Your Attention.

We are conducting THE MANNING TIMES on strictly a cash basis. One or two weeks before a subscription expires, we send a polite notification on a postal card, asking for a renewal. In case this request is not promptly complied with, we infer the subscriber wishes us to discontinue sending him the paper, which we do, and send him another postal card, politely telling him we have stricken his name from our mailing list. We hope we shall lose few subscribers; but it is no pay, no paper.

HASKELLISM.

On our first page will be found Haskell's manifesto, and on this page will be found proceedings of the independents in Horry and Marion, also a call issued by a conference held last Monday in Columbia. We have heretofore in full and in no unmistakable language expressed our views on such a movement, and this week we simply publish short interviews from several distinguished gentlemen of the State, each of whom was an Anti but a Democrat withal, and we close with an editorial from the News and Courier. Our first interview is from Hon. Joseph F. Rhame, State senator from this county, and a number of years county chairman of the Clarendon Democracy. He is well known to our people, and his words just now will be read with interest. He shows himself, as all have expected of him to be, a true Democrat:

SENATOR JOSEPH F. RHAME

says: In the late political canvass, I was a supporter of Col. Joseph H. Earle, than whom, in my opinion, a more suitable man for governor could not have been found in the State, and in saying this much I mean just what I have said. The advocates of Capt. Tillman, in making their choice of men for State and county officers, religiously confined their choice to such as openly avowed that he was their choice for governor, and ignored and practically excluded from nomination every aspirant for office who did not avow such preference. In pursuing this course I think the supporters of Capt. Tillman acted unjustly and unwisely, and such a test of fitness for office should never have been applied. Notwithstanding the existence of these facts, it appears to me, that though somewhat irregularly expressed, the will of a large majority of the white Democratic voters of this State has been declared by the result of the work of the September convention, and that will, so pronounced, has taken shape in favor of Capt. Tillman and the other nominees on the State ticket. As a Democrat I do not now feel warranted in supporting any movement looking to the election in November next, of any other person for governor and State officers, be they who they may, than the nominees of that September convention.

HON. LEROY F. YOUMANS,

Ex-Attorney General of the State, says: I have only to say that I am opposed to any movement which would place any ticket in the field in opposition to the regular State Democratic ticket. I shall support that ticket, and in so doing regard my action as a duty required by my fealty to the Democratic party of the State.

MAJ. BRAWLEY,

candidate for congress from the first district, in a speech at Orangeburg last Monday, said that while he deprecated the Shell manifesto and its charges, and had not favored Mr. Tillman for Governor, and while he did not even think the ticket nominated by the September convention was composed of as strong men as usually made up the Democratic State ticket, nevertheless he would support it, as was the duty of every Democrat to support it.

CONGRESSMAN SAMUEL DIBBLE, who also made a speech at the same time, held that the Democracy must stand together. He opposed B. R. Tillman heartily till nominated, but now that Tillman is the nominee of the Democratic party for Governor he is ready to work for his election and if necessary to even fight for it. Talk of an Independent ticket, why, he did not believe that any of the true Democrats of '76 are going back on the nominee of the Democratic party whether they like it or not.

COL. WILIE JONES,

cashier of the Carolina National Bank, who for years was secretary of the executive committee, and who is now treasurer of that body, says: I did all in my power to defeat the nomination of Capt. Tillman for Governor, and was as much opposed to the March convention as a man could be. I will vote for no independent. Capt. Tillman has been nominated by a very large majority in a regularly called State Democratic convention, and I feel it to be my duty as a Democrat to vote for him and the entire Democratic State ticket.

COL. F. H. MCMASTER,

mayor of Columbia, and a very bitter Anti, says: I will vote the full Tillman ticket, because I believe it is the duty of each individual of a party to vote for every nominee made by its convention. When members of a party join in a convention, for the purpose of nominating officers, they are morally bound, to submit to the arbitrament of the ballot, and have no moral right to scratch a single name at the polls. This is the principle underlying conventions, and any other rule will destroy the discipline of a party.

COL. WILLIAM WALLACE,

a prominent gentleman of Columbia, says: Were I, calling myself a Democrat, and having acted with the party in its deliberations and discussions up to this time, to advocate the running of an Independent ticket and call upon our worst political enemies to support it, I should feel that I was a traitor to my State, and would justly merit such infamy as clings to the name and memory of Benedict Arnold.

THE NEWS AND COURIER

in an editorial last Monday says: There was a time to combat Tillman and Tillmanism. That time was while the contest could be made within the Democratic ranks, or at least under the name of Democracy. So long as there was a shadow of a chance to keep Tillman and his clique out of control of the Democratic party, the News and Courier strove, with all its might, to accomplish that end, as the best thing for the party and the State.

If the men who have been prominent in the Democratic party of South Carolina heretofore had had the courage of their convictions, and had stood up to the News and Courier, Tillman could have been beaten and the Democratic party saved. If at the last Straightout Conference there had been unanimous action and a State primary had been demanded as an ultimatum to decide which faction of the Democratic party was really in the majority, the alternative being presented of an appeal to the polls, we believe the primary would have been granted; and if it had been refused, the Straightouts would at least have had color for the claim that they were the true Democratic party of the State.

But all that is past. The opportunity was lost. This is no time to fight Tillman or Tillmanism. A renewal of the conflict now is mere folly and madness, for success can only be accomplished by disrupting, nay destroying, the Democratic party. The party that defeats the regular Democratic ticket at this election must do so by the aid of the Republicans, and this, in the light of past experience, is enough of itself to condemn the whole movement. The News and Courier fought, as it said it would, just so long as there was any chance to fight within the Democratic organization. That condition no longer exists, and we have never proposed to fight under any other condition.

If there had continued to be no organized opposition to the ticket of the September convention, we would have been content to have it rebuked by receiving a very small vote at the polls. But the Haskell manifesto, the Marion call, and intelligence from various parts of the State indicate that there is to be a ticket put in the field on the lines marked out by Judge Haskell. We think that this would be simply suicidal. Certainly, after such a contest there could be little hope of restoring the integrity of the Democratic party, and that is now the first duty of every true Democrat. The only Democratic ticket now, and the only Democratic ticket we can have, is the ticket of the September convention; and we must elect it now in order that we may retain the power to elect a better ticket two years hence.

Stand by the ticket, not for the ticket's sake, but for the party and the State!

Mr. S. R. Chandler, of Motts, refused to accept the nomination for the legislature from the Haskellians in Florence county.

The Republican State executive committee and the conference of Straightout Haskellians met last Monday in Columbia. It was a coincidence: wonder if there was any connection or conference between the two bodies?

The Haskell manifesto has given our town politicians a new subject to discuss, but with very few exceptions there is a feeling of disapproval. The people from the country that were in town Monday, Antis as well as Tillmanites, say that they propose to stand by the nominees of the Democratic party, and that they cannot afford to split.

One of the hardest fought political battles in this campaign of hard political fights, has been that in the fourth district, which in the second primary was between Shell and Duncan. Each side exerted its strength to the utmost tension, and though Mr. Duncan had the aristocracy and most of the newspapers on his side, and all actively fighting for him, yet it looks as if Shell has won the fight. The second primary was held yesterday, and it is claimed that Shell is several hundred votes ahead, and that the official count will give him a majority of over a thousand votes. The vote throughout the district was very large.

Haskellism in Clarendon.

It is rumored that a meeting will be held in town this afternoon, for the purpose of selecting representatives to go to Columbia to-morrow to act with the party that desires to put forward a ticket to defeat the regular Democrat nominees. We asked a prominent gentleman of this town, who was making preparations for the meeting, if the meeting or conference would be public and how many were expected to attend. He replied that it would not be public and only those in sympathy with the movement were invited to attend. He thought there would probably be ten or fifteen persons present, and that there would be representatives from Foreston and Summerton. We forgot to ask if they expected also to put out a county ticket.

This movement will fall very flat in Clarendon. We do not believe there are a half dozen Democrats in the county who will vote against the Democratic ticket; in fact the gentleman above alluded to is the only one in the county, with whom we have conversed on the subject, who has said he would not vote the Democratic ticket as nominated in September. A good many don't like Tillman and fought him hard, but like true Democrats they will now vote the whole ticket straight. If there are a dozen men in that caucus this afternoon we will be badly mistaken in the stuff that the Clarendon Democracy is made of.

6.15 P. M.—The caucus met this afternoon and elected B. P. Barron, W. S. Harvin, P. G. Benbow, J. H. McKnight, and W. M. Plowden as delegates. Other delegates, we learn, will be sent from Foreston. Very few were present.

Best Houses to Deal With.

As handsome a line of furniture as can be found anywhere can be seen at the extensive establishment of Jos. F. Norris, Charleston. If in want of furniture it will pay you to get his prices.

Geo. A. Schiffley has opened up a large sale stable in Charleston, and he offers first class horses and mules at remarkably low prices. See advertisement.

W. J. Black, one of the oldest men in the stock business, announces to the people of this county that he has removed to corner of Market and Church streets, Charleston. His stables are full of horses and mules.

Arthur L. Macbeth, of Charleston, claims to be the only colored photographer in the State, and he does fine work at the lowest prices. Give him a call when in Charleston.

Our Greeleyville Letter.

GREELEYVILLE, Oct. 3.—The political campaign has ended, and so have the dog days. The mocking bird sings merrily, in utter ignorance of the whereabouts of the candidate or the dog star. I agree with you entirely as to the action of the executive committee in this county. But you don't know, perhaps, that the idea is to go with the majority, even though the laws and regulations have to be disregarded.

Mr. Wm. Cooper and Mr. F. Marion Britton were active members of the farmers' movement in this county when there was no politics nor Tillmanism in it. Mr. Britton was the first vice president of the county association; Mr. Cooper was formerly a member of the legislature. They are both left out of the offices they were seeking. Tillmanism has left the farmers' movement "in the vocative," as the schoolboys used to say.

The weather for weeks past has been very unfavorable to cotton in the pods and pea vine hay cut and ungathered. The latter will not be totally ruined however, left to dry before housing it will be fair forage. Horses and cattle, with a sufficiency of concentrated food, still need bulky provender, and this the pea vine hay will furnish.

The ladies of the Mount Hope Baptist church recently furnished a supper at this place for the purpose of raising money with which to purchase an organ for the church. They realized nearly fifty dollars.

There has been a young men's prayer meeting organized at New Market Methodist church. At this church and also at Richmond Presbyterian church there is a Sabbath-school.

Miss Lucilla Montgomery has been ill for some time past.

It is said of a lady of this county that her birthday occurs only once every four years, while an old man of this place declares he never had but one in his life, and has no recollection of that one.

We sincerely sympathize with the parents of those children who recently fell into wells of water. Cannot something be done to prevent such accidents? The board of health, or the town council, or the parents themselves should take the matter in hand. It would never do to yoke or hobble the children, and perhaps the next surest plan would be to fill the wells with earth.

It Looks Like an Independent Ticket Will be Put Out.

COLUMBIA, Oct. 6.—There is now no mistaking the political situation in the State. To-day there appeared on the register of the Hotel Jerome this legend: "T. W. Woodward, Rockton, for Haskell." With him came others and the ranks finally swelled to seventeen, whose names can be found below. A long conference was held in Judge A. C. Haskell's office, the only official result of which is contained in the following, given to the press at eleven o'clock to-night:

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 6, 1890.

To the Democrats of South Carolina:—In furtherance of the patriotic call by the Democrats of Marion county, inviting delegates of Straightout Democrats from every county in the State, who are ready to nominate a ticket for State officers, to assemble at Columbia, at 8 P. M., on the 9th instant, we the undersigned in behalf of the counties of Sumter, Clarendon, Kershaw, Fairfield, Union, Williamsburg, Orangeburg, Charleston, Florence, and Richland, having been instructed to second said call provide for the assembly of said convention, do now join in the call, urging upon all true Democrats, who cling to the records of 1876 and desire to preserve the principles of government vindicated in that memorable struggle, equal and just observance of the rights and promotion of the peace and prosperity of all people of the State, that they meet together at the appointed time and place to select and nominate a ticket pledged to support and defend these principles and the good fame of our party and State.

Lead Poison Cured.

I am a painter by trade. Three years ago I had a bad case of lead poison, caused by using rubber paint. I was cured in a short time by S. S. S. The medicine drove the poison out through the pores of the skin. When I first commenced taking S. S. S., my system was so saturated with poison that my underclothes were colored by the paint being worked out by the medicine through the pores of my skin. I was cured entirely by S. S. S. I took nothing else, and have had no return since.

Independents in Horry.

CONWAY, Oct. 6.—The Straightouts held a meeting here to-day. There were two persons here from each voting precinct except Martins Hill, Greensea, and Little River. Hon. E. D. Richardson was elected chairman, and J. M. Oliver secretary. Col. C. P. Quattlebaum was called upon to state the object of the meeting. At this stage of the proceedings the doors were closed.

They elected the following as delegates to attend the State convention of the "Straightouts," which meets in Columbia Oct. 9th: B. L. Beaty, J. R. Cooper, B. G. Collins, J. R. Suggs, David Rabon, and Henry Hardee.

They nominated a county ticket, composed of the present officers, except Henry Hardee, in place of Wm. E. Hardwick, probate judge; and Jas. R. Parker, for county auditor, in place of J. P. Derham. Some expect the Republicans to endorse this ticket when their convention meets Oct. 11.

A BEAU OF 1829.

When grandpa went a-wooing,
He wore a satin vest,
A trail of running roses
Embroidered on the breast.
The pattern of his trousers,
His linen, white and fine,
Were all the latest fashion
In eighteen twenty-nine.

Grandpa was a fine looking young fellow then, so the old ladies say, and he is a fine-looking old gentleman now. For the past score of years he has been a firm believer in the merits of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. "It renewed my youth," he frequently says. It is the only blood purifier and liver invigorator guaranteed to benefit or cure, or money promptly refunded. It cures liver disease, dyspepsia, scrofulous sores, skin eruptions, and all diseases of the blood. For lingering coughs and consumption (which is lung scrofula in its early stages) it is an unparalleled remedy.

Charles Chapman, father of Ex-Postmaster Chapman, was a lawyer, keen, witty, and successful. On one occasion a Baptist minister came before him as a witness, and Chapman asked him what his business was.

"I am an humble candle of the Lord," replied the parson.

"Yes, I see," said Chapman, "a dipped candle."

What is Scrofula

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors." It is a more formidable enemy than consumption or cancer alone, for scrofula combines the worst possible features of both. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How can it be cured? By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. For all affections of the blood Hood's Sarsaparilla is unequalled, and some of the cures it has effected are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula in any of its various forms, be sure to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial.

FACTS FOR THE SICK!

A Letter from an Eminent Divine in Regard to the Best Medicine in the World. Read.

WONDERFUL CURES.

ATLANTA, GA., Jan. 2, 1890.—Six months ago, at the request of a friend who was interested in the sale of King's Royal Germetuer, I made a written statement of the benefits I had received from the use of that medicine. In that statement I expressed the belief that it would cure me entirely of catarrh. Within the last two months I have received letters from every quarter of the nation calling on me for further information in regard to my health. It has been impossible for me to write privately to each person who has made this request, and I am therefore under the necessity of making another public statement.

I am free from catarrh. I believe that I could get a certificate to this effect from any competent physician. I have used no medicine within the last six months except King's Royal Germetuer. My health is better than it has been in thirty years. I am in possession of information which warrants me in saying that the relief which I have experienced from the use of the medicine is not more certain and radical than that which it has brought to hundreds of persons in Georgia and other States.

I feel it to be my duty to say, also, that the effects of this remedy upon my wife have been even more signal and wonderful. She has been almost a lifelong invalid from nervous headache, neuralgia, and rheumatism. In a period of thirty years she has scarcely had a day's exemption from pain. She has been using Germetuer about two months. A more complete transformation I have never witnessed. Every symptom of disease has disappeared. She appears to be twenty years younger, and is as happy and playful as a healthy child. We have persuaded many of our friends to take the medicine, and the testimony of all of them is that it is a great remedy.

J. B. HAWTHORNE,
Pastor First Baptist Church.

Royal Germetuer builds up from the first dose, the patient quickly feeling its invigorating and health-giving influence. It increases the appetite, aids digestion, clears the complexion, regulates the liver, kidneys, etc., and speedily brings bloom to the cheek, strength to the body, and joy to the heart. For weak and debilitated females it is without a rival or a peer.

If you are suffering with disease and fail of a cure, send stamp for printed matter, certificates, etc.

For sale by the King's Royal Germetuer Company, 14 N. Broad street, Atlanta, Ga., and by druggists. Price $1.50 per concentrated bottle, which makes one gallon of medicine as per directions accompanying each bottle. For sale in Manning by J. G. Dinkins & Co., and in Foreston by Dr. L. W. Nettles.

A good article when he sees it should

and he will surely bring up at our store, the headquarters for the best goods in Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, Groceries, etc.

Knowledge is Power.

The ignorant man is led by the nose, by those who devise cunning and plausible statements.

THE WISE MAN IS LED BY HIS KNOWS.

And cannot be caught by clap-trap and big promises. We do not do business on the brag plan, but appeal to the judgment of buyers.

We Invite Comparison

in every particular, of our goods with any on the market, content to abide the verdict of discriminating buyers.

We Offer Bargains

Which the man who sees Will surely seize.
