Rachel McDuffie has been taken in charge by the Probate and his staff for the transportation of lunatics. She will be sent to the State Asylum.

The hour for prayer meeting at the Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon has been changed from 4 o'clock to 5 o'clock.

The Ladies' Missionary Society, of the Methodist church will hold a meeting next Wednesday afternoon immediately after the prayer meeting.

Mr. John Watt has recently lost two children. They died within ten days of each other. His friends extend to himself and wife their warmest sympathy.

Manning has four Esculapians whose average avoirdupois exceed that of any other four doctors, we venture to say, in the State. The fifth medicine man is rather lean.

Mr. R. F. Milligan lost his turpentine still by fire last week. The loss is estimated at $700. This is a heavy blow, but Mr. Milligan has energy and vim and will soon get over it.

The late refreshing showers have run horticultural, serial, and staple stock way yonder above par. There never was a brighter prospect for a grand crop harvest this autumn, than the present look out.

What remuneration do the newspapers of Manning receive for their work in trying to advance the interests of the town and county? Echo, faintly, answers, "not a farthing."

Rev. James McDowell conducted the union service in the Methodist church Sunday evening. His sermon was a thoughtful production, well prepared and delivered in his characteristic earnest, solemn manner.

We are pleased to observe that Clarendon county is doing better about her jail and public offices. The last presentment of the Grand Jury makes a favorable report of the condition of affairs.—Abbeville Medium.

If you will send a two cent stamp to pay postage to Colonel A. P. Butler, Columbia, S. C., he will send you a package of Kolb Gem watermelon seed. They are from the plantation of J. D. Browne, Williston, S. C., one of the most successful melon raisers in the State. The seed are of the best and there is no better melon variety.

The great trouble with you John is, said a lady to her husband, who is suffering from the effects of the night before, "you can't say, no. Learn to say 'No,' John, and you will have fewer headaches. Can you let me have a little money this morning?" "No," said John with apparent ease.

J. D. Alsbrook, Esq., will be in town next Saturday and the following Monday. He requests the statement to be made that he will be glad to see any parties having lands in Black River Swamp for sale. Mr. Alsbrook is agent for a corporation interested in purchasing swamp or river lands.

The report is current in Manning, that a white woman said to hail from Charleston, is married to Tom Pierson, colored, of this place, and that they are living here openly as man and wife. We understand that a minister of the A. M. E. Church in Sumter married them. This matter should be forthwith investigated by the officials, and if found true, the woman, Pierson, and preacher should all be arraigned before the Courts.

There is, or there was, a time in the knowledge of every citizen when something marvelous disturbs the monotony of every day occurrences. A practical farmer was heard to remark the other day with no little complacency, that he raised a turnip that fed his family for a whole day. Turnip stories the reader thinks are getting rather trite. However a turnip has never been known to cover itself with a loadstone, although a spider has been known to attract by force a chicken to its web.

The Carolina Teacher is a monthly magazine published at Columbia by Mr. W. L. Bell. The last copy of this magazine contains some valuable suggestions to teachers, either of a high or low degree, and, perhaps, the perusal of its pages by the profession may contribute to their stock of ideas on the art of school teaching. "A Grand Teachers' Co-operative Fraternity" is the heading of an article written by Mr. John M. Richardson, of Daingerfield, Morris County, Texas, but formerly a native of this County. The subscription price of this monthly is $1.25 per annum.

Corporal W. C. Davis carried off the honors at the competitive drill of the cadets of the Military Academy last Saturday. He was successful in being first in his division, Company D, and was awarded the honors of the best drilled man at the Academy. The victory is especially complimentary to Corporal Davis, as he has not yet been two years at the Academy and among his competitors were cadets of four years.

Twenty dollars, clear of all expenses, was realized by the festival of the Children's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church last Thursday evening. The amount will go to the Thornwell Orphanage, of Clinton, in this State. It was touching to hear this pathetic remark of a little Miss, "Won't the money do the poor little orphans good?"

Mr. R. M. Dean and his accomplished daughter, Miss Minnie, added to the pleasure of the evening with some good music on the piano and violin.

Capt. Vincent F. Martin, Travelling Agent of Public Lands, expects to be in Manning from the 7th to the 11th of June, for the purpose of effecting the redemption, sale, or renting of lands forfeited to the State for taxes in Clarendon county, and, also, to compare books with the Auditor.

By direction of the Secretary of State, Captain Martin will pay especial attention to correcting any errors in the forfeited land list, and any persons having reason to think that any exist, are cordially invited to communicate with him at the office of the County Auditor.

The turnip story of the Major in the Enterprise is eclipsed by his pumpkin experience in the West. He planted what he thought was an ordinary pumpkin seed on a piece of ground not unusually fertile. To his surprise immediately the seed sprung up and forthwith a vine branched off. To the Major's complete astonishment, like a streak of greased lightning, the vine started for him. And he started for home like a mad Pegasus, but perceiving from a hasty glance over his shoulder that the vine was on him he dodged behind a tall pine for protection. The vine kept right on and when the Major got home he found it there. It had passed through the house, entered the kitchen, and grown a pumpkin so large as to completely block up the kitchen door. At the beginning we said this occurred in the West, in Texas, we believe.

FEMALE RULE.—"The Mayoress of a northern Kansas town, who was elected under the new woman suffrage law last week, came down to her office the other day with a Mother Hubbard on, and as she sat cross legged in the Mayor's chair, the city clerk noticed that she had a hole in her stocking and that her bustle was to one side. He reported the fact to his wife, his wife told the hired girl, the hired girl told her fellow, her fellow told the city marshal, and the city marshal told the Mayoress, whereupon the city clerk got fired and the town is scandalized. The Mayoress said that she would wear her bustle in front, behind, or sideways, and it was nobody's business. It is needless to say that the fair Mayoress is red-headed."

Academy Commencement. The annual exhibition of the Manning Academy will be held in the Court House Thursday morning, July 9th. It will as usual, consist of recitations, speeches, dialogues, etc. Several prizes are to be presented to meritorious students, among which will be a gold medal to the student taking first honor. In the evening, at 9 o'clock, the anniversary exercises of the Thompson Literary Society will be held in the Academy building. Miss Susie Lesesne will recite; Miss Addie McFaddin will read an essay; Messrs. J. H. Rigby, T. and J. Wilson, and Wm. Jenkinson, will debate the question, "Should National aid be given to the cause of education;" and Mr. Harvey Mitchum will deliver the annual oration. After these exercises a reception will be held. The public are invited to all the exercises.

An Unknown Waif. Mr. Willoughby Christmas, of this county, awoke during the night of the 17th instant, and hearing a child crying in the yard, he became interested to know how it was possible for one of his children to get out of the house in the night time. He soon counted his children and found the number correct. He then went to the yard and found a white girl baby alone. It was poorly and scantily dressed, and near to it was a slip of paper on which was written "Born 15th of March." Mr. Christmas says the child did not look to be more than three weeks old. At last accounts the matter was in mystery.—County Record.

FOUR LITTLE MISSES ON THE STAGE. SUMMERTON, May 27, 1887.

Mr. Edmon: As no one else has done so, I give you an outline of the most enjoyable little entertainment that it has been our pleasure to witness in a long, long time. I wish I could do justice to this affair, but I am no writer. Some one ought to have written up the whole affair, as the parties concerned deserved a notice in public print.

Four little girls, viz: Misses Annie Burgess, Annie Mabel Cantey, Georgie Ingram, and Annie Richbourg, announced some weeks ago that they were going to give an entertainment at the residence of Mr. W. W. Richbourg on the night of the 20th instant, for an unknown purpose, and that they would charge five cents admission. Well, no one paid any special attention to their announcement, yet, as the time drew near, each one would say to his friend or neighbor, "Do you expect to go out to the entertainment?" Answer, "Well I don't no; yes, I reckon I will, I'll go round and see what's up." At any rate, on last Friday night at an early hour Mr. R's house was crowded with old and young, to see what the "little things" would do. These little girls seemed so happy and mischievous that some of us thought they were after an "April Fool," but no, the afterthought was, this is May.

When the hour arrived, a gentle signal was given for silence. Mr. John C. Ingram arose and said: "The first piece to be rendered by the Summer-ton Amateur Troupe, is Dixie! by Misses Burgess and Ingram." They played it well. No one could find a fault, and when they had finished "Dixie," my! such rounds of applause. From time to time the following programme was announced and successfully executed:

Song—"She Sleeps in the Valley"—Troupe.

Banner Quick Step—Mabel Cantey.

Mother Goose-Recitation—Georgie Ingram.

Nearer my God to Thee—Instrumental—Annie Burgess.

Annie Laurie—Annie Richbourg.

Valliance Polka—Misses Ingram and Burgess.

Song—Little Brown Church—Troupe.

Black Hawk Waltz—Georgie Ingram.

Poor Polly—Recitation—Annie Burgess.

Song—School Girl's Lament—Troupe.

Every one present was perfectly charmed at the success with which each little girl's efforts were crowned. This is not all Mr. Editor, "not so much what we do, but how," (with what motive.) At the conclusion of the entertainment, it was announced that there was an indebtedness hanging over the Academy, and that these children wanted it paid, and that herewith they present ed the fruits of their labor, $4.10, to go towards the payment of said debt. Go it little girls; I admire the "will and the way" with which you accomplish things. That debt will roll away by your continuous little efforts, if, though faintly you still keep pursuing. Have another entertainment. I pledge you the presence and attention of one who is WILLING TO HELP.

Led Astray. "FERNANDESA, Nassau Co., Fla. March 28, 1880—"I have used Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator and always found it to do what is claimed for it. I would be glad to get the pure and genuine. Send me some from honest hands with red Z and Zeilin & Co.'s signature on wrapper. The fictitious star sold will injure some one badly. Mexican Mustang Liniment

CURES Scalds, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Burns, Scalds, Stings, Bites, Bruises, Corns, Sprains, Strains, Stitches, Stiff Joints, Backache, Galls, Sores, Spavin, Cracks, Contracted Muscles, Eruptions, Hoof Ail, Scrow, Worms, Swinney, Saddle Galls, Piles.

THIS GOOD OLD STAND-BY accomplishes for everybody exactly what is claimed for it. One of the reasons for the great popularity of the Mustang Liniment is found in its universal applicability. Everybody needs such a medicine. The Lumberman needs it in case of accident. The Housewife needs it for general family use. The Candler needs it for his team and his men. The Mechanic needs it always on his work bench. The Miner needs it in case of emergency. The Farmer needs it in his house, his stable, and his stock yard. The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it in liberal supply aboard and ashore. The Horse-fancier needs it—it is his best friend and safest reliance. The Stock-grower needs it—it will save him thousands of dollars and a world of trouble. The Railroad man needs it and will need it so long as life is a round of accidents and dangers. The Backwoodsman needs it. There is nothing like it as an antidote for the dangers to life, limb and comfort which surround the pioneer. The Merchant needs it about his store among his employees. Accidents will happen, and when these come the Mustang Liniment is wanted at once. Keep a Bottle in the House. This the best of economy. Use in case of accident saves pain and loss of wages. Keep a Bottle Always in the Stable for use when wanted.
