Forest Fires.

From every section of the county, and along the entire length of the Central Railroad, we hear that forest fires are raging, doing great damage. Mr. W. H. Muldrow, near Jordan, lost 1000 cross ties last week. These fires occur annually, and are generally the result of carelessness. We learn that a negro house at Alderman's mill was burn-ed, and that the entire mill property was in great danger from the fires.

The Secret of Building Towns.

There is a secret in building towns. Do you know what it is? If you don't you can work out the problem in the following man-ner: Take two town sites; let one be a beautiful location, with all natural advantages possible, and the other, none of these. Take five hundred old fogies and misers; men who do not believe in giving capitalists anything for risking mouey in their town—and put them on the good site. Take five hundred good, live, energetic, get-up sort of fellows, who never let an opportunity pass to advertise themselves and their town, and set them on the poor site. Then waith set them on the poor site. Then watch these two towns for the next five years, and you will readily catch on to the secret of town building.

Yes, that is just the way the ladies feel when in Moses Levi's mammoth Emporium. The salesmen are polite in their attentions, and one is sure to find at Levi's just what one is looking for. Be sure to visit his store. His line of dress goods and novelties is just lovely: at least that's what all the ladies say. and they know.

Another Mill Accident. Yesterday morning about eleven o'clock Mr. D. M. Bradham came very near losing his life. While his saw was running at a rapid speed it burst, and the piece of saw struck a beam 4x6 just over his head, cntting the same in twain in an instant, and a small piece of the saw struck Mr. Bradham in the back of the head, cutting through his hat, and cutting a gash an inch long expos-ing the bone. Mr. John Strange happened to be at the throttle of the engine, and shut off the steam, thus stopping the saw and preventing further danger. The driving wheel to the saw burst into at least a dozen pieces, and the damage to the machinery is about $100. We were on the ground just after the accident, and look upon it as a miracle, that there was no loss of life.

Two Colored Sinners.

Chester Jefferson, an ex-resident of the penitentiary, was lodged in jail last Satur-day, charged with assault and battery and robbery of another negro by the name of Cantey, who kept a little shop near Col. Benbow's in the Summerton section.

Preston Pearson was arrested last week, and lodged in jail, charged with breaking into Isaac Cain's smoke house in Jordan, and stealing therefrom a lot of bacon. It is said Preston confesses his sin, and says just so they don't whip him when he gets in the penitentiary it will be all right.

Arrested for Forgery.

W. P. DuRant, a well known negro of this community, having been postmaster at this place, school teacher, politician, etc., was arrested in Sumter yesterday on a charge of forgery. Some time back he was peddling laces, ladies' goods, etc., in this county, which he obtained from some Western house. Reference and the some Western house. Before getting the goods he had to sign a contract, and also get endorsement from other parties. He forged the name of York Mack, a responsible colored man of Jordan, and a brother-in-law of DuRant's, as surity to the contract. Had he paid for the goods nothing would have ever been known of his forgery, but he sold the goods, and forgot to make remittances, thinking probably there would be more profit if he kept all the money. He is short $95.63. The warrant was issued last week, but before he could be arrested, he left for other parts. The sheriff got wind of his being in Sumter, and at once telegraphed the Sumter sheriff to arrest him. Sheriff Lesesne lett yesterday for Sumter to "fotch 'im back," and our ex-postmaster will likely occupy a room in Mr. Strange's hotel to-morrow. DuRant is one of the candidates for the postmastership at this place, and has written an abusive letter to one of our citizens, saying that his arrest is only an effort to blacken his character. May be

He's Got 'Em. We mean to say that Louis Loyns has got the goods you want, for in another column he says so in unmistakable language. All he asks is that you give him a chance to show you goods, and he feels sure of scll-ing. Mr. Loyns is one of our best and most substantial business men.

A Rush in Sumter.

It will surprise any one to go to Ferdinand Levi's store in Sumter, and see the immense rush of customers to his store. He has one of the largest and most beautiful stores in the place, and his goods and prices are such as to cause a customer to go there again and again to make purchases. Ferdinand Levi has met with unparalleled success, and he is conducting himself, in such a way as to deserve his success. Be sure to go to his store when in Sumter.

The Wind. The wind last Saturday was very severe, and damaging to the business interest of the town. Dust was blown everywhere, and all stores were kept shut tight. Sunday and tertainment next Friday evening. The the North and North-west the weather was very bad. Sleet, snow, ice, rain, hail, thunder, lightning, etc., all had a fair showing. Snow and ice was plentiful in North Carolina. We have heard of no ice in this county. It is feared that fruit and vegetables are somewhat injured.

Money to Loan.

If any of our readers wish to borrow money on very favorable terms, and at a comparatively low rate of interest, they had better see Capt. A. Levi at once. He advertises in another column to loan on good security from $300 to $500,000. We believe he of the colonies to victory

Back from the Jaws of Death.

Our readers will remember the terrible accident that befell Ap Frierson, of Foreston, about a year ago. He fell against a rapidly revolving shaft of a saw mill, and the head of an iron bolt on this shaft ground out a path through his forehead, on a line with his nose, the entire upper part of his nose and the middle of his forehead for about an inch and a half wide and more than an inch deep being cut away by the machinery. The accident happened at Greeleyville.

When Frierson was picked up, no one for an instant thought he could live, but he was at once taken to Foreston, and put under the treatment of Dr. L. W. Nettles, who examined the wound. He found all brain broken, and a part of the brain had been cut away along with the bone and flesh. It was a fearful sight. But the Dochad to be kept on his back for weeks. Had he turned over on his face his brains would have fallen out! Had he had an attack of vomiting, it would have proved fatal. We saw him several times while in this condition, and could plainly see the pulsations of the brain. For days and weeks he thus stood, balancing between life and death. But after a while suppurative granulation set in, and the parts began to heal. The brain became sufficiently covered to prevent its falling out and Frierson got up and walked about. He then came to Manning (to raise money for the alleged purpose of going to Charleston, to get in the hospital, as his folks were too poor to support him, but the Charleston authorities declined to receive him without pay) and while here he showed his wound to those who would look at it, but it was such a fearful looking sight that many would not see it. Such is a brief resume of this terrible accident.

Last Saturday we were in Foreston, and saw Frierson. He has for months been able to go at his regular work. His face is somewhat disfigured, the upper part of his nose being even with the cheeks; and one of his eyes looks bad. But the huge trench in his forehead has been filled in by a new growth of flesh, so that one would never suppose that once his brain had poured out there. One or two small sores in this new flesh remain unhealed. It is wonderful what great vitality some possess. Not one man in a hundred thousand could have stood such a shock. Frierson may well be said to have come "back from the jaws of death, back from the mouth of hell." It is the most remarkable recovery we ever knew or heard of.

Dots from Foreston.

Foreston, April 9 .- We now have fine weather and farmers are making every edge cut so as to redeem the time lost by the wet, bad, and disagreeable winter. Mr. Hudgins has his prize acre in, and wants to hear your Manning man talk some. What has become of him? Has he got scared and hat the ring? Let's hear what he is doing, and what his chances for success are? and what his chances for success are?

Our school is getting on nicely under the management of Mr. Montgomery. We think we will have as good school as may be found in the State. Why not? This is a healthy neighborhood, has a good religious influence, fine society, and good railroad facilities. Why not? Board is low, and there is certainly no reason why we may there is certainly no reason why we may not have such a school as I have mentioned. Mr. D. E. Mr. W. T. P. Sprott has just returned from the city by the sea and now follows him the spinning-wheel. large mercantile supplies-dry goods, groceries, notions, &c.

I had occasion last week to pass through Maj. Land's town farm, which lies over next the cemetery. Many of your prominent citizens know its locality and what has grown there; so that when I say it is in better condition this year than usual they will have an idea as to what will be produced upon it this year. The Major has also gone into another industry, that of colt raising. He has now two as fine colts as may be found in the State, by Beli's celebrated Bob Lee; and more to follow.

Visitors we are never without. Oh! Foreston is a lively town.

Notes from Brunsons Cross Roads. SUMMERTON, April 6. -Mr. Jeff Davis commenced planting cotton last Saturday.

Measles are epidemic in this section. Mr. S. A. Brunson has a beautiful colt, about four days old, from his fine mare. Farming operations rather backward. Corn planting is nearly finished, and pre-parations for cotton planting are being made as rapidly as possible.

We have one of the most honest sections in the county. It is very rare indeed for anything to be stolen. There are a great many negroes here, but they are of the honest kind. Miss Jane Riley, who has been teaching for us, at the St. James school house, has, much to the regret of all her patrons, been forced to discontinue her school on ac-count of measles. We hope she will soon be enabled to reopen the school. We are all much pleased with her as a teacher.

Mr. R. F. Turner has recently so improved his mill that he now can do the very best grinding. He makes grits as good as the best pearl grits. Grinding is done every Monkeying With Lightning. Mr. Luke Farmer, a well known Atlantic Coast Line man, was severely hurt while "monkeying" with the switchboard at the works of the Congaree Gas and Electric Light Company last Thursday night. Mr. Farmer was walking around Calmiring the works, and concluded to make some experiments with the subtle fluid. He first placed his watch on one of the dynamos to see how much electricity it could stand. In the twinkling of an eye it stopped as short as "grandfather's clock." Mr. Farm-er concluded to try personal contact and placed the tips of two fingers on the switchboard. He now thanks his stars that he did not put his whole hand there. As it was, he was thrown down and the ends of the fingers in question were melted off like sealing wax on a red-hot stove .- Columbia Cor. Charleston Budget.

A Gentile Becomes a Jew.

Readers of the World will remember that the marriage of Mr. Wm. A. McCartha, a Gentile, and Miss Camille Peixotto, a Jewess, created quite a stir in the family of the bride's parents in this city. Oil has been poured upon the troubled waters, however. Mr. McCartha has adopted the Hebrew faith and has been lawfully initiated into the 'covenant" at the hands of Rev. B. Ruben, of Charleston, and in the presence of Dr. F. D. Kendall, of this city. The couple were re-married by the Rev. Mr. Ruben. The "A" in Mr. McCartha's name will now stand for "Abraham."-Columbia Cor Charleston World.

PRAY AND PRAISE.

The President's Proclamation on the Centennial-Fixing the Hour for General Prayer.

Washington, April 5.—The following was issued this afternoon by the president of the United States:

A proclamation-A hundred years have passed since the government which our fore-fathers founded was formally organized. At noon on the 30th day of April, 1789, in the charges only 8 per cent. interest. See him and independence, George Washington took at once. new born republic. This impressive act was preceded at 9 o'clock in the morning at all the churches of the city by prayer for God's blessing on the government and its first president.

The centennial of this illustrious event in our history has been declared a general holiday by act of congress, to the end that the people of the whole country may join in commemorative exercise appropriate to the day. In order that the joy of deep thankfulness in the minds of the people for al-our blessings in the past and devout sup-plications to God for their gracious continuance in future, the representatives of religious creeds, both Christian and Hebrew, have memorialized the government to designate an hour for prayer and thanksgiving that day. Now, therefore, I, Benj. Harrison, President of the United States of America, in response to this pious and reasonable request do recommend that on Tuesday, April 30th, at the hour of 9 o'clock, in the morning, the people of the entire country repair to their respective places of worship to implore the favor of God that the blessings of liberty, prosperity and peace may abide with us as a people, and that His hand may lead us in the paths of righteousness and good deeds. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed. Done in the city of Washington on the fourth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine, and of the independence of the United States one hundred and thirteenth. By the president, Benj. Harrison.

JAS. G. BLAINE, Secretary of State.

Make Your Own Hay.

It looks queer when we see our farmers paying $1 25 per hundred for Northern hay with which to feed their stock, when they can produce all the hay they might need at less than 25 cents per hundred and raise it right here at home, too. Peavine hay is unsur-Furniture, Crockery, Wood-ware, passed as food for stock, and any ordinary land will produce it in paying quantifies. Again, crab grass grows all over our State, and it makes as fine hay as any one could wish to have if it is cut at the proper time and properly cured, and yet the majority of our farmers do not appear to think of raising enough for their own farm stock to use, much less to have it for sale. Can any one expect to make a success of farming while such a condition of affairs exists? We think not. The idea of a farmer buying corn, bacon, hay, etc., looks fool ish, indeed, but it is the fact, nevertheless, that many of our farmers in this county are now buying all of these articles instead of producing them upon their farms. Now, gentlemen, take warning by the experience you have already had, and resolve to act differently this year. Make these articles at home, even if the cotton crop is not so big. Just arrived, a lot of Ladies' and You will come out ahead at the end of the year if you do. Try it, and see.
