RED MEAT TOBACCO. Our town is excited over the "Red Meat Tobacco." The best known. Ask for it.

The Barwell People argues, and rightly too, that the best way to tell "the best county" is to look at the advertising columns of the county paper.

The Clariosophic and Euphradian societies of the South Carolina college will have a joint debate on Wednesday evening, the 21st.

Mr. J. H. Montgomery, of this county, is assigned the distinguished position of representing the Euphradians in the contest.

Farmers wanting fresh field seeds suited to this climate, will find them at Lorick and Lowrance, Columbia, S. C.

The Cheraw Reporter appeared last week enlarged to a seven column sheet and greatly improved in appearance.

We congratulate our contemporary on this evidence of prosperity. It is a meritorious publication deserving success.

Messrs. Legg & Hutchinson will leave this week for Tennessee and will return about the middle of January with a car-load of fine mules and horses.

The merit of RED MEAT TOBACCO is conceded by the attempts to imitate it. But don't be deceived. Ask for the water melon tag.

The Son of a Respectable Citizen of Salem Accused.

On the evening of the 7th, the following telegram was received by Sheriff Lesene from Kingstree: "Arrest C. H. Schembrell or any one calling at express office for money package from A. J. Salineas & Son on draft from Benjamin Bros."

December 7th, 1887.

N. A. Hall, Esq., Manning, S. C.

DEAR SIR: Am informed by A. J. Salineas & Son, of Charleston, S. C., party by name of C. S. Chembrel has sent a draft purporting to be drawn by us on A. J. Salineas & Son for sum of $250, that he has sent them the draft, asking of them to forward the package of money to Manning, S. C.

The telegram and letter was caused by some one giving his name as C. H. Schembrell attempting to forge a draft of Benjamin Bros., of Kingstree, on A. J. Salineas & Son, of Charleston.

Reardon denies all knowledge of the forgery and says he was asked by a man a stranger, whom he had never seen, to enquire at the express office for a package for C. H. Schembrell.

Reardon is the son of Mr. Daniel E. Reardon, a very respectable citizen of Salem, who has the warmest sympathy of our citizens in his distress.

The Rev. Mr. Law who is the canvassing agent in this State and North Carolina for the American Bible Society, of New York, delivered an address in the Methodist church Sunday afternoon in the interest of this society and for the purpose of re-organizing the auxiliary branch formerly existing here.

The interest manifested in the auxiliary society is indicative that great good will be accomplished in this county. When the membership increases and the organization is in thorough working order a colporteur will be put in the field to canvass the county visiting every household and sell a Bible where there is none at the cost of publishing, and where the household is too poor to buy one, a Bible will be given away.

On Monday the Executive Committee met in the office of the Clerk of the Court, and arranged and planned the work of the Society for the next year. An order for Bibles was made through Rev. Mr. Law. The drug store of Messrs. W. E. Brown & Co., was selected as the depository for the books, with Mr. E. E. Dickson, depository.

A Festive Day at Panola on the 29th Instant.

The good people of the Panola neighborhood are preparing with great enthusiasm to paint that portion of the county red on the occasion of the opening of their beautiful Academy, which takes place on the 29th instant.

Addresses will be delivered by Governor Richardson, and the Superintendent of Education, Colonel Rice. The splendid cavalry commands, with that superb corps, the Manning Guards, will be out to do honor to his Excellency, and will be reviewed and inspected by him.

This fine display of our military will be highly gratifying to the Governor and a compliment that he richly merits, for he has been their best friend at court and warm supporter at all times.

The ladies have seized the opportunity to spread a real Christmas feast of fat turkey, barbecued mutton and pork with delightful fresh country sausages served piping hot with rice ditto.

The proceeds from this array of Xmas goodies will be applied to furnishing the Academy.

We trust and feel assured that every man, woman, and child in the county who can secure transportation that day will be early on the grounds to show their proper appreciation of what has been so handsomely accomplished for the great cause of education, and to give our distinguished visitors an old Clarendon welcome.

Very truly, BENJAMIN BROS, per Hirsch.

MANNING EMPORIUM.

M. LEVI

keeps a larger stock of General Merchandise than any other retail store in the State, outside the city of Charleston.

His stock at present is larger than that of all the other stores in Manning. He buys very largely, often by the cargo, and thus always obtains the Lowest Prices. The natural conclusion from this, is that he sells CHEAP. His store is already full, below and above, and yet new goods are daily arriving.

His courteous and gentlemanly clerks make it a pleasure to trade at his store. If after trying around everywhere else you cannot find what you want, just step to LEVI'S and you will find it there; or if you are in a hurry go there at first. His stock is the most varied and best selected of any merchant in the State.
