Mr. J. D. Witherspoon, who is in business with Messrs. Bultman & Bro., was in town yesterday in the interest of his firm.

"Argonaut's" reply to the strictures made by our printer on his spelling are necessarily crowded out of this issue of the Times; also the communication of T. Pez.

We were pleased to notice in the Court room last week the genial countenance of Sumter's gallant Sheriff, Maj. Marion Sanders.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Bourne, Ind., says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE."

The next time reading under the auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian Church, is appointed for Friday evening, at the residence of Mr. L. Witherspoon.

Sinclair, the photographer, announces that he will not remain in town longer than the present week. This is the last opportunity to get an excellent picture cheap.

We learn with unfeigned sorrow of the death of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Cooper, which occurred last week. The sorrow stricken parents have our warmest sympathy.

Clarendon furnished only one recruit from the late Court to the penitentiary. This was a gentleman of color, who boasted but one leg, sent here for six months for riding a horse without the consent of the owner.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cts.

"Occasional" will please accept the contrite apology of the Times for the mistake in arranging his article of last week in the form. The printer inadvertently separated the list of presents, making a mortifying confusion.

On the 29th ultimo the registered debt of the county for the fiscal year, ending Oct. 31st, amounted to $4,888.13. In all likelihood, when all the outstanding claims are approved by the Board, the debt will foot up in the neighborhood of $7,000.

Mr. Harry H. Huggins, of Darlington, has his license to solicit insurance for the New York Life Insurance Company, published in to-day's issue of this paper. Mr. Huggins is a young man of worth, and represents a reliable Company. We take pleasure in recommending him to the people of Clarendon.

Last sales day was unusually quiet. At the opening of the Sheriff's sales not more than a half dozen persons were present. The two tracts of land of Jno. C. Manning, advertised to be sold, were both purchased by the mortgagees. This was all the property sold except a buggy, and a small amount of grain, belonging to the estate of James H. McFaddin.

The residence of Mr. R. L. Logan, which was burnt on the 10th ult., it will be remembered, was insured in the Factors and Traders' Insurance Company, of New Orleans, for $900. Mr. Logan received, last week, from the Company, a check for the whole amount of his policy.

This reliable company is represented in Manning by Mr. F. N. Wilson.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts., 50 cts., and $1.

The election passed off yesterday without a ripple to disturb the peaceful equanimity of our law abiding citizens. The day was a happy contrast to the violence and disorder which marked similar occasions years ago, when the Radical ring reigned supreme. Glorious old Democratic Party! May your rays forever radiate over this immense community with your present transcendent majesty.

On last Friday evening a musical entertainment was given at the residence of Dr. H. H. Huggins to raise a sum of money to assist in repairing the Methodist parsonage. The music was furnished by Dr. Huggins' accomplished daughters, and the talented Miss Virginia Ingram. The pieces were rendered with exquisite perfection, to the complete delectation of the large crowd present. The programme was varied by an excellent recitation by Miss Annie Huggins.

Judge Wallace paid the Grand Jury last week a high compliment upon the efficient manner in which they had discharged the duties devolving upon them. He said it was very seldom that a Grand Jury acted with the fairness and honesty, and with the same degree of intelligence as the one before him. The Judge expressed himself as regretting that the same jury were not to hold over 'till another term of the Court, in order that they might see that their wise suggestions were carried out.

The serenaders were in the field again Monday night. This time they were re-enforced by a stringed instrument which we venture to pronounce a guitar and a number of aeolian harps. It was emphatically a musical company. They sung music, whistled music, and played music. Their modus operandi of doing business was something on this order: On arriving on the scene of operations their distinguished presence was proclaimed by a young gallant stepping to the front and singing "I wish I was a dude, dude dude" (This was, no doubt, decided to by some of his auditors.) Then came the performance in which the harps and guitar participated. And lastly, for a peroration, "Nearer My God" was rendered by the whole troupe with a hearty good will. May these merry gentlemen live long to repeat again and again, their generous performances of Monday.

SUMMERTON SIFTINGS. SUMMERTON, S. C., Oct. 25, '86. Last Wednesday was a big day in Summerton—a wedding. It has been so long a time since we witnessed such a sight in these parts, that we were all full of excitement and elasticity. But as Occasional will give you a full history of the day, we will say no more on this subject, except that the only lonesome and melancholy thing that we saw on the occasion was a phalanx of old bachelors who had come purposely to set up an injunction during the marriage ceremonies. They were united—sat in a body in Church. So soon as they perceived that all their efforts to break up the ceremony availed nothing, one noted old thing said: "Men, this will never do; I can't stay in this crowd; break ranks men, break ranks!" The last we saw and heard of them, they were scattering in various directions declaring, that, "Of all sad words, of tongue or pen, The saddest are these:—It might have been."

We all wish the lovely young couple a long life of joy and happiness. We had the pleasure of accompanying Dr. Jos. H. Burgess, our dentist, to a picnic at Crab Apple Lake on last Saturday. This picnic was gotten up by Capt. D. W. Brailsford for the young ladies of Panola. Several families attended. The Capt. heads all in the way of making everybody feel at home, and rendering the whole occasion generally pleasant. We all spent a delightful day, everybody getting fish, cake, "lemon aid" and "pis-on" things to their heart's content. As is usual at picnics, we noticed a few "masses".

The Panola boys, by not having their full nine, were beaten by the Orangeburg nine, at base ball, by a score of 30 to 39, on last Friday evening. They are not whipped at all, and you will see it.

Rev. A. Nettles preached two impressive sermons in the Methodist Church yesterday, administering the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper after the morning service.

Mr. Editor, do not think me negligent for not having written ere this, for since my last, I escaped in one catastrophe, just by the skin of my eye.

"HACKMETACK," a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 50 cents.

THE CITY OF SAND HILLS. THE WEDGEFIELD ASSOCIATION. FULTON, S. C., October 25, 1886. Dry! Justly! but pleasant. You are aware of the fact no doubt, but we simply ventured the observation. Everything was awfully dull and lonesome like up here, until the earthquake again loomed up with a hearty "shake" for all. We attended the "big meeting" of the Baptists at Wedgefield on yesterday, it being the fourth days session of the Baptist Association at that place, and as it was Sunday almost everybody went,—every sect and creed united with the Baptist brethren in this gala day.

The pretty groves which surround Wedgefield's three beautiful churches presented a gay and pleasant scene, resplendent with charming ladies in beautiful costumes, with their gallant and handsome escorts, together with a liberal sprinkling of our particular friends, "the dudes,"—and the morning train brought quite a crowd from Sumter, to increase the immense concourse already there. Services were conducted in all the churches, yet many were unable to obtain seats. Dr. Bailey and Rev. Messrs. Fulton and Harden filled the pulpits during the morning services. In the afternoon the beautiful Baptist Church was dedicated; the services were most interesting to all. The dedication sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Griffith, of Greenville, and was a clear, eloquent discourse. The venerable Rev. W. H. Mahoney offered the dedicating prayer. About $140 was raised by the afternoon collections. These Wedgefield folks were very kind and hospitable to everyone, which tends to make our visit among them such as will be remembered with pleasure and gratitude. Mr. C. E. Broughton, the pleasant companion of our journey, and ourself, were hospitably entertained by Mr. I. J. Wilson, and we are indebted to our kind friend, Mr. Charley Wilson, for many courtesies. Among many agreeable acquaintances formed was that of U. S. Commissioner Norris, of Sumter. Capt. J. J. Broughton and his daughter, Miss Mamie, increased the number of Fultonites at the Association. One of the happiest remembrances of yesterday is the glimpse we obtained of Miss Mollie Physic's smiling face. Messrs. J. J. Broughton and F. J. Richardson were elected as delegates, and J. W. Weeks, as alternate from "Fulton Farmers' Club."

ARGONAUT. What True Merit Will Do. The unprecedented sale of Boschee's German Syrup within a few years, has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Coughs, Colds, and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by Physicians, as it does not dry up the cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary, removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected, and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cents, large bottles.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—a positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, and Canker Mouth.

NO USE. Backwoods school teacher (to boy): "How far have you gone?" Boy: "Ain't never been very fur; 'bout ten miles from home, I reckon." Teacher: "I mean how far have you advanced in your book?" Boy: "Over ter this here picture." Teacher: "Why, that's where the first lesson begins. You can't spell, can you?" Boy: "Ken spell dog an' dam, but ain't no great shakes on bird an' hoss-ly."

Teacher: "You little rascal, you must not talk that way. Did your father ever hear you talk that way?" Boy: "Nome." Teacher: "Then I'm glad there's some one whom you respect?" Boy: "No use in talkin' that way befo' dad, fur he's deaf. Ef er hoss vus ter fing dad he couldn't hear hisse'f hit the ground."—Arkansas Traveler.

STATE FAIR! 1886 Nov. 9th. Nov. 9th, 1886. No doubt the Fair this season will be more successful than any in the past. Extensive preparations are being made on a large scale to entertain the visitors, who expect to attend the Fair. In addition to the above attraction I will take pleasure in entertaining visitors at the Emporium of Fashion, with an exhibition of fashionable clothing for men and boys. The display of men's garments are artistically arranged as to give the visitor the opportunity of finding the style of garment he may need without looking over the whole stock. On entering the magnificent establishment, to your right you will find a handsome line of Gents' Furnishing Goods; this department consists of shirts, laundried and unlaundried, of every description, half hose in plain and fancy, collars, cuffs, gloves, handkerchiefs, suspenders, and an elegant line of gents' neck-wear. To your left is the hat department, where you will find all the latest styles and shapes of soft and stiff hats, awaiting your inspection; also a beautiful line of silk umbrellas, with gold and silver handles. Then in the center of this large store you will find the counters loaded with choice suits for men and youths, of every style, pattern, and quality of goods. Near the center you come to the cutaway suits, in whip cord, cork screw, chevrons and fancy cassimeres. Then still moving on you come to the counters filled with double breasted frock coats and vests. After passing this stock you are lead into the boys' department, which is entirely separate from the other department. This stock of boys and children's clothing is not surpassed by any in the city of State. The display far exceeds any of my past endeavors in making this attraction for the boys and their mothers. The styles and textures of these goods can not be found elsewhere in the city. Those who have visited this department are more than pleased with the stock. Just opposite to the boys' department you will find a line of gents' line shoes, which can be had in any style or shape that you may need. I keep none but the leading makes in this stock. Remember you can find them in all grades. Those who want fine shoes will call here. Respectfully, M. L. KENARD, Columbia, S. C.
