We were pleased to meet Mr. Jos. H. Montgomery, who is attending the South Carolina University, in town last Thursday. Mr. Montgomery was a witness in a case before the Probate Court.

We have a very sensible letter from Rob't T. Stewart, Esq., colored attorney of this town, addressed to his colored friends on the importance of educating themselves, which will be published next week.

The dime reading at Dr. Dinkins' last Friday evening was attended by quite a large crowd. We were unavoidably absent and hence are unable to say anything about the programme. The music by the young ladies is reported as being very fine.

James has betaken himself to whereabouts unknown.

The ministers of the churches in Manning have agreed to hold thanks-giving lying, and being in County of Charendon, services in the Presbyterian Church tomorrow (Thursday). In announcing this fact last Sunday from the pulpit, the Rev. Mr. Leard made an earnest appeal to congregation to attend the services, which will commence at about 12 o'clock M.

for Consumption, Loss of Appetite, Dizziness, and all symptoms of Dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cents per bottle.

On last Thursday Cicero Harvin and Jim Rhame, (colored) brothers-in-law, in a quarrel over a family disagreement, resorted to shot-guns as the speediest way to settle their difficulty. Each seized his trusty musket and banged away. Cicero's load of small shot took effect in Jims shoulder; and the contents of Jim's gun found a lodging place in Cicero's head. Neither was seriously hurt. The little trouble was afterwards amicably adjusted.

We are requested to state that the Monu-mental Association will meet in the Court House at Manning on Saturday, the 4th of December, at 10 o'clock A. M.

This society, which is for a most lauda-ble purpose, has been on the eve of dis-ruption for several months, and but for the indefatigable efforts of several of our citizens it would have proved a failure. And now another effort will be made to get our citizens interested in this matter. It is due to those whose energies have been put forth above stated case, by His Honor, W. H. in this cause that the people bestir them-selves and attend the meeting in Decem-highest bidder for cash, at the Court House ber. The ladies are earnestly called upon to arouse their husbands, fathers, brothers, and sons to a remembrance of their dead on Monday, the 6th day of December, 1886, Confederate kinsmen; and to take an inter- being salesday, within legal hours of sale, est in the monument to be erected to their all that tract of land situated in the County Let us have a stirring meeting in December, and continue from thence for-

At about 7½ o'clock, the church being well filled with the friends of the contracting parties, a wedding march pealing from the church organ, under the skillful touch of Mrs. Lina Huggins, announced the appearance of the bridal company. The bride appeared in full costume, with orange blos soms and the long graceful bridal veil; and her female attendants were elegantly dressed in variegated colors, which made a beautiful scene in the glowing light from the Burwell R. Bradley, Gabriel K. Bradley,

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. Leard, after which the party adjourned to the home of the bride, where they were royally entertained with a magnificent ban-quet. The following were the attendants:

The tax gatherer was upon us last week. We believe his collections were as good as usual at this point. Our old friend "Don" was with the Treasurer on his rounds. We were pleased to enjoy a little social chat with him as we have known him of old. Business has been pretty fair this fall, and our merchants are making good collections, and are well supplied with everything need-ful; are also active and energetic, and therefore must succeed—so also the proprietors of our two lumber mills, the Messrs. Hudgins—father and son.

Our churches and Sunday schools are in good condition, and will probably not go into winter quarters this year.

The Freewill Baptists near here have se cured the services of Rev. Sam'l F. Parker this year and will have preaching regularly twice each month. Time presses me so that I cannot finish -will therefore write again. F. Nov. 15, 1886.

Extensive preparations are being made

In addition to the above attraction I will take pleasure in entertaining visitors at the Emporium of Fashion, with an exhibition of fashionable clothing for men and boys

The display of men's garments are artistically arranged so as to give the visitor the opportunity of finding the style garment he may need without looking over the whole stock. On entering the mammoth estab-lishment, to your right you will find a hand-some line of Gents' Furnishing Goods; this department consists of shirts, laundried and unlaundried, of every description, half hose in plain and fancy, collars, cuffs, gloves, handkerchiefs, suspenders, and an elegant line of gents' neck-wear.

To your left is the hat department, where you will find all the latest styles and shapes of soft and stiff hats, awaiting your inspection: also a beautiful line of silk umbrellas,

Then in the center of this large store you will find the counters loaded with choice suits for men and youths, of every style,

Near the center you come to the cutaway suits, in whip cord, cork screw, cheviots and fancy cassimeres.

Then still moving on you come to the counters filled with double breasted frock coats and vests. After passing this stock you are lead into the boys' department, which is entirely separate from the other department. This stock of boys and children's clothing is not surpassed by any in the city or State. The display far exceeds any of my past endeavors in making this attraction for the boys and their mothers. The styles and textures of these goods can not be found elsewhere in the city. Those who have visited this department are more than pleased with the stock. Just opposite to the boys' department you will find a line of gents' fine shoes, which can be had in grades. Those who want fine shoes will
