance.
