Mr. J. A. Mills presented the following paper which was adopted:

WHEREAS, we the citizens of Clarendon county, have watched with just pride the career of our distinguished fellow-citizen, the Hon. John P. Richardson, while occupwing the position of Governor of the State, and believing that he has discharged his obligations to the whole State with marked faithfulness and ability; therefore, be it re-

On motion of A. Levi, Esq., the following Did What Doctors Could Not Do. was adopted:

WHEREAS, we understand that there may be two candidates for congressional honors elect delegates to the congressional convenion.

Be it further resolved, That as there is only condition generally. one candidate from this county for the office of Solicitor, that this convention proceed to the election of delegates to the judicial convention.

This was the first matter brought before the convention that seemed to be of interby A. Levi, I. M. Woods, E. G. DuBose, W. B. Bonham, H. L. Wilson, do hereby heartily endorse him for Solicitor of the third judicial circuit, and that the delegates elected to the judicial convention are hereby instructed to vote for John S. Wilson, so long as there is any shadow of a son, so long as there is any shadow of a chance for his election.

Hon. J. F. Rhame moved: That the County Executive Committee of Col. H. L. Benbow, elected permanent chairman; and Mr. E. R. Plowden, Jr., secretary. Maj. P. G. Benbow moved that all speeches in this convention be restricted to five minutes, and that no one speak more that twice on the same subject. Dr. Woods and Mr. E. G. DuBose thought the time too such committee, to then and there decide Adopted.

B. S. Dinkins, Esq., moved:

That it is the sentiment of this convention that the primary plan of nominating State officers and a congressman and so-licitor is cumbersome, impracticable, and impolitic, and that our representatives favor the convention plan for these officers. Adopted.

Mr. E. G. DuBose, as usual with him, had a superabundance of gas on hand, and this time Dr. Woods was the subject of his discourse. His remarks created a great deal of fun and laughter, and Dr. Woods seemed to enjoy it as much as any one. Dr. Woods was rather complimented by the remarks. "Uncle Ellie" is certainly the silver-tongued orator of all the meetings and conventions he attends.

The convention after having been in session for more than four hours was adjourn-

Thornwell Orphanage.

In the Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton, S. C., are fifty-five orphans. They are from the States of S. Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Tenvessee, Mississippi, Texas, Illinois, Maryland and Massachusetts. They are from the Presbyterian, Methodist, (Episcopal and Protestant,) Buplist, Episcopaian, and Lutheran denominations. They are taught only in school-room, but are fit-ted, by practical labor, for life's battles. No servants are employed in any domestic duty. The children do it all. The boys learn printing, farming, gardening and carpentering. "helping themselves" is carefully inculcated. The support of this Institution depends on those who love to help the fatherless, as no orphan with property is admitted. Gifts for their support should be sent to Rev. Wm. P. Jacobs, Clinton, S. C. The Institution has groven to such proportions, that a central building for dining-room and kitchen purposes is to be built, the cornerstone of which will be laid on May 28th. The Sunday-schools are all asked to contribute to its erection. The smallest gift will help. of State officers has gained our unqualified approval, and are hereby endorsed for re-election. Get your grist, meal, and lumber from D. M.
