MANNING TIMES.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 13, 1887.

B.S. DINKINS, Editor.

fished elsewhere, is a crimson stain appreciate by an inspection. upon the county of York, and adds another blot upon the fair name of for which the five wretches were sum- fore held in Manning. marily punished. The court was in session at the time. The preponderance of the evidence was clearly ry companies of the county will take against the prisoners and with public place after which the Fair building progress. The amount asked for this pursentiment high in opposition their will be opened, and continue until conviction was a foregone conclusion. Indeed it seemed impossible for Giles Goode, Bailey Dowdle, Prindley Thompson, Mose Lipscomb and Dan Roberts to escape conviction for the murder of young Goode on the 30th of last November. But at a time when a day or two at the fartherest would have seen these parties sentenced to the gallows, up steps a band ed for his pronounced Democratic of undisguised men, who in open de- principles. The State and the Demfiance of all law, order, and peace, break open the county jail, and dragging their victims some distance swung them to the limbs of trees. What a barbarous sight must have met the gaze of the law abiding citi- burg Herald has recently made a very zen of York as he passed that way violent and bitter attack on Solicitor on the day of the tragedy. It was a T. M. Gilland for having signed a pesight that would have chilled the blood of an aboriginal savage or none of the facts of the case are transfixed with horror the semi-civil known here, still it can be said in beized Asiatic. The murder of young half of Sumter that Solicitor Gilland Goode was diabolical but the lynch- has the entire confidence of the peoing of those five men was a far graver ple of this county. He has always offense.

The good man with a respect for mon sense. shudders when he contemplates the rapid strides by which his country is moving backward. Not many years ago, men were filled with horror at the news of a lynching in South Carolina. Now it is a daily ocly take the law in their own hands in the broad light of day, with no effort five days. at concealment. It is inevitably necessery that something be done to check this growing evil. Though Judge Pressley no doubt erred in admitting from the Bench that the courts five days. were powerless to bring such offenders to justice, yet he told the unvarnished truth, as startling as it may appear. A living example of this is the noted Culbreath lynchers. The people must be taught from the press and pulpit to respect the law and punish its violat-

Open defiance of law is the OIS.

York, the account of which is pub- velous to describe as the public will with Mr. Mauning.

We have only attempted a cursory and hasty description of the Fair of the State. It was without excuse, the Guard, which will surpass in eve- ishing business. Visitors from all parts of and is a worse murder than the crime ry way anything of the kind ever be- the United States flock here every day by shooting arranged between the militaeverything is disposed of.

Dinner, consisting of substantials of every variety and delicacies in profu- $250,000 thus placed at the disposal of the sion will be served.

Colonel D. Wyatt Aiken, member of Congress from the 4th District died at his home in Cokesbury on the 6th inst. He was a man of exalted character and has always been distinguishocratic party have lost an able servant.

A Good Word for Solicitor Gilland. A correspondence from Sumter in the News and Courier says : A correspondent of the Williamstition for the pardon of a certain criminal in that county. Although observed the duties of his office in a manner which has commanded the greatest esteem and confidence, and censure the Herald for publishing such a scurrilous communication, for which there can be no foundation.

Court will begin on Tuesday, 19th currence. Once it was done at mid- inst., at 11 A. M. The following is the night by masked men; now men open- order of Circuits and time allowed to each

> Fifth Circuit, Tuesday, April 19th Sixth Circuit, Tuesday April 26th, four days. Seventh Circuit, Monday, May 2nd, five days.

Eighth Circuit, Monday, May 9th,

First Circuit, Monday, May 16th five days. Second Circuit, Monday, May 23rd, three days. Third Circuit, Thursday, May 26th, wo days. Fourth Circuit, Monday, May 30th, two days.

least, and yet the most difficult table tary of the Treasury, and the first lady of of all to describe is the one on which the Cabinet, is a quiet cultivated lady, with everything not mentioned, and what- retiring and gracious manners, one whom ever else the mind can conceive of will it will be a pleasure to regard as a leader. be placed. We don't know what else of New York, and the family being in mournto call it than the olla podrida table. ing have not gone much into society since From those things useful to the prat- they came here. They live in a rather modtling babe to ornaments for the gray- est house in the fashionable West End, and INEXCUSABLE LAWLESSNESS headed sire will be found among its Mrs. Fairchild remarked that it was not un. The lynching of the five negroes in mysterious contents. It is too mar- knowing but that they would go out of office

Notwithstanding the fact that the marble halls and corridors of the Capitol have been deserted by our lawmakers for a month, the guides about the building are doing a flour the hundred. Before the Fiftieth Congress On Wednesday afternoon the target begins its Executive life the Capitol and grounds will present a much grander appearance than they have ever before possessed. Great changes for the better are in pose was $125,000 but Congress decided that the present condition of the Capitol approaches should be remedied as quickly as possible, and doubled the amount. The architect will enable him to have the work entirely completed during the summer. Just beyond the beautiful plaza which stretches Eastward from the Capitol, excavations and preparations are being made for the erection of the new Congressional Library, where the largest and most valuable collection of books in the United States are to be stowed away. There are over 600,000 volumes, and it is commonly said that Mr. Spofford, the Librarian of Congress, knows something about A Congressman recently said, facetiously, "I don't read books, I read Spofford." If a difficult to find or is of obscure origin he Effects of Susanna Convers, goes to Mr. Spoflord. If he wants the best authority on any subject, or, indeed, if he in any of those thousands of volumes he goes to the same source.

Application for Letters Dismissory. Notice is hereby given that on the third day of May 1887, I will apply to the Probate Judge of Clarendon County for a final disthe law commensurate with his com- public opinion here seems inclined to charge as Executrix of the Estate of N. H-Welch deceased. Lydia L. Welch. April 11th. 1887. Supreme Court. The April term of the Supreme Protect Your Eyas H.HIRSCHBERGS SPECTACLES å

EYEGLASSES. PAT? JULY 11 1879.

MR. H. HIRSCHBERG The well-known Optician of 107 N. Fourth Street, (ur der Planters House) St. Louis, has appointed J. G. DINKINS & CO., of MANNING, S. C., as Agent for his celebrated Diamond Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Cases in the original jurisdiction These Glasses are the greatest invention ev-

J.G. DINKINS & CO.

-OR THE PART-

"The Lost Cause."

worst evil yet. The example set is of the term. followed and it grows, and grows, until unless it is checked, it becomes a vampire to sap the very foundations of the government. The State should take the matter of the Yorkville lynchers in hand. The whole power of the country should be used for their prosecution.

HO. THE FAIR!

Fair of the Manning Guard. Only viewed Secretary Lamar, received their one week from to-day, next Wednesthis enterprise will behold and appreciate the effort now being made to make the Fair a means of pleasure oring for is now an accomplished fact. But Southern Women Played in and profit to all visitors. Its success while the new court will be able to remedy now is fully assured. Merchandise of some evils, in current transportation methevery variety and generous abundance an amount of good as is anticipated from is stored away ready to be opened and it by all sorts of reformers who think that displayed on the auspicious Foccasion everything can be regulated by law. Everything is to be auctioned in The President of the Commission is good faith, and knocked down to the election was predetermined. It was undergood faith, and knocked down to thehighest bidder. Ample means will beprovided from which to purchase afull family larder for a whole year.election was predetermined. It was thuchstood by the other members the Presidentwanted him to be at the head and they ac-quiesced in his choice without discussion,admitting that the Judge knew more abouthome have never been tond.MOTHERS,Write us the hardships whichyou endured for the sake ofthe "Lost Cause."MOTHERS,Write us the hardships whichyou endured for the sake ofthe "Lost Cause." and country will find it economy to law and railroad matters than all the others be present on account of the many put together. other useful articles to be sold. A ized, (it consists of three Democrats and two new sewing machine, barrels of flour, Republicans, one of which is chairman) canned groceries, and a multitude of when it fails to satisfy shippers-as it is articles valuable and useful in every almost certain to do-the Democratic House home will be put up and sold. Then Republican Senate, and the Democratic mathere is the art table, conspicuous on joricy of the Commission can plead that presented to the Guard through Mr. chairman. To appoint a majority of Reand valued at $40. This picture will fikely be rafiled. Umbrelias, silk and the Republican party the management of it alpaca, and a legion of handsome or- and the responsibility attached. namental articles will make up another table. The next and most attrac- Cleveland's since the fourth of March, 1885, tive feature of the Fair will likely be that of Mr. Fairchild to be Secretary of the the table set apart for the elegant, ar- Treasury. It is in the direct line too of tistic and unique pieces of fancy work | civil servive reform-a promotion for real House. designed and executed by the delicate merit. The new Cabinet officer is very deft fingers of the kind ladies who popular at the Treasury Department as is have responded so willing y to the call also Judge Maynard, the Second Comptrollthe same line and but little less inter- itatively announced these two officials were esting will be the table of perfumes. overwhelmed with congratulations. The

The rarest, choicest, colonges, extract- rush was so great that Mr. Fairchild was ed from aromatic plants from here, forced to ask all callers to desist until a certain hour, when both gentlemen gave there, and everywhere, have been pre- themselves up to hand shaking with the sented to the Guard and will be on hundreds of employes of the Department. exhibition and sale. The last but not Mrs. Fairchild, the wife of the new Secre-

will have preference on each Monday er made in Spectacles. Applications for admission to prac-Applications for admission to print tice must be filed on or before April 26th. has to enange these diases from an every pair purchased are guaranteed, so that if they ever leave the eves (no mat-ter how rusted or scratched the Lenses are)

Our Washington Letter,

[From Our Own Correspondent.] WASHINGTON, April 11, 1887.

Since I last wrote you the five gentlemen who compose the new Inter State Commerce Commission arrived in the city, talked over The time is drawing near for the preliminaries, visited the President, inter-Commissions, took the oath of Office, innay, and the patrons and friends of spected their temporary quarters, took possession of them, elected their chairman, and entered upon their new duties. So, what the country has long been clamods, it is pretty certain not to do so great

Probably no appointment of President ographical Sketches of Southern Women. Book after book has been published on the Civil War; the great and good men who fought upon the battle fields have bhen admired and praised by the world, but the hardships of the mother and children at you on the battlefield and in the hospital. WIVES, Write us how you supported yourselves and children for As the board is now made up and organ-four long years and found time to make grny jeans for Southern soldiers. ALL are invited to write us short stories about the hardships, toils, and sufferings of Southern women during the war. A reasonable price will be paie for all matwhich will be a costly oil painting, the work was directed by a Republican Southern womenhood, we believe that in the south and Southern womenhood, we believe that in presented to the Guard through Mr. chairman. To appoint a majority of Re-the goodness of your heart you will oid us M. Levi, by an art firm of New York, publicans on the Commission would have in paying some tribute of respect to our been a shrewd move on the part of the Pres- faithful mothers, sisters and wives. For further particulars address Publisher BANNER, ident, but the next wisest thing was to give

Feb. 25

G. ALLEN HUGGINS, JR., DENTAL SURGEON, Der Office on Street South of Court Mch31

