An Almost Incredible Story of Insauity. has been received here from the south-Last One Taken Ill with Same Symp-

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 20 .- The placed in jail last evening. Against her name on the slate was written the comthat is the accusation of a crime so horrible as to be almost incredible.

poisoning four of her children with ar- make any provision for the support of senic. One at a time they died from the Both had received warnings from the White Caps, but paid no attention to little life had been taken was suspicion these notices, rather boasting that they aroused.

She next made a futile attempt on her own life with the same poison. Since then she has attempted to kill her husband. She is undoubtedly a mad woman, however, and this fact is the only thing that relieves the horror of her awful deeds.

part of the mother, and until an examin- every lick. Both pleaded for mercy as ation of the bodies, which took place here, she was thought to be perfectly ing been attributed to grief over the first pair were fairly flayed, and it will be Bull's personality was suggested by the

The unfortunate woman is a native of this city, but since her marriage had been hving on a plantation in Meade county. Her husband is well known and is one of the most prominent farmers in that section. No definite cause has been assigned for the strange and unnatural lilies and general cussedness." crimes. Until the death of the first child she was remarkable for her devotion and care of her little ones.

which her friends and physician con- ed-without disturbance. strued as grief. Each murder was carefully planned and cunningly executed. spasmodic cramps which accompany arsenic poisoning, the suspicion of no tempted her own life.

s work, and that while pretending to give them delicacies before sendranging for their death.

the deaths of each of these victims, Mrs. Highee moved about the sick tions and administering the medicines at | bringing suit. the right time without showing any quieted any suspicions which may have with a cat-like stillness. On Dec. 8, the day before the oldest child, and the last victime, was taken ill. Mrs. Highee expressed herself as very in had them wrapped up in a napkin. school was over.

band, and again began asking about the absent child's health. He attempted to reassure her, but she was not to be comsay that she was certain the child would die as the others had.

had that his wife was murdering his children was the fact that it was hardly an hour after she had ceased talking about the child at school, when the little > make a post mortem examinis, however, was so bitterly the mother that the matter ed. She become indigarant learned what was intended. itened to kill any one who be dead very soon myself," she her husband. "and they can cut

y choose, but no one shall as, apparently, so real that suspicions were, for a

made a careful resume of the case and too rapid child breeding and continuous gravated by loneliness and remorse. From the first she showed an insane jealousy of her husband and upbraided him for faithlessness. Nothing he could say had the slightest effect upon her, and she stood firm in the belief that he wished to get a divoce.

showed the same indifference which had characterized her actions from first to last. She walked into her cell composed. and quiet. When asked the names of her three youngest children she said she had forgotten them and preferred not to speak of them.

years of 'age, with light hair and blue eyes. She cried bitterly and clung to

NEW ALBANY, Ind , Dec. 19 .- News The First Child Died Oct. 14 and the ern portion of this state of the manner which some worthless characters were flayed by the so-called White Caps in that section. The little town of Menter, Dubois Courier-Journal says: Mrs. Jessie county, on the Louisville, Evansville Higbee, a neatly dressed and prepo- and St. Louis rathroad, fifty miles west sessing young country woman, was of this city, was the scene of their operations. There is in that town a saloon of unsavory reputation among the better class of citizens, and Samuel Brovn, mon-place charge of lunacy, but behind aged 21 years, and single, and J. Beard, aged 26 years, with a wife and two children, have been devoting their entire time or late to the effort of drinking up The unnatural mother is accused of all the liquor in this saloon, refusing to

"could clean out a regiment of those 'Whip Ups," as they termed the knights of the switch.

At a quarter before 12 o'clock on Saturday night, as Brown and Beard were enjoying their cups at the saloon, the White Caps suddenly Pounced down on them. They took both men from the saloon to the woods near by, and tying Until the past three months there them to trees, gave them a whipping were no signs of mental failing on the with switches that drew the blood at the licks rained down upon their bare backs, but in vain. The night riders knew no mercy for such fellows. The out. Both promised to reform.

A few nights before this visit two other men, named Darwin and Jones, were taken from their homes, near the Crawford and Dubois county lines, and "dressed down," as the White Caps ex-press it, for "offenses against their fam-

Scrambling for a Home. the Evening Wisconsiu, from Wausu, the evening of October 14, and the others says a great raid on the land office to followed at intervals of two weeks. file claims on the land in the great rese-During the illness of each child the voir strip began at 9 o'clock this mornmother showed a stolid indifference ing, and thus far the filing has proceed-

Though every child was attacked with Wausu Light Guard to march his comthe same symptoms and died with the pany to the Court House square to preserve order, and forty-five blue coats, with glistening bayonets, took up sta-tion close to the land office. The arrione was aroused until after the death of the fourth child, when the mother attempted her own life the mother attempted her own life.

White is a substitute that an effective damper on the ardor of the homesteaders attempted her own life. The women is 23 years of age, and thing was peace and quiet when Registras the mother of five children, the ter Sannders slid back the worket for was the mother of five children, the ter Saunders slid back the wicket for and accounted, every one wore the mortem examination of the children. waiting at the wicket. Eight handred of the value of General Miles's new It was then for the first time learned settlers left last night with supplies to method of solving the Indian problem we victims of their squart on the land. Besides having to by turning the Indians wholesale into contest with these squatters, men who soldiers. One thing is certain, the band filed claims this morning will probably of wellfed, warmly clad, copper faced have to go to law with Byron J. Hamil- athletes that led the way for the white ton, the Wausu lawyer, who walked insoldiers bent on a mission of utility, to the land office shortly before 9 o'clock was a striking contrast to the starving, During the illness, sufferings and and laid down an application with the ragged, crazy wretches that formed necessary fees and tendered them to the such a menace in the Grand River receiver. The tender was refused and camp. rooms, fulfilling the physician's instruc- Hamilton announced his purpose of

At Equilaire there was almost a riot. signs of grief or betraying herself as the author of their deaths. Her manner, ed in quelling the disturbance. The band and physicians off their guard, and trouble was caused by a policeman, who was stationed at the wicket to preserve order, filing a claim for himself. His application was refused.

Miss Richardson, daughter of Gen.

actions were strange, but this was attributed to her supposed grief. She selberoically, and when she reached the dom spoke, and moved about the house desk her hat was gone and her hair was disheveiled, but she got a tract worth sight was bitterly cold, the infantry dry bed of an ancient creek. This is cammand of Col. Drum swung along in the darkness. A weary difficult march which finally emptied itself into the Ap-

The Cave of the Robbers. ST. PETER, MINN., December 20. The cave wherein the Younger and lames gang hid during their raids on Northfield, where six men were killed, and prayed she would not suffer the fate has been discovered, and at the same time the mystery of the disappearance of the youngest of the James boys has been solved. His skeleton has been found in the subterranean rendezvous. A party of hunters traversing Great Fay Ravine in Nicollet County found an old door opening into a common dugout. Hewed logs at the rear former about her lunch, as she would arrange ed a "bling" door, which led into contemplated. The ponies of the point herself. While the rest of the family another room, twenty feet long and like were pushed for all they were were out of the room she buttered sev- sixteen feet wide, along one side of eral biscuits, and when the child came which bunks were arranged, and from the number of these at least thirty The mother kissed the child good-bye, persons had found sleeping accommoand told her to come home as soon as dations there. This room contained pulled their panting animals up short several benches and stools, an old table, tin plates and cups, kettles, cook stove and various cooking utensis, and the skelston referred to. There was also a letter referring to the theft of some > accommodate twenty head at a time. Over the Ocean in a Little Boat. NEW YORK, Dec. 19.-News has been received by the Norton Lifeboat Company in this city of the arrival of the lifeboat F.L. Norton off Gibraltar. As the sharp crack of a Winchester. The the yacht passed she appeared all right, policeman at Sitting Buil's right, and signalled that everybody aboard horses supposed to have been written by Frank James to Jim Younger. Still another apartment was found artificial cave being large enough to Captain Norton, on whose plans the Norton lifeboats are built, sailed from this port on November 20, accompanied wife and his 16-year-old niece. The lifeboat is 58 feet long, no larger than an ordinary yacht, and is fitted with a double bottom, holding a varying supply of water, which Captain Nor-ton maintains acts as ballast, and makes her unsinkable and steady at the same time. Her passage is a remarkably good one, for she doubtless stopped at Faval, in the Azores, for coal after the unsinkable model, to cross the Atlantic successfully. The first was the Neversink, which went to Paris during the exposition in the summer of | The police halted round the corpse, not Hanged in Berkely.

Adam Morgin, a negro about 30 years Jackson, in Berkeley County, last May. Morgin met his death very calmly, saying he was going straight to heaven. There was not much of a to-do around the gallows. He came out enveloped in a shroud, and when the noose was ad- led by both parties, the police using justed began to sing, "On Zion's bright and flowing mount." The preparations were in the meantime completed, and he was told to bid good-bye to the color-ed minister, which he did. His neck was broken, and he died almost instantand she stood firm in the belief that he ly. He had no relatives but an aged father, who took his body. Morgin shot when taken into custody, Mrs. Highee his victim in the back and claimed it According to another report, when was self-defense. He added, however, the Indian police under Liet. Bull that Jackson had a pistol when he shot | Head and First Sergt. Shave Head him, but no pistol was found. Morgin, although defended by the ablest colored errand, Sitting Bull expressed his will-lawyer in the State, was convicted. He ingness to go with them, but said he persisted to the last that it was a case wanted to make some preparations for of self-defense.

A Canadian Wreck. QUEBEC. Dec. 19 .- Word is just re

"I WILL DIE FIGHTING."

PROVED TRUE TO THE LETTER.

the Lives of the Famous Chief, of Seven of His Followers and of Five of The In-Dec. 17 .- "God Almighty made me; make me an agency Indian." This was the declaration made by Sitting Bull to General Miles on the occasion of their first meeting, and the detailed reports of the great medicine uan's death which began arriving at the agency yesterday gave to the declaration the full force of a prophecy. All eyewitnesses agree as to the facts that every circumstance considered, make the final tragedy involving the extermination of probably the brainiest Indian that ever lived one of the most picturesque and characteristic incidents of American history.

The expedition which started from this agency for Sitting Bull's canp fory miles distant, to take him dead or live, with the chances ten to one of his death, was no haphazard foray of semisavage Indian police and ill-advised army subordinates. It is conceded that the operation against Sitting moval of Medicine Arrow, the great Chevenne leader, when the Chevennes threatened an unprecedented uprising

Simultaneous with the General stepping quietly aboard the train at the big railroad depot at Chicago the expeditien, which had been with equal quietude under preparation at Fort Yates, which forms part of the agency, was At an early hour this morning Mayor Mueller directed Capt. Bellis, of the same moment that General Miles's car glided out for the Northwest the members of his little command here silently took their departure and were quietly lost in the darkness that enveloped the wilderness stretching to the camp of Sitting Bull, on the banks of the Grand was the mother of five children, the eldest of which was 8 years of age. It was 'only for the sake of the fifth child, and in order to save its life from the inhuman mother, that the husband told his suspicions and suggested a post his suspicions and suggested a post his suspicions and suggested a post waiting at the wicket. Eight handred of the value of General Miles's new bright brazen buttons and showy blue ragged, crazy wretches that formed

Close behind the blue-coated Indian horsemen's hardy ponies, but taking a slower pace on the frozen trail, came Capt. Fouchet's cavalry command. The cavalry were encumbered with two pieces of incdern light artillery, machine guns similar to those which so speedily settled the fate of Louis Riei's half-breed followers, when his noted Lieut. Gabriel Dumont made a stand against Gen. Middleton in the British ly escaped being overtaken by the flood, Northwest outbreak. To the rear of which, gushing down the side of the Four pet's cavalry, and at times taking slight incline on which the fruit farm is a not be quick step forward, for the situated, had soon worn a channel in the

The distance and the capacilities of the troops to withstand the fatigues of such a journey had been figured out nicely and when the first faint light of dawn appeared the expedition was within easy distance of its destination. The broken order of a triple separation of forces had been carefully preserved, and the Indian police were the first to ologists, be ng perfectly colorless, while sight the huddled cluster of ugly-look-

Despite the early hour all was astir in the village where, on evey hand, was evidence that a hurried exodus was lice were pushed for all they were worth, and before Sitting Buil's dazed adherents had half a chance to realize the situation a dozen of the police had on all sides of the chief's abode. No time was wasted in ceremony. The of controlling and utilizing the water, proud old medicine man was hustled People from miles around have been out, hoisted on a waiting horse and in a trice faced toward civilization. He and one or two venturesome spirits have raved and sputtered in a fury of rage for a moment and then straightening up, shouted hoarsely, not for help, bat a command to his followers. Despite the threatening of the police and Win-chesters alternately directed at his head and those of his kinsmen, the old medicine man retained his presence of mind, and with powerful voice continued to direct his own rescue. Suddenly there was a puff of smoke beside a tepee and policeman at Sitting Buil's right, grasping the chief's bridle, reeled in from the village. The shot was instantly answered by a volley from the police at their blanketed tribesmen, many of whom were already mounted and in a frenzied pursuit. The police volley told with deadly effect, and the firing in a moment was general on both sides. Sitting Bull could be neard in the confusion still attempting, though captive, to direct the fight. Raising She is the second small yacht, built his gaunt form he was beckoning his 1889. Captain Norton is on his way to Toulon, France, where he will exhibit his yacht.

The point matter to the following for the moment but it was a trick of the wily old chief. The sudden movement and the fall of Sitting Bull disconcerted the pursuers, who, remaining at a distance, fired at intervals to-wards the police. The latter held their ground, knowing that the cavalry, under Capt. Fouchet, would be at hand. To the surprise of all, however, the hostiles, who had been consulting among themselves, began a movement to close in from all sides. The firing led by both parties, the police using their ponies as protection. It was at this critical juncture that Capt. Fouchet's men dashed up and the machine guns, which had been put in position, opened on the redskins. The latter were too dismayed at this unex-entered the camp and announced their the ride, and ordered his horse to be got ready. While Bull Head and Shave Head were in the shack where the old chief was getting ready, two bucks enceived from St. Joseph de Levis that the veloped in blankets entered the shack,

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 19 .- A strange oody of a tean has been brought here case came to light at the new Denison hotel, which, upon investigation, proved to contain a romance in real life. by two mennamed Packwood and Barrett, who were building a dam. Part of the foot was exposed, and when the and not until this morning did her whole body was exhumed it was found to be wonderfully preserved. The body lay on a rock covered with earth, portant one. At I o'clock in the afternoon she entered the lobby with an-twelve feet. The body was straight and measured seven feet in length. The man was physically perfect. The face "The lost is found," Nina remarked and left on the afternoon train for Sandbury. The attention of the hotel clerks was first called to the incident by Gill, a clerk at the hotel eigar stand. He learned the story from Nina Stark. Stark is her maiden name, and Grace Stark is the wife of her brother. Grace the stomach. The hair is gone, but the errs are clearly outlined. The hands are perfect, the nails and wrinkles in the skin of the fingers being as natural as life. The same may be said of the reet, the tendons showing the contraction forcible, to physicians in cases of went west with her husband some time ago, and they settled in Colorado. They did not get along well together, and on some pretense Stark induced Grace to come to this city. She did so, and not long ago her hasband died in Colorado Grace stayed here, and her people at Stanbury became uneasy about her. tion familiar to physicians in cases of death from strychnine. The body They made every effort to learn where she was, but failed. Finally, they weighs six hundred pounds. Cantua Canyon is dry most of the

ear. The indications are that the body has been buried for ages. In the same canyon is a petrified forest. The body is supposed to be of an early spanish explorer. A glance at the petrification, as well as the character of the discov rers, preclude the idea of any decept on like the "Solid Muldoon" giant fraue in Colorado. The curiosity will be sen; to the California Academy

Third Party Talk.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 .- In his speech on the reapportionment, Mr Tillman of South Carolina, had something to say about a third party movement, and warned the politicians of both parties a look out for lightning. There is an impression here that a third party will be organized, and that well posted, observant politician, thinks that such a movement is impracticable. because he does not believe the Alliancemen of the south will desert the t will cut quite a figure in the next na-who comes from a state where the armers proved a potent factor in the lections, is disposed to differ with lerk McI nerson, and thinks that an Alliance candidate will not only be put n the field for the presidency, but that they will be strong enough to carry several states. The names of these here very sensibly impressed with everything he saw and heard. He says crats are ready for the revolt, and at the convention he found many southern Democrats who stood ready to desert their party whenever the Alliance bugle was sounded.

ment that party would be the chief sufferer.

Drew too Much Water. JACKSONVILLE, December. 19 .-

orangery, situated on the outskirts of Econfina, Henry Hardcastle recently struck what must be an immense underground river and which poured its water fouth at such a tremendous rate that the men who were doing the boring narrowpalachicola and which has continued to

The water is clear, sparking and very cold, with caly a slight mineral flavor. Fish by the thousands have been thrown out and are of several varieties, some of which are of a kind unknown to ichthyothers are translucent and gelainous, and all are without eyes, and very small, except a few et a sort resembling our pickeral, and which measure from a foot to three and a half in length, and are provided with 'ery large pointed teeth. Great damage has been done to his fruit and vines, and Mr Hardeastle, seeing no prospect of the flood abating, has offered a reward to stimulate the ingenulty of the local engineers to find a way coming in clowds to inspect the wonder. narrowly escaped drowning. A New Secret Political Organization.

new secret political organization re-cently referred to by the press at large, known as the "Knights of Reciprocity," is about to form a State organizatin by organizing a grand lodge for the State of Cansas, Numbers of the prominent members of the order are now here is obedience to an order pronulgated ! y the Supreme Judge of the the saddle and toppled over and was and founder of the new order, who trampled under the hoofs of the ponies called a meting of the chief justices of subordinat. lodges of the State to meet nere to-day for the purpose of establishing a state lodge. A sufficient number of hier justices are present, representing subordinate lodges recently organized n the State. All the preliminaries of the meeting have been arranged for and the session will be brief. The meeting is strictly secret and no details will be given out for publication. Numerous applications are being received by the supreme officers for ispensations to organize new lodges throughout the United States and all indications point to a rapid growth of the order.

> Senator Vauce's Election Assured. Carr of the North Carolina State Alliance addressed a letter to Senator Vance last week, in which he asked the following question: If the Legislature instructs you to advocate and vote for the sub-treasury plan of financial reform, will you carry out such instructions in good faith? In reply Vance said: I hold that the will of the people, clearly and unequivocally expressed, must be obeyed, unless compliance would involve the representative in a moral wrong, in which case it would be his duty to resign and give place to a representative who would obey. Good faith in the observance of instructions and public pleages is absolutely essential to a government based on the popular will. The Progressive Farmer, the Alliance organ, says the Legislature will instruct Vance to support the sub-treasury plan, which will FORT WAYNE, December 26 .- Wesley fullis, a prominent young business man of New Corrydon, a town forty miles south of here, shot and instantly killed Miss Verona E. Travel this morning and then co nmitted suicide. Tullis has for a long ti ne been paying attention to the girl. Her mother objected to the match. This morning he entered a grocery kept by Mrs. Travel and asked the girl to n arry him. She referred him to her mother, who ordered him out of the house. He drew a revolver and shot Verona th ough the heart. He then SURANCE SOCIETY, MANNING, S. C.

TOSEPH F. RHAME, ATTORNEY AT LAW, MANNING, S. C.

MANNING, S. C. to the clerk, and the two paid their bill LEVI.

ATTORNEY AT LAW, MANNING, S. C. TNotary Public with seal.

JOB PRINTING.

THE TIMES OFFICE IS FITTED UP IN A manner that warrants it in soliciting our patronage for job printing. Send us our orders which shall have prompt attention. Prices as low as the cities. Satisfac-tion guaranteed. Keep us in mind.

to find her was because her husband's father died recently in Sanbury, and her share of the estate is said to be FORESTON, S. C. Heavy Mortality in New Orleans, I keep always on hand a full line of > SOAPS, PERFUMERY, STATION-ERY, CIGARS, GARDEN SEEDS, and such articles as are usually kept in first class drug store.

>
> I have just added to my stock a line of

SHERBROOK, ONT. December 19 .-L. W. NETTLES, M. D., attack.

PEOPLE OF

I have just returned from the North with the largest and best assorted stock of General Merchandise that has ever been offered by me since I have been in the business. I am prepared to compete with the largest merchants in the town. My stock consists of DRESS GOODS, TRIMMINGS, HOME of all kinds, and in fact everything that is MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. STREET LAMPS and LANTERNS OF ALL KINDS kept in a

I also have the best assortment of GENTS FURNISHING GOODS in town, and my Clothing and Hats I can sell cheaper than any one else. If you want first class family and plantation

GROCERIES, give me a trial, and I will convince you that

Manning, S. C. BRUNSON HOUSE,

SUMTER, S. C. First class accommodations and excellent flow unchecked or without signs of diese table. Convenient to the business portion WHOLESALE GROCERS. Flour a Specialty.

Nos. 171 and 173 East Bay Street, CHARLESTON, S. C.

-- WHOLESALE-BOOTS, SHOES, & TRUNKS. 235 Meeting St., CHARLESTON, S. C.

Largest stock, best assortment, lowest prices. R. T. MCGAHAN, A. S. BEOWN, ROET, P. EVANS, McGAHAN, BROWN & EVANS,

Dry Goods, Notions, Boots, Shoes and Clothing,

Supreme Lodge of the United States and founder of the new order, who CHARLESTON, S. C.

J. M. THOMAS.

Stephen Thomas, Jr. & Bro. WATCHES, JEWELRY, SILVER & PLATED WARE,

Spectacles, Eye Glasses & Fancy Goods. Watches and Jewelry repaired by impetent workmen. 257 KING STREET,

CHARLESTON, S. C. ESTABLISHED 1836.

Carrington, Thomas & Co., -DEALERS IN-WATCHES,

JEWELRY, SILVERWARE AND FANCY GOODS, No. 251 King Street, CHARLESTON, S. C. A. McCOBB, Jr

General Commission Merchant. AND DEALER IN LIME, CEMENT, PLASTER PARIS, HAIR, FIRE

BRICKS, AND FIRE CLAY, LAND PLAS-

TER, AND EASTERN HAY Agents for White's English Portland Cement. 194 & 196 East Bay, Charleston, S. C.

> Manning Shaving Parlor. Cotton Factor ----AND-----

----COMMISSION MERCHANT---Kern's Wharf, CHARLESTON, S. C. Solicits consignments of cotton on which next door to Manning Times.

E. D. HAMILTON. liberal advances will be made.

John S. Wilson, Alloring and Connsclor at Law.

ALLEN HUGGINS, D. D. S., CHERAW, S. C. To Visits Manning every month or two

FORESTON DRUG STORE,

FANCY AND TOILET ARTICLES, TOILET

PAINTS AND OILS, nd am prepared to sell PAINTS, OILS LEAD, VARNISHES, BRUSHES, n quantities to suit purchasers.

Foreston, S. C. A. S. J. PERRY. H. P. SIMONS. B. A. PRINGLE. Johnston, Crews & Co.,

-WHOLESALE-JOBBERS OF DRY GOODS,

Notions and Small Wares,

Nos. 49 Hayne & 112 Market Streets, CHARLESTON, S. C.

THE

R. A. McCURDY, Prest.

OF NEW YORK.

Assets, $136,401,328.02. Surplus, $9,657,248.44. The oldest, strongest, largest, best company in the world. It "makes assurance doubly sure." E. B. Cantey, Agent for Kershaw and

> Classadon, Canden, S. C. ED. L. GERNAND,

> > GENERAL AGENT,

Columbia, S. C.

CRAND CENTRAL HOTEL,

COLUMBIA, S. C. Is the largest hotel in the city, and has, during the past year, been thoroughly renovated, remodeled, and refitted with all modern improvements. Centrally located, and offers inducements for the accommodation of its patrons. Has 6 spacious, light, and airy sample rooms. Hot and cold baths, elevator, &c. Cuisine under supervision of Mr. E. E. Post, late of Lookont Point Hotel, okont Mountain, Tenn. The proprietor pes by strict attention to the wants of his trons to merit a share of patronage.
W SEEGERS. E. E. POST, W. SEEGERS,

MEN HOME SEWING MACHINE ( ORANGE MASS CHICAGO. 28 UNION SQUARE, NY. SANTRANCISC STLOUIS MO FUR SALE BY DALLASTEX. W. E. BROWN & CO., Manning, S. C. 3 PHILADELPHIA SINGER. Low

THE C. A. WOOD CO., 17 North Tenth St. ShotGuns Revolvers, Rifles, Addres W

Cockers, $2.50 to $10. All kinds of Cartridges, Shells, Caps, Wads, Tools, Powder Flasks, Shot Pouches, Primers. Send 2 ents for Illustrated Catalogue, Address H. JOHNSTON, GREAT WESTERN GUN WORKS, Pittsburg, Pa.

experience in several large cities, and guar antee satisfaction to my customers. Parlor Office Nos, 18 & 20 Market St., E. of East Bay

SMYTH & ADGER,

Faciors and Commission Merchanis

F.J. PELZER, Special Partner

North Atlantic Wharf,

OTTO F. WIETERS,

WHOLESALE GROCER,

No. 121 East Bay, Charleston, S. C.

Wholesale Grocers and Provision Dealers,

CHARLESTON, S.C. MANUFACTURERS OF

AND IMPORTERS OF Pure German Kainit.

PELZER, RODGERS, & CO., General Agts., BROWN'S WHARF, CHARLESTON, S. C.

MOLONY & CARTER, COMMISSION MERCHANTS. Dealers in Corn, Oats, Bran, Hay, Flour, Feed.

244 & 246 Meeting St., Opp. Pavilion Hotel, CHARLESTON, S. C.,

White Lead and Colors,

Mill and Naval Store Supplies.

OFFICE, 207 EAST BAY, CHARLESTON, S. C. ESTABLISHED 1844.

Manufacturers and Dealers in Marine Stationary and Portable Engines and Boilers, Saw

Repairs executed with promptness and Dispatch. Send for price lists. East Bay, Cor. Pritchard St.,

Charleston, S. C. PUCKHABER BROS.,

464 and 466 King St., CHARLESTON, S. C.

PERCIVAL MFG. CO

SASHES, DOORS AND BLINDS 478 to 486 Meeting St., CHARLESTON, S. C.

shipments. Our goods do not shrink or warp. Geo. E. Toale & Company,

Doors, Sash, Blinds, Moulding, and General Building Material

Office and Salesrooms, 10 and 12 Hayne St., CHARLESTON, S. C. OLD CLOTHES MADE NEW.

SMOKE HENO CIGAR, THE BEST NICKLE CICAR SOLD. B. A. JOHNSON, Sole Agent, Manning, S. C. SOL ISEMAN, Wholesale Grocer, State Agent,

CAROLINA MILLS, And dealers in Prepared Flour, Grist and Meal, also Hay, Grain, Flour, Mill Feed. etc. Send for prices. 30, 32, 34, and 36 Beaufain St., CHARLESTON, S. C.

Sumter and inspect my large stock of Clothing Hats, Shoes, Gents' Farnishing Goods, Dry Goods, Hardware, Groceries, Tinware, Crockery, in fact everything that is kept in enoke bered, $8 to $100. Single Breech Loading Shot Guns, and pay the highest prices for Hides, Furs, and all kinds of country produce.

I will give my customers special bargains and pay the highest prices for Hides, Furs, and all kinds of country produce.

I. M. VAST.

CHARLES C. LESLIE Wholesale & Retail Commission Dealer in

FISH. OYSTERS, GAME, AND POULTRY.

Consignments of poultry, eggs, and all kinds of country produce are respectfully CHARLESTON, S. C.

157 and 169, East Bay, CHARLESTON, S. C.

Wholesale Grocers ----AND----

Vendue Range

child's death.

The first murder was committed on ing them to bed, she in reality was ar-

After the death of the third child her anxious about the child's health, and asked her husband if he thought the patient looked well. He replied that he thought she was looking unusually well, of the other children. At this she replied that no one could tell when they were going to die, and that she had a presentment that they all would be dead mside of two weeks. The next morning before Hallie, the oldest child, started to school, Mrs. Highee told her not to both-

During the morning, while the child was absent, Mrs. Higbee called her husforted, and several times was heard to where the horses had been secreted, the The first intimation which Mr. Higbee turned, suffering from cramps, as victims had been attacked. In ne relapsed into uncond remained so until her was well. ansband then told his fears ing physician, and request-

(iii) his suspicions were corroborated his grief was pitiable. He then told that he and his wife had not lived happily together for the past six months, and feared that her deed was the outcome of her unhappiness. Dr. Pusey, who is regarded as old, was hanged Friday at Mt. Pleasant an expert on the subject of insanity, for the murder of another negro named examined the condition of the mother. He pronounced it an unmistakable case of puerperal insanity, brought about by nursing. Her mental condition was ag-

The only remaining child is a girl, six her mother when the latter was placed west bound Halifax express train went and throwing off their blankets opened in the patrol wagon and driven to jail. through the bridge at that place shortly fire on the police. Sitting Bull's wife Dr. Pusey says that in all his experience before noon. The entire train except had gone out and set up a howl, which he had never came across a case so para- the baggage car and engine went down. seems to have been the signal for the doxical and baffling. "There is no doubt A number of passengers are killed and assault. about her being insane, but it would be others injured. Assistance was sent a difficult thing for any one who is not a from Levis. No particulars have been with the Farmers' Alliance. Deacon turned upon her mother, in the particular have been with the Farmers' Alliance. specialist to imagine her so. I have never seen a similar case, or a more horizone pathetic one."

with the Farmers Alliance. Deacon turned upon her mother, firing at her seen a similar case, or a more horizone pathetic one."

with the Farmers Alliance. Deacon turned upon her mother, firing at her seen a similar case, or a more horizone pathetic one."

with the Farmers Alliance. Deacon turned upon her mother, firing at her seen a similar case, or a more horizone pathetic one."

with the Farmers Alliance. Deacon turned upon her mother, firing at her seen a similar case, or a more horizone pathetic one."

WHITE CAPS IN INDIANA Slay Worthless Characters for Officiases

and "General Cussedness." The Story of the Expedition Which Cost

> STANDING ROCK AGENCY, N. Dak., God Almighty did not make me an agency Indian, and I'll fight and die The neck is long and rests on muscular fighting before any white man can Sitting Bull's promise to die tighting had much to do also in shaping the determination for a sudden, decisive pressed wish to be remembered as the last Indian on the continent to give up his rifle, When General Miles left MILLWAUKEE, Dec. 20 .- A special to Chicago headed in this direction it was the beginning of the end.

ing tepees on the river bank.

now in the mad helter skelter of retreat

A Petrified Glani. FRESNO, Cal., Dec. 19.- The petrified SITTING BULL'S DECLARATIONS from Cant a Canyon, about sixty miles from town. The body was discovered parts of it being buried to the depth of is clearly defined, the nose, eyes, fore-head, mouth and chin being natural. shoulders. The arms are long and shapely, the left being folded high on the breast, with the hand resting near the throat, while the right comes diagonally across the body and rests on ional election. Mr. McP ierson, clerk of the house, a Democratic party.

Representative Morrill of Kansas, states he did not venture to give. Representative Pickler of South Dawas one of the delegates to the Ocala convention, and he came back the northwest Republicans and Demo-

Judge Crisp and Mr. Bynum, on the Democratic side of the house, represening the two distinct sections, believe that the discontent now manifested by he farmers grows out of conditions made by the Republican party, and that in the event of a third party move-

While boring a well on his vineyard and

GARDEN CITY, Kan., Dec. 24-. The

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 26 .- President remove all objections to his re-election traced her here, and found she was an inmate of the Home for Friendless Women. The reason they tried so hard

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 23.—The weekly Pure Drugs and Medicines, report of the city's mortality shows the largest number of deaths during any one week ever recorded here, save when the yellow fever prevailed in epidemic form twelve years ago-236. The large death rate is due, in the opinion of prominent physicians, to the prevalence of the grippe, of which there are now nearly 3,000 cases under treatment here. An Execution Kills a Sheriff. Remi Lamontague was hanged here this morning for the murder of his brother-in law, Napoleon Mychel. Sheriff Webb who had charge of the execution, died suddenly from heart disease. It is believed that the excitement attending the arrangements was the cause of the fatal nearly $1,000,000.

The Lost Found.

SPUNS, PANTS GOODS

Dry Goods Store.

it is to your interest to buy from me. C. KARESH, of the town. 25 cents for dinner.

J. H. DIXON, Proprietor.

M. Drake & Son.

JOBBERS OF

S. THOMAS, Jr.

An Indiana Tragedy.

F. M. WILSON, AGENT EQUITABLE LIFE AS

HAIR CUTTING ARTISTICALLY EX-ecuted, and shaving done with best razors. Special attention paid to shampoo-ing ladies' heads. I have had considerable

ADGER SMYTH

CHARLESTON, S. C.

Wholesale Dealer in Wines, Liquors and Gigars,

OTTO TIEDEMAN & SONS.

172, 174, and 176 East Bay Street,

CHARLESTON, S. C.

Atlantic Phosphate Company,

STANDARD FERTILIZERS.

Mr. M. Levi of Manning, will be pleased to supply his friends and the public genally, with any of the above brands of Fertilizers.

Tontracts made for car load lots or less. w. e. holmes & co.,

Oils and Varnishes, Glass and Brushes,

Charleston Iron Works,

Mill Machinery, Cotton Presses, Gins, Railroad, Steam boat, Machinists', Engineers' and Mill Supplies.

Wholesale Bakery and Candy Factory.

All goods guaranteed. Estimates furnished by return mail. Large stock, prompt

SEND YOUR DYEING TO THE CHARLESTON STEAM DYE WORKS, 310 King St., CHARLESTON, S. C. All work guaranteed.

158 East Bay, Charleston, S. G. Lilienthal & Blohme,

> BOLLMANN BROTHERS Wholesale Grocers,

John F. Werner. L. H. QUIROLLO. JOHN F. WERNER & CO.,

Provision Dealers, 164 & 166 East Bay and 29 & 31

CHARLESTON, S. C.