Three years ago, when editor of the Clarendon Enterprise, we published a series of articles from the pen of Rev. W. W. Wood, entitled "Potter's Raid." The City of Sumter Wears a Bustle.

When one goes to Sumter and rides down Main street he is invariably attracted by the throngs of people that congregate at a certain place. The inquiry is at once made: "What is all this bustle about?" The answer always is, "The rush to Levi's." Ferdinand Levi, at the Bogan old stand, is the place to make your purchases.

Our Sumter Picture.

We were in Sumter last Thursday, and were surprised to see the large amount of business done in that city. It is a busy town. A number of the business firms are catering to the Clarendon trade, and a glance at the opposite page, almost exclusively occupied with Sumter advertisements, will convince the reader that they mean business. A week or two ago we had a word or two to say of several of these merchants. Next week we shall have more to say of five or six new ones that appear in this issue, and by that time we shall also probably have two or three other Sumter "ads" to add to our paper. We will next week enlarge our picture, making it one-half larger than it is now. The inquiry is at once made: "What is all this bustle about?" The answer always is, "The rush to Levi's." Ferdinand Levi, at the Bogan old stand, is the place to make your purchases.

MANNING'S BOOM.

Moses Levi Determined That the People Shall not Complain of High Prices—Goods Sold Actually Below Cost—Competition Defied.

Listen to a few prices, and then I defy any one to undersell me. Competition will be met from any and every quarter.

Six yards Bagging and six ties for only 90 cents.

Bacon from 5 to 8 cents.

Brown S. S. Homespun, 4 3-4 cents.

Brown R. R. Homespun, 5 3-4 cents.

Rockingham Plaids, 5 cents.

Straw hats, a great variety, must be sold, value 50 cents to $1, for only 25 cents.

No store can undersell me.

MOSES LEVI.

Highest Price for Cotton.

Messrs. C. R. & W. S. Harvin would say to the planters that if they would consult their own interest they would have their cotton ginned and cleaned at their gins. Their gins are in perfect order. Also, their new "Munger" elevator and distributor (the first and only one in the State) is now doing its work perfectly, thereby adding fully 1-4 cent per lb. to price of cotton. Try them.

F. Levi Quotes a Few Prices.

The Fall season is here, cotton is coming into market rapidly. Good crops have been made, and all will have more or less money to spend. I am paying the very highest cash prices for cotton, and selling my goods at the very lowest rock bottom cash figures. Be sure then when in Sumter to call at my store. It will be decidedly to your interest to do so.

In our Black Goods Department we quote

Double Width Cashmere at 25, 30, 35, 40, 50, 75, and $1.00. All good value for the money.

ONE WHO KNOWS.

The following testimonial is from a gentleman who knows our formula and is thoroughly acquainted with our property of our tonic. The way to know the merits is to try the article. Any practicing physician who desires the formula of Dr. Westmoreland's Calissaya Tonic may obtain it from the Westmoreland Calissaya Tonic Company, Greenville, S. C. This letter is from a malariaal section.

West Point, Miss. Having shown me the formula for making your tonic while visiting your city the past summer I take great pleasure in recommending it. I am delighted with it, having given it in my practice successfully, and to members of my own family suffering from malariaal toxemia. Very truly,

B. S. DUNCAN, M. D. For sale in Manning by Dinkins & Co.; in Foreston by Dr. L. W. Nettles.

Denies the Charge.

Mr. Editor:—I am greatly surprised at the comment made in your correspondent A. J. Tindal. Before making statements calculated to injure the commissioners (for I know he is not after me) he should have informed himself by a personal examination of the bridge, and not rely upon hearsay.

I deny emphatically the statements made by him, for I did more work than he says that I did, and never, to any one, said that I made $25 by the job.

Say to friend Tindal to remember the golden rule, and not be slinging mud at those who are trying to do their duty, just on account of hearsay. W. J. B. DAVIS, Sept. 21st, 1889.
