Death of Gen. Manigault.

The following dispatch appeared in the columns of the News and Courier of yesterday: General Manigault, who has just reached here of the death of Adjutant General Manigault...

The death of Gen. Manigault will be regretted by the people of the whole State. For four years he has filled acceptably the post of Adjutant and Inspector General of the State...

The Sixth Congressional Convention.

As a member of the Clarendon delegation, we attended the Congressional Convention of the sixth District which met in Florence, on Wednesday, the 11th inst. We arrived in Florence on the afternoon preceding the day of the meeting...

Col. Richardson will fill the office with credit to himself, with honor to the State, and with satisfaction to all her people. The name of Richardson, who comes from a race of Governors, adds dignity and lustre to the ticket...

The ticket chosen by the State Convention, held in Columbia last week, is a capital one, and we believe gives general satisfaction throughout the State. Its head, Col John P. Richardson, is a gentleman who has long been prominently connected with our Government affairs...

When the meeting had become organized, Mr. J. S. Evans, of Marion, introduced a series of resolutions, the purport of which was that the convention had no authority to nominate a congressman, and recommending that the same be chosen by a primary to be held on the first of September...

The proceedings of the convention were conducted in a pleasant manner. The only thing to mar the harmony of the day was the action of the Marion delegation in withdrawing from the meeting. And although we must condemn their course, we willingly accord to them honesty and sincerity...

was that the following amendment to the constitution of the Democratic Party had stripped the convention of the right to make a nomination:

Amendment to Article XIII. Aug. 5th 1886. Each Congressional District or Judicial Circuit in this State shall be entitled to elect its representatives to Congress...

The conduct of the Clarendon delegation was generally commended, and no doubt had a good deal to do with enhancing the chances of the future candidate from this county.

What Our Exchanges Have to Say About Clarendon's Favorite Son, our Nominee for Governor.

Williamsburg Herald: Col. Richardson is perhaps the most popular man in the State, and an officer of approved merit.

Albion Medium: Led by John Peter Richardson, one of the best men in the State, loved and respected by all who know him, the party is show of a splendid triumph.

Greenville Mountaineer and Enterprise: Col. Richardson is a high-toned gentleman, and will administer the duties of his position with impartiality to all the people and with a purpose of promoting the good of the entire State.

From the Lexington Dispatch: The nominee for Governor, Col. John P. Richardson, is the present State treasurer, and his management of her finances has been most satisfactory.

Fairfield News and Herald: The nomination of Col. John Peter Richardson is a triumph for the conservative element in our politics—for those who are opposed to class conflicts and class legislation—for those especially who opposed the combination which is openly charged to have been made.

Georgetown Enquirer: The name of Richardson, who comes from a race of Governors, adds dignity and lustre to the ticket. His administration of the finances of the State during the past four years has been marked by fidelity, sagacity and ability.

Laurens Advertiser: John Peter Richardson is the choice of the people, and his nomination is a stinging rebuke to those who would pretend that the Democratic administration since '76 has been a failure.

Barnwell Sentinel: The ticket chosen by the State Convention, held in Columbia last week, is a capital one, and we believe gives general satisfaction throughout the State.

Palm Springs Post: With the return of Democratic ascendancy in the State since 1876, we have had the peerless Hampton, the lofty Simpson, the inexorable Hagood and the polished Thompson. How fit a successor to these will be the genial, humane orateur Richardson.

When the meeting had become organized, Mr. J. S. Evans, of Marion, introduced a series of resolutions, the purport of which was that the convention had no authority to nominate a congressman, and recommending that the same be chosen by a primary to be held on the first of September.

The proceedings of the convention were conducted in a pleasant manner. The only thing to mar the harmony of the day was the action of the Marion delegation in withdrawing from the meeting. And although we must condemn their course, we willingly accord to them honesty and sincerity.

In him our people will find a statesman with no prejudices as to class, and an executive officer consumed with the desire to discharge his whole duty in accordance with the dictates of a lofty manhood and the best interests of his beloved Carolina mother.

Rules and Regulations for Primary Elections for Clarendon County.

1. On Tuesday the 31st day of Aug. 1886, there shall be held at the place of meeting of every Democratic club in the county, a primary election for the nomination of persons for the several offices to be filled; and the presiding officer of each club shall cause two certified copies of the club roll to be prepared and closed ten days before the day appointed as aforesaid for such primary election; one copy of which said roll shall be immediately transmitted to the chairman of the County Executive Committee, and the other copy shall be delivered to the Managers of the club poll on the day of said election, and before the polls are opened.

2. The polls shall be opened at 10 o'clock in the forenoon and be kept open without intermission until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when they shall be closed.

3. At each club poll there shall be three managers of election to be appointed by the County Executive Committee.

4. The Executive Committee shall furnish a ballot box with lock and key for each club polling place, for the secure keeping of which the managers shall be responsible. Immediately before opening the polls the managers and their clerk shall severally subscribe to the following pledge: "I solemnly pledge myself on honor that I will faithfully perform all the duties, incident to my position as manager of the primary election, to the best of my ability."

5. On opening the polls the ballot-box shall be emptied of all contents and exhibited thus emptied to the bystanders, and while so emptied, be closed and locked and shall so remain closed and locked until the polls are closed.

6. The managers shall keep a poll list and for this purpose shall appoint a clerk.

7. The ballots used shall be either printed or written or part printed and part written, and shall contain the names of the persons voted for, and the offices for which the persons so voted for are candidates.

8. The qualification of voters at such primary election, shall, in addition to membership in the Democratic club in which they propose to vote, be in all respects such as would qualify such persons to vote in the General Election for the State and County officers. Provided that no colored member of any Democratic club, who did not vote the Democratic ticket at the General Election of 1884, shall be permitted to vote at such primary election.

9. When for any cause a voter shall be challenged, the managers may accept or reject the voter thus offered, on either case it shall be the duty of the managers to have entered on their poll list a statement of the circumstances and of their action therein, and also the names of the candidates voted for, or offered to be voted for by the party challenged. The matter shall then be decided by the County Executive Committee.

10. On the close of the polls the managers shall proceed immediately, continuously, and publicly to count the votes.

11. When the votes shall have been counted, the managers shall make out in duplicate, returns showing the number of votes cast, for each person voted for, and the total number of votes cast, and shall deposit one of said returns in the ballot box, with the votes, and file the other as one of the records of the club.

12. The ballot box containing the ballots, the poll list, certified roll of the club which shall have been used by the managers, and the certified return of the managers, together with any other paper or papers concerning or affecting such primary election, shall be delivered by one of the Managers, securely locked, together with the key thereof, to the Chairman of the Executive Committee on Thursday the 2nd day of September 1886; and on Friday the 3rd day of September 1886 the County Executive Committee shall meet at Manning in said County at 12 o'clock, noon, and shall then and there open the ballot boxes so delivered to the chairman of said committee and shall canvass and aggregate such returns and shall immediately thereafter publish and declare the result of such election and shall take such further action therein as the nature of such result may make necessary.

13. If any person shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for the office for which he is a candidate, he shall be declared to be the Democratic nominee for such office. But if for any office, it be found that no candidate has received a majority of all the votes cast at the primary election for such office, then the County Executive Committee shall forthwith order another primary election to be held on Tuesday, the 15th day of September, 1886. The ballot boxes, with the votes cast in such second primary election, and all other papers and matter required by section 12 of these regulations to be deposited therein, shall be delivered by one of the Managers, securely locked, together with the key thereof, to the chairman of the Executive Committee, on Thursday the 16th day of September 1886 and the County Executive Committee shall meet on Friday the 17th day of September 1886 for the purpose of canvassing and aggregating the returns of such second primary election and declaring the result thereof. The said second primary election shall be held, managed and the returns thereof be made, under the same regulations as the first primary election, and the result of said second primary election shall be declared by the Executive Committee as in the first election.

14. At such second primary election, only the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes for each separate office at the former election shall be voted for. All votes for other parties shall be considered as scattering and not be counted, and the persons receiving the highest number of votes at the second primary election, including those if any who shall have been nominated in the first primary election, shall be the nominees of the Democratic party. Provided that in cases where there are more than one person to be elected for the same office the Executive Committee shall select according to the number of votes previously received twice as many persons as there are official positions to fill.

15. No person shall be eligible to election at the primary election who shall not pledge himself to abide the result of the election, which pledge shall be in writing, stating what office the person so pledging is a candidate for and be filed fifteen days before the first said primary election with the chairman of the Executive Committee, who shall publish in such a manner, as he may deem best adapted to give it notoriety, a list of those who shall have filed such pledges as aforesaid.

16. It shall be the duty of the County Executive Committee to hear and determine all appeals or protests, as the case may be, in contested primary election cases, and in all contested cases, notice of appeal or protest must be filed with the Chairman of said Committee on the same day on which the result of any election held under these regulations shall be published or declared, and the said Committee shall within three days after the day on which such result shall have been published or declared, meet at Manning aforesaid, and then and there proceed to hear, determine and dispose of all contested election cases of which notice shall have been given as herein required.

17. That these Rules and Regulations shall be published twice in the county papers and printed copies thereof shall be furnished by the Chairman of the Executive Committee to the Managers of Election, and to the President of each club in due time for use at the election herein provided for.

By order of the Executive Committee. JAMES E. DAVIS, Chairman. J. S. WILSON, Secty & Treas.
