NO SPLIT. The Flampton county News-Herald is sadly in need of political education. The Disgraceful Sumter Meeting.

[From the Sumter Advance.] The campaign meeting in Sumter last Wednesday was one of the largest and liveliest of the campaign. Enthusiasm ran high and everybody seemed ready for the fray. A crowd of Tillmanites gathered at the C. S. & N. depot where Tillman met them and as and drawn by a crowd of Tillmanites. By the time Tillman arrived at the stand the crowd was estimated at about 3,000 or 4,000. every particular. The stand was tastefully decorated, and Earle mottoes met the eye on every hand. As soon as comparative order was secured. Gen. Bratton was introduced and made a patriotic Democratic speech, and would to God the people would heed the words of advice, of warning, of soberness and truth uttered by this grand old hero, pure Democrat and devoted son of South Carolina. There is no question that the straightouts outnumbered the Tillmanites at least three to one, despite the fact that a large crowd of Tillman henchmen were brought here from other counties to holler and to howl down Earle. When Tillman began to speak the Tillman-ises opened their program, but they found out that they were outnumbered, and the shouts for Earle nearly drowned them out. This seemed to enrage them and for a while pandemonium reigned and the scene was disgraceful. The hurrahing of the Earle men was simply to off set the action of the Tillmanites. Col. Earle appealed to his friends to give Tillman a hearing, but the feeling was so high ard the confusion so great that the "great bamboozler," the slanderer and traducer of his people, the besmircher of the good name of his State, proceeded under difficulties and his remarks were heard by very few people. His speech consisted of the same old false charges and insinuations without proof and without offering any measures of reform or relief

It was when Col. Earle was introduced that the Tillmanites who came here from abroad to howl Earle down and break up the meeting opened their game in earnest. The Sumter Advance in its last issue has a They were reinforced by Tillmanites from stand and attempted to tear down the Earle with dust, we fear it saw nothing as it really overestimated their strength, for the straightparagraphs taken from the columns of that and after several of them were put in the guard house they quieted down somewhat.
