Entered at the Postoffice at Newberry, S. C., as 2nd class matter.

E. H. AULL, EDITOR

Friday, August 4, 1922.

It is due our Prosperity correspondent to say that the letter which we print today was written and mailed in plenty time for the Tuesday paper, but was held at the Newberry office for letter postage due, and that we did not get the notice until about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. We are not undertaking to blame any one, but just stating a fact. The notice may have been in the box, but we had taken out the mail two or three times during the day and did not see it. And we are making this statement in justice to our correspondent who is all the time on the job and keeps the readers of The Herald and News informed as to the happenings in and around Prosperity.

We have not yet had opportunity to get the mailing list corrected. We hope to do so before the next mailing, but it is a pretty big job to get several hundred names on the list and corrected. The sale was fine. We must have taken on as many new subscribers as we did collecting from old ones now on the list. Sorry all the old ones did not take advantage of the sale.

HOME COMING DAY AT COLONY LUTHERAN CHURCH

Last Sunday was home coming day at Colony Lutheran church some four miles east of Newberry. Rev. L. P. Boland is the pastor. It was decided some weeks ago to have an all day service at this church and to invite all the former pastors of the church and all the members who have moved away from the community to come and spend the day at the old church.

They came, all of them who could, and it was a great day for the home folk to have the boys and girls who had made their homes in other communities to come back home for this one day. These home coming days and the family reunions, that we are having so many of them in this day, are real good things. It is nice for the people to get together occasionally, and renew old acquaintance, and to talk over the other days. Three former pastors were present and many of those who had not been there in many days, and the widow of a former pastor was present. The former pastors present were, the Rev. J. J. Long, D. D., the Rev. A. J. Bowers, D. D., and the Rev. J. D. Kinard, D. D., and the former pastor's wife present was Mrs. Maggie Bowles, the widow of the late Rev. J. D. Bowles. Mrs. Bowles was really coming back home in the sense that this community was her childhood home, she being the daughter of Mr. Mike Fellers who lived near by, and the old home is still in the family and is now the home of Mr. Luther M. Fellers, the youngest child. And these home coming days are good, because they often are the cause of families getting together once more. In this case Mr. L. M. Fellers was happy in the fact that practically all his children and grand children had come home for the occasion, and it was a great thing to have all the children spend at least one night together in the old home, the scene of many happy childhood days.

At the morning service Mr. J. H. Bedenbaugh delivered a most cordial address of welcome and a response was to have been made by Mr. C. M. Wilson, a son of the congregation, but he was delayed in arriving. The sermon in the forenoon was preached by the Rev. J. D. Kinard who is not only a former pastor but also a former resident of the community, and it was a meeting for him of old friends of his childhood and boyhood days. Dr. Kinard preached a good gospel sermon, and it was greatly enjoyed by the large congregation present.

An excellent picnic dinner was then enjoyed and old acquaintance was renewed and many pleasant recollections of the bygone days were rehearsed. Among the older people present were Mrs. Maggie Bowles who now lives in Greenwood and who drove down in a car that morning from her Greenwood home in order to be there, and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Luther Aull of Greenwood county who had come down to Newberry on Friday that they might attend the home coming. Mr. Aull joined this church in his young manhood while he was living in the town of Newberry, there being at that time no Lutheran church in the town. This was in 1852. The next year the Lutheran congregation was organized in Newberry and he identified himself with it. Another of the first members of the Colony congregation is Mrs. John McCullough who lives near by and who has been confined to her bed for some time. She is now plus ninety years old, but did not become a member of this congregation until about 1854. The congregation was organized in 1845 and the first building at Colony erected in 1846. Rev. Mr. Boland read an interesting history of the congregation at the afternoon services which he has promised to give The Herald and News for publication in fact resolutions were adopted at the afternoon service requesting him to do so. We shall be glad to print it.

Excellent addresses were made by the Rev. J. J. Long and the Rev. A. J. Bowers, former pastors, and a brief talk was made by E. H. Aull. It was a fine day and one of good fellowship and we hope the good people of the church will make the occasion a permanent event in the life of the church and the congregation.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS PROSPEROUS PROSPERITY

Prosperity, July 31.—Mrs. Pansy Wallace Hebble, wife of Harry M. Hebble, died Thursday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. W. Harmon. Mrs. Hebble had returned in May from Tucson, Ariz., where she had gone in the hopes of recovering her health. As a young girl, she spent her vacations here with her sister, and being of a genial disposition, made friends readily. She was tender and sympathetic with those in trouble, and her hand was always stretched out to anyone in need. She was in the bloom of young womanhood, being only 27 years of age, and her death has cast a shadow of gloom over the entire town. She was a devoted member of the Baptist church and ways took a great interest in religious affairs, never failing to lend her beautiful voice when called upon. The remains were carried to Atlanta Friday for interment. Surviving are her husband, Harry M. Hebble of Cartersville, Ga., her mother, Mrs. J. I. Oxford of Ocoola, Ark., a sister, Mrs. G. W. Harmon, and two brothers, Vernon Wallace of New York, and Harold Wallace of Dallas, Ga.

Mrs. Mary Jane Shealy, wife of Pat W. Shealy, died suddenly Thursday night in an automobile while en route from her home to Newberry to see her sick granddaughter. She has a wide family connection and a host of friends in this community who have been saddened by the announcement of her death. Mrs. Shealy was 58 years of age. She was a loyal and faithful member of Mt. Olivet Lutheran church. The funeral services will be held Saturday morning at Mt. Olivet church by her pastor, the Rev. Cromer. She leaves to mourn her death her husband and the following children: Dr. A. L. Shealy of Gainesville, Fla., T. L. Shealy of Newberry, O. O., and E. S. Shealy of Prosperity, Mrs. Eunice Buzhardt of Newberry and Misses Daisy and Mary Shealy of Prosperity.

J. W. Harman committed suicide Friday night by cutting his throat with a razor. He was found by his brother, Dr. G. D. Harman, about 11:30, lying in the yard near the garage in his night clothes. Mr. Harman had been complaining of feeling unwell, but his family saw no signs of serious ill health. He was about 50 years of age, and is survived by his aged mother, Mrs. Harriett Harman, three brothers, Dr. G. D. Harman of Prosperity, J. F. Harman and T. J. Harman of Newberry and five sisters, Mrs. J. Ben Black, Mrs. C. S. Schumpert and Miss Madge Harman of Prosperity, Mrs. W. C. Adams of Greenville and Mrs. J. J. Amick of Chappells. The funeral was held at the Prosperity cemetery Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, being conducted by Rev. S. W. Hahn assisted by Rev. J. D. Griffin.

A barbecue, a Guernsey Bull association and a typical example of community spirit contributed their equal shares to a most delightful, entertaining and worthwhile gathering of Prosperity people on Wednesday, July 26, having as its setting a delightful grove and general barbecue grounds near Prosperity. Approximately 300 people attended and heard discussed general problems in dairying as they related to that community with the Guernsey cow playing a specific part in the enthusiasm. The meeting was held under the direction of Mr. T. M. Mills, county agent, who contributed a goodly part to the success of the day.

The Prosperity Guernsey Bull association, organized in the fall of 1921, formed the nucleus around which this general dairy interest and more specifically interest in the Guernsey cow, has grown. The three excellent bulls, judged from a breeding and type standpoint, were on the grounds and were the object of very much interest and instructive discussion throughout the day. It was indeed very gratifying from the viewpoint of one keenly interested in live stock development to take particular notice of the personal interest and eagerness to learn more of the industry on the part of every farmer present—not for an instant overlooking that same interest so apparent among the good women present who play such a major part in the dairying industry.

The program consisted of talks by Messrs. C. G. Cushman, extension dairy husbandman from the Clemson Agricultural college on "The Role of the Dairy Cow in South Carolina Agriculture," A. A. McKeown, district agent in agricultural extension on "Specific Problems of the South Carolina Farmer in the Face of the Boll Weevil," a milk testing demonstration conducted by Mr. Cushman and two cream separator demonstrations. Beside this instructive section of the program a bountiful barbecue added a most enjoyable hour to the full day's program. A threatening shower prevented a show ring exhibit of the Guernsey bulls and discussion of type and conformation for the benefit of the Guernsey enthusiasts. In giving an account of this sort of meeting specific mention must be made of the intangible good which comes from it, most aptly expressed in the term "personal touch" which must play and is playing a more important role in the development of rural communities. Closer social contact and a more widely developed community understanding certainly can be attributed to just such gatherings and tends to eliminate narrow cliques and the much individualism from the farmer class as relates to his social as well as business life. Through this manifested spirit in the Prosperity community we may expect dairying and the Guernsey cow to add a part to greater agricultural development.

Miss Effie Hawkins was the charming hostess to the Luther league when she entertained at the home of her father, Mr. S. B. Hawkins on Friday evening. The rooms were decorated in quantities of garden flowers. The guests were entertained with various games, including an automobile contest in which Mrs. S. W. Hahn and Miss Ruby Wheeler scored highest, winning miniature automobiles. Ices and sweets were served by the hostess, assisted by little Misses Frances Bedenbaugh and Myrtle Mathis.

Miss Lucy Lake entertained the members of her Sunday school class Thursday afternoon with a picnic at Pugh's pasture. After a refreshing "dip" in the pond, the party enjoyed the picnic lunch, returning home late in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Black left Tuesday for Fairfax. Miss Lillian Brown of Manning is visiting Mrs. W. P. B. Harmon. Mrs. J. D. Lorick and Mrs. W. J. Wise are spending the week in Columbia.

James Neeley of Olar is spending a few days with G. S. Wise. Mrs. Alma Nance of Tampa, Fla., is visiting Mrs. C. T. Wyche. L. M. Wise of Greenville is home on a two weeks vacation. Mrs. Virgil Kohn has gone to Columbia to visit relatives. Mrs. G. L. Robinson was operated on for appendicitis at the Columbia hospital Friday. Miss Doris Kohn has gone to Asheville. Mrs. Birge Wise spent the past week in Columbia with Miss Nell Kohn. Miss Louise Counts is visiting her grandmother in Columbia. Mrs. J. M. Bedenbaugh and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Bedenbaugh motored to Gary's Lane on Friday. Mrs. B. B. Schumpert has returned from Fairfield. Mrs. J. A. Hunt and children of Saluda are spending a while with the farmer's parents. Horace Hunter and Lindsey Igoer have returned from R. O. T. C. training camp at McClellan, Ala. Mrs. A. H. Kohn of Columbia spent Wednesday and Thursday with her brother, S. S. Birge. Mrs. Robinson of Columbia is visiting at the home of her son, G. L. Robinson. Mrs. J. F. Browne spent Saturday in Columbia. Mrs. J. S. Wheeler and children have returned from Wimsboro. Miss LeRhea Counts of Columbia is visiting Miss Frances Counts. Rev. J. D. Griffin has returned from Lake Junaluska where he took a course in Sunday school work. Ira B. Nates of Columbia was here for the week-end. Rev. J. D. Kinard of Johnston is visiting relatives here. R. S. Crossman of Hunting, Long Island, New York, has been on a short visit to Curtis Pugh.

PIANO RECITAL BY PUPILS OF MISS RAWL'S SCHOOL

An enjoyable event of the past week was the studio recital on Wednesday evening given by five of Miss Rawl's pupils of the summer term.

The guests were received at the door by Misses Ruth Harrell, and Mildred Renwick and ushered into the wide reception hall which was for the evening transformed into a miniature auditorium, the music room serving as the stage. Growing ferns and bowls of pink crepe myrtle furnished a pretty background for the airy frocks of the youthful players. With the exception of Miss Tommy Welling the entire program was rendered by pupils who appeared for the first time before an audience. Rather remarkable under the circumstances was the duet and short solo rendered by little Miss Frances Baker, after only six weeks of study. Master Joe Freed also showed unusual progress, having had but a few weeks of study before entering Miss Rawl's school where he has been for eight weeks.

The Lucia Sextette by Miss Carlisle after only a year's study in the school showed a finish of shading and interpretation scarcely to be expected from a pupil appearing in public for the first time.

Miss Tommy Welling's rendering of Dvorak's "Humoresque" was especially noticeable for its clear-toned quality and accurate phrasing.

Miss Ida Mae Wilson's rendering of the Soldiers' Chorus was an especially interesting prelude to the four-hand arrangement of the music by Miss Tommy Welling and Miss Rawl.

At the close of the program mint sherbet and macaroons were served by Misses Ruth Harrell and Mildred Renwick. About twenty-five guests, parents and friends of the pupils, enjoyed the evening.

SWANSON WILL WIN BY 50,000

Former Governor Davis Not in the Running for United States Senator From Virginia

Richmond, Va., Aug. 1.—Practically complete returns from three-fourths of the 100 counties in Virginia and scattering returns from the others received by The Times Dispatch give Senator Claude A. Swanson of Pittsylvania county 67,805 votes and Westmoreland Davis of Loudoun county, 22,841 in the contest for United States senator. Swanson's majority is confidently expected to go beyond the 50,000 mark by those who know the political situation in the state.

Mr. Swanson has carried all of the ten congressional districts in the state according to The Times-Dispatch and has registered majorities in all of the cities and probably 95 of the hundred counties.

Mr. Davis carried his home county of Loudoun by 966 votes. There were 2,250 votes cast, Mr. Davis received 1,618 and Mr. Swanson 632. Mr. Davis carried his home precinct, Leesburg, by 354. The vote there was Davis 485, Swanson 147.

Senator Swanson carried his home county of Pittsylvania by no less than 4,000 votes. The vote in Danville was Swanson 2,290, Davis 696.
