sure to please. We have some of the most handsome patterns of prints that and all we can say is that we want all the good accounts in town and in the country. We can and will sell you all the goods you want cheaper than you can buy them, and all you will have to do to convince yourself of this fact is to come and see, and you will be convinced that our stock by far is superior to anything in this section of the State.

We keep no goods but what we buy from first hands, and all such we can recommend.

Besides this we have abolished the old mode of transacting business. In former years, we owing to the fact that we like all Americans like to keep up with the fashion and the ways of all around us, have sold goods too high in order to make a good showing of assets. But the writer had a dream. He was in his office, he had ledgers piled high, that represented thousands of dollars, 3-8 claims out of date, barred by the Statute of limitation, 3-8 barred by the right of the landlord, and 2-8 barred by the drought and expiration of wind in the lungs of old ponies and blind mules. All these amounts kept running on; each year they were footed up as assets—a big bubble made, filled with air, and like the boy's soap bubble soon burst, tenant gone, account worthless. He had run the tenant in the spring and summer, when naught was in sight; the landlord took him up when the cotton came in. He awoke, and swore that he would never follow such business again; that bright as the prospects might be, that armed with all the wisdom and energy he could command, and closing his ear to the suffering of the past, He would forever quit the old mode, and change his business to something tangible.

So this year we have done so-we will sell you all the goods you want for credit or cash at ower prices than you ever bought at before; but let's have some idea when you are going to pay. We don't want any more millennium accounts or notes. We may not be present to collect them and the banks don't want any paper over four months, and we sincerely trust we will get the crop of 1889 out before it comes, for we have one of the largest crops this year that we have ever had. No introduction is needed, no apology is offered for 1889. It comes freighted with the wisdom of centuries and each corn crib is loaded with the richest treasure that God ever gave man. Bread no object and Bacon at the price we are selling, no one can complain. And all should feel good this year. Let us get out of debt; let all of us commence anew, and the prices we are selling any and all lines of goods at to-day, will convince all that come that some miraculous change has taken place. Well it has.

We Want to Live, and Want You to Live!

and we therefore shall try and please all in prices and goods, and we want to build up in Manning what Clarendon County needs, a first class store where you can get what you want and are in need of at a living price, and in order to convince you of this we must ask you to come and Yes, crops are magnificent this year: cotton bringing better prices than for years: let us get out of debt, and work on a cash basis.
