WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 19, 1891.

Your Name in Print.—
—Mr. T. Wilder returned home last night from his trip to Greenville.
—Mr. A. C. Davis is attending Bryant & Stratton's business college in Baltimore.
—Miss Clara Bates, of Richmond, is in Manning, visiting the family of Mr. C. R. Harvin.
—Mr. Sam Epps, of Williamsburg, has taken a position in Dr. Brockinton's new drug store.
—Mr. W. E. Dinkins, of Georgia, spent several days of last week with his parents in Manning.
—Mrs. Alice Reeder and children, of Charleston, are visiting the family of Mr. D. M. Bradham.
—Mr. Edgar Levy and wife, of Athens, Ga., are visiting the family of Mr. Louis Loyas last week.
—Capt. S. C. Cartledge, State agent for forfeited lands, is in Manning, with headquarters at the auditor's office.
A squall struck the house of Mr. C. R. Harvin last Sunday.
It will be winnow seeds of kindness before scattering them.
Two white men occupied cells in the town lock-up last Sunday morning.
The town council will put the northern end of Brooks street in first-class repair.
Our depot agent has made an addition to his residence by adding a nice little hall.
Wm. M. Bird & Co. have something interesting to say this week in our advertising columns.
When "pleasure is at the helm" the devil is generally down in the engine room looking after the machinery.
To Rent—To desirable tenant, three rooms two miles from Manning. Apply to Mrs. Martha R. Aisbrook.
The two cavalry companies of this county will please give notice to Capt. Bradford's orders in another column.
Packsville is beginning to assume town airs. Several dwellings and stores have been erected there recently.
As a general thing our farmers have planted a less acreage this year than last, and the crop yield will be greater.
The man who would lie without being found out must confine his efforts to for-bearing friends or unmitigated idiots.
No matter what you print, from a visiting card to a mammoth poster, the Times office will give you neat work at lowest prices.
Just received, fresh and genuine turnip seeds, all varieties, at Dinkins & Co.'s.
Ex-Governor Manning and Dr. J. W. Stokes are to have a discussion to-day on the sub-treasury scheme at the Alliance picnic, in Greenville county.
40 lbs. good family flour for $1 at M. Kalsky's.
Mrs. Cannon, of Foreston, re-opens her school in that town the 7th of September. She is said to be a very fine teacher, and to give satisfaction to her patrons.
Buy your turnip seeds at Dinkins & Co.'s drug store.
The Jordan academy opens September 7th. Mr. J. M. Knight is well known in this county as a teacher and superior quality. His patrons have built him a large school house, and a full attendance is expected. See advertisement in another column.
Granulated sugar, 4 pounds for 25 cents, or 16 pounds for dollar, at M. Kalsky's.
The colored people are displaying a proud spirit of progress by their efforts to have an industrial, agricultural, and mechanical fair at this place in October. If they succeed in their project, it will have a tendency to elevate their race in numerous ways.
Turnip seeds, all kinds, at Dinkins & Co.'s drug store.
If one wants to see a busy place let him walk into Mr. Levi's store and see the number of cases of goods that are arriving from the Northern markets by every train. The store resembles one of the large wholesale establishments of some city. The clerks are opening and marking the goods, getting them ready for a busy fall trade, and if small profits is what the people want, this store is recommended at this time.
Fon Essex—A large new brick store, 100 feet deep, with handsome plate glass front, in the trade centre of the town. Apply to S. A. Nettles.
Town Warden W. H. Young started out yesterday with a gang of hands, and is putting the streets and ditches in a first-class condition. Owing to the recent wet weather, it was impossible to make much headway in cutting grass and weeds, and the consequence was that the sidewalks became pretty filthy. The hands are making, and a little sunshine, the grass and weeds will be out of sight in a short while.
Fresh lemons at M. Kalsky's.
The attention of the council is called to the dangerous non-traps in the shape of old wells, partially covered up old meat boxes and weeds, in some of the lots in this town. These things are very dangerous, and should be prohibited. An ordinance should be passed requiring owners of open lots to at once fill up any open wells that may be on their lots, and if they do not do so, the council should have the attention of the ordinance, the council should then take these parties that their ordinances must be respected, by imposing a heavy fine.
Is your house insured? If not see S. A. Nettles at once, and get him to write a policy for you.
Stole a Bag of Money.
Last Friday it was discovered that a sneak-thief had been at work in the counting room of the Harvin Brothers, and had stolen therefrom a bag of money containing $106.52, in gold mostly.
Mr. C. R. Harvin had but a short time before drawn the money from the bank, and he had been the money in a drawer his attention was called to the mill. Some time later he went to the drawer for the money, and it was gone.
The matter was quietly worked, and Monday morning the money was found in the name of Henry Kelley was the thief. He had slipped into the store during Mr. Harvin's absence, took the money, and hid it in the bay near the mill. The boy acknowledged having taken the money, and he could be found. Policeman Boyd and the father of the boy immediately went to the spot indicated by the boy, and found all the money except fifty-two cents, which had been spent in a first-class hotel, and when that gave out he took a gold piece and gave it to another boy to get changed for him. This boy told his father about it, and the investigation that followed resulted in the recovery of the money.
The boy's conscience may not have been lashed, but he was lashed, all the same.
New Attractions in Drama.
Have you been to the new drug store just opened by Dr. W. M. Brockinton? He has opened it in first-class style, and all his drugs and medicines are fresh. He keeps everything usually kept in a well-appointed drug store. He will cater also to the cigar trade, and has on hand an assortment of the best cigars.

Quick Work.
A gentleman from this town being in immediate need last week of a bill of lading and doors, went to Charleston to get it. The only mill that would agree to fill the order in less than two weeks was the Percival Manufacturing Company. This company was given the order Thursday afternoon, and the following Monday the goods, amounting to about $100, was shipped, and reached Manning the following day. The Percival Manufacturing Company is a first-class house to deal with, and we are pleased to know they have a large and growing trade in this county.

Town Affairs.
At a meeting of the town council last Monday night, it was decided not to levy a tax on an estate and personal property, but to levy a commutation tax of two dollars, to be paid on or before October 10th.
They also authorized the policemen to visit the yards of the citizens, and if they find the premises in an unclean condition, to report same to council, in order that council may have the parties summoned before them to show cause why they should not be fined for violating the sanitary laws.
The policemen were also instructed to collect street stand licenses, and turn over to the treasurer the amounts so collected, and where a party fails or refuses to pay the license fee, the policeman must take the establishment at once. It was decided to employ a force of hands to work the streets, and Warden Young to superintend the work.

Baptist Religious Meeting.
Rev. T. E. Jasper, pastor Manning Baptist church, writes us:
I am away helping in a meeting at Gourdins. The interest may be said to be reaching in the Manning Baptist church Sunday evening at 8:30 by Rev. Mr. McDowell, missionary of the Santee Baptist Association. He will, also, preach at Dudley's church at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning.
The protracted meeting at Dudley's church closed last Sunday evening, when there were fifteen more baptized. The meeting was the greatest success that was ever held in that community, and there were thirty-five added to the church, and yet there are four more awaiting baptism. More will still unite and be baptized with these. I had no assistance in the meeting, as the brother who was to help was taken sick.

Good Templars.
At a meeting of the Good Templars last Friday night, the following officers were elected:
C. J. Lesjane, Chief Templar.
Miss J. Scott, Vice Templar.
S. A. Nettles, Chaplain.
Eugene Dickson, Secretary.
George L. Dickson, Financial Secretary.
Miss Mamie Harvin, Treasurer.
E. M. Brown, Marshal.
Joe Bigley, Guard.
Claude Setzer, Sentinel.
These officers, together with two others to be appointed, will be installed next Friday night.
Miss Bettie Scott is Superintendent of Juvenile Templars, Mr. W. E. Jenkinson is Past Chief Templar, and Mr. W. C. Chandler is Lodge Deputy.

Falmouth District Lodge, consisting of the following members: Florence, and Williamsburg counties, meets in this place September 10th. A public meeting will be held the evening of that day, at which there will be several speeches.

A Case of Slow Poison.
A sensation was caused near Summerton last Thursday by the death of a colored woman named Lavinia Connors. The suspicions of the colored people on the plantation of Mr. L. R. Tindal were aroused by a letter from her husband, Charlie Connors, about ten months ago gave her a dose of concentrated lyfe for medicine, trying to put her out of the way.
The lyfe when given caused a burning sensation, and when she asked her husband for water he refused to give it to her. Since that time she has been suffering from its effects, and found great difficulty in eating. At first she was very weak, and finally grew so weak that she was unable to get up from her bed.
Her husband left her immediately after giving her the poison, and about six weeks ago Lavinia became the mother of a child. The doctor was called to hold an inquest over the body, and on Friday a post mortem examination was held by Dr. Briggs, who made examination, and gave the following testimony to the jury:
"I have examined the body of Lavinia Connors. I find the gutlet, or esophagus, swollen and congested, with complete distention of the uvula and trachea. The autopsy, in my mind, bears out the supposition that she has been poisoned with some corrosive substance unknown to me. The parts are almost entirely closed, so much so that it has been impossible for the deceased to swallow enough nutriment to sustain life."
The coroner called me to see that the post mortem examination agrees with her often repeated statements as to causation of her condition."
Other witnesses were examined, and they testified to the fact that the deceased had stated several times that her husband had given her poison before he quit her.
The following verdict was rendered by the jury, which Mr. Louis T. Fischer was foreman:
"We, the jurors in the case of Lavinia Connors, find according to the statements made to us, that the deceased came to her death by medicine administered by her husband, Charlie Connors."
In accordance with the above verdict, the coroner has issued a warrant for the arrest of Charlie Connors, who is said to be out of the county.

Are the Postmasters to Blame?
It is exceedingly unpleasant and annoying to the subscribers of the Times that the Times not being received on time, and we want to get at the cause. Last week we received the following from the postmaster at Silver:
SILVER, S. C., August 14, 1891.
EDITOR TIMES.—Please state for the benefit of your subscribers that the reason they fail to get their paper sooner than Saturday is because they do not call for it; it seldom reaches this office on Friday morning, and frequently not until Friday morning. It has just arrived this morning. I make this statement in justice to myself, and in order that the blame may rest where it belongs.
Yours truly,
DAN L. BRADHAM, Postmaster.

Now, all our mail was put in the Manning postoffice last week Wednesday evening, and the postmaster tells us it was promptly forwarded. Where was the Silver package from Wednesday to Friday morning? It should have reached Silver Thursday morning. We have referred Mr. Thames's letter to "Uncle Sam," and hope to find out where that package was.
SILVER, S. C., August 14, 1891.
EDITOR TIMES.—I have a question for you. Will the postmaster at Oakland please let us know what becomes of Mr. Harvin's papers? He says it is no uncommon thing for him to miss the Times, but that he gets all his other papers promptly.
Secretary of State Tindal says he never gets his paper Thursday morning (as he ought to do regularly), but that it is Friday or Saturday, or even later, before he gets it.
There is almost always something wrong with our mail for Sandy Grove.
From Jordan and Packsville we frequently get complaints.
Is the matter? We want the postmasters to let us know, and get this great evil corrected.
We suggest that, in some cases, the postmaster sends out our paper to some kind of a person, and that person, in turn, sends it to the subscriber and pay for it, and that the honest subscriber calls for it, the paper is not there. This is in violation of the postal laws, and the subscriber may send for his mail, and one of these kind of mail may get hold of it and keep it for a day or two, or perhaps always, thus throwing the blame on us.
The Times is a popular paper, and is read by everybody, consequently pay for it, others dishonestly get hold of their favorite paper and steal its contents, to save three cents.
Those who want to get at the bottom of it, and hope the postmasters will help us, will they?

Sayings and Doings of the Colored People Throughout Clarendon and Elsewhere.
BY R. A. STEWART.

The Clarendon Mechanical and Industrial Fair is making strenuous efforts to have their buildings ready to open a fair this fall. Rev. E. H. Wilson is president. The bills are out now. If this enterprise is carefully and properly managed, it will tend to develop among the colored people of this county the desire to improve their stock of all grades, and encourage them to make their living growth in the State. Every citizen in the State is making some effort in this direction, and it is time that something be done to show that we can and are doing something in the good ways of life. It is also hoped that our white friends, who have always assisted us in every worthy and commendable effort, will contribute a mite to enable us to put on exhibition something at the Southern Interstate Exposition at Raleigh, N. C. To find out more about it, and to see an indisputable and convincing argument in the negro's favor.

The District Sunday-school convention of the A. M. E. Church for this county, last week, was held at the Foreston hotel, last week. Quite a number of persons were there from Manning. Rev. W. D. Chappelle is Presiding Elder.

Revs. Thos. Brown and M. M. Martin are in town; the latter to attend the Old Folds meeting.

Miss Florence A. Clyde, a graduate of Avery Institute, of June last, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Curry, of Charleston, is visiting Rev. Whitehead and family.

Rev. J. C. Simmons and A. J. Jefferson, gave a panoramic exhibition at Trinity A. M. E. church this week.

Mr. Walter L. Lawrence, also a graduate of Avery Institute, is carrying on the barber business of Barber Hamilton, who is sick.

A member of the Manning baseball club mildly protests against being referred to as "Hague's Club," although the name might be a slight relation. He wishes to discontinue his ancestry.

A number of our colored citizens some time ago invested in the National Capital Building and Loan Association, of Chicago, which has recently failed. Some of them had as many as eight shares, and others two and four. The moral of this is that it is best to invest in those business enterprises near home, and of which you know something, and not be misled by such figures fatal. In fact, our great fault is that we are too easily influenced to believe in every and all kinds of mushroom representations, and do not, as intelligent people, investigate before committing. Probably it is owing to the fact that our minds have not had the great benefit of that training which come through an ancestry of intelligent minds. Credulity is a prevalent evil, outside glitter and paraphernalia in the hands of poor people is an alarming extent. Men of the other race almost by intuition feel of a warning conclusion as to the character of a thing.

Time and educating influences, and constant develop a harder mental race, and that native equality of men first instituted will be made more apparent.

Letter From Sheriff Bradham.
GLENN SPRINGS, S. C., August 17th, 1891.
EDITOR MANNING TIMES.—We left Manning on the morning of the 12th inst. for Greenville, and on the same day about five o'clock. There was a great crowd on the station we traveled with, seven coaches, all the clerical, not crowded, however. The Atlantic Coast Line, with its usual and clever gentleman, Capt. W. G. Webb, to look after the safety and comfort of their friends, so we all were cared for, and each in due season was able to get to Greenville. We left the train at Rich Hill, just six miles from this place, and found carriages waiting to take us to the Springs for just one dollar apiece. The carriage which fell to our lot was driven by a Mr. Tindal, a very clever gentleman he was, and with "Dexter and Alex," we made the trip in a short time. The section of country we traveled over is hilly and broken, most of the farms we passed are cultivated by tenants. The weather are very promising, but about three weeks later than ours. I don't think from what I see that a full crop can be made.

We meet people here from all sections, representing almost all of the Southern States, and they talk freely. I find very few opposed to free silver, none opposed to increase of the circulation of currency, and none opposed to reduction of the tariff; all pretty well opposed to sub-treasury, and all pretty well in favor of the gold standard, there's not as much difference of opinion as some people think. One man offers the following in lieu of the sub-treasury: "Let the general government loan the States that amount of money which they want, and let the States, through the State bank, loan this money to the people at two per cent. per annum. Abolish the national banks, and secure to the States their sovereignty and independence, and then each State would furnish that relief needed to her people."

From what I hear our honest and reliable ex-president will not be in the race in '92. Visits to the States of Ohio, Indiana, Gray, of Indiana, and Campbell, of Ohio, "bad, but not least," are the coming men. I had also that Tillman is still in the hearts of the people, and will have an easy job in '92 to continue his work of '90. On Sunday I went to church and heard a fine sermon from a Mr. James, a Presbyterian minister. A large crowd attended, but I doubt very much if the minister had personal acquaintance with fifty persons present.

I am improving some, but not as fast as I hoped for. I had a chill the second day I got here, but hope, with the help of Glenn Springs water and rest, to get entirely clear of the fever which was here has been following me for the last month or two. We will return on Friday next, in order that we may attend the meeting of the dear old Sport Grays on the 22d.

Yours truly,
DAN L. BRADHAM.

THROWS IT OFF.
There is no disease more disagreeable and uncomfortable than catarrh. It attacks the young and the old, and it is too often allowed to take its course. In such cases it frequently becomes dangerous. The poison extends to the throat and lungs, resulting in complications that are not readily overcome. All forms of catarrh, however, disappear before S. S., and that medicine is now recognized as an almost infallible remedy for the disease. It regulates the liver, improves the digestion, and brings about conditions that enable the system to throw off the malady. Catarrh and its attendant aggravations disappear before S. S., and so do all other diseases that grow out of a bad liver and impure blood.

St. Paul Sifters.
St. Paul, August 15.—The continued high seasons in this section has given the cotton crop quite a woody appearance. It seems to be nicely fruited and we are very anxiously watching its maturity, as we think we are getting few much more than usual. As we were well as it may realize a better price for the staple than has been indicated through the press, which claims that a million or more bales of last year's surplus cotton is still on hand, less would be expected a great deal of that amount consists in very inferior grades usually called blue or stained cotton, and we appreciate the kind reminder of Wilmington's friend, published through the Times last week, to be very careful to pick out the cotton clean and dry and as soon as opened. By so doing we can command a good price as the high grades of cotton will be in good demand, even if there is a million of surplus bales on hand, and I trust we all who plant cotton may be able to have it picked out rapidly and nicely. We are inclined to say that Clarendon will make this year one of her largest cotton crops, and I see from the agricultural reports the average prospects are high through all the South. Supposing this be so, what will prevent a greater surplus on hand this time one year hence? It will certainly indicate that the supply is greater than the demand, and that prospect for reducing this supply below the demand is certainly a subject of vital interest to all cotton planters. Is there no compact that could bind the South whereby a year of planting in the South would be skipped, where the acreage of cotton in the South be reduced one half? That day when you hear there is a surplus of corn and pork in the South then the problem will be solved and we then will not need so much cash, and will live a great deal more independently. It will make our wives more cheerful and our children brighter, and the chicken pie will eat the sweeter, and even old dog Tray will rejoice. Our wives call that progress and the country. I don't think we cotton planters look at it that way and the good wives of the South may yet have to take hold of the issue with one hand and a broomstick in the other, to demand that their lords a reduction of cotton.

The Davis Cross Road academy is now under the charge of a new board of trustees who are alive to the interest of the children of that section, and are sparing no pains in making that academy what it should be, second to none in the advanced sections of the times. We extend to them our best wishes for success.

CHILDREN ENJOY
The pleasant flavor, gentle action, and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and the father or mother be coarse or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle.

Complimentary to Mr. Tindal.
With all of the asperities of the last campaign, and the bitterness engendered in many quarters by the course of some of the State officers, since their accession to power, we have failed to notice a single unfriendly comment upon anything hitherto done or left undone by Hon. J. E. Tindal, Secretary of State. Charleston World.

Ayer's Hair Vigor
Restores the hair soft, plant, and glossy, promotes a fresh growth, and cures dandruff, itching of the scalp. Mary A. Jackson, Salem, Mass., writes: "I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a number of years, and it has always given me satisfaction. It is an excellent dressing, prevents the hair from turning gray, insures its vigorous growth, and keeps the scalp white and clean."
Several months ago my hair commenced falling out, and in a few weeks I was almost bald. I then used Ayer's Hair Vigor, and after using only part of it, my head was covered with a heavy growth of hair."

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
COUNTY OF CLARENDON.
Notice of Sale of Land for Delinquent Taxes.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT by virtue of sundry executions to me directed by S. J. Bowman, treasurer for Clarendon County, I will sell at the court house in said county, the parcel of real estate hereinafter described, the owner thereof being "unknown," at the suit of the State of South Carolina for taxes, on Monday, 7th day of September 1891, within legal hours. Fifty-eight (58) acres of land, in Manning township, in Black river swamp, bounded on the north by lands of William Mahoney and estate J. T. L. Thames, on the east by lands of estate W. J. Clark, south by lands of W. H. Butler, and north by lands of M. Levi. Purchaser to pay for papers.
DAN L. BRADHAM,
Sheriff Clarendon County.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
COUNTY OF CLARENDON.
By LOUIS ALPERT, Esq., Probate Judge.
WHEREAS C. R. HOFFMAN HAS made suit to me to grant him letters of administration of the estate of and effects of J. P. HOFFMAN.

These are therefore to cite and admonish all singular and the kindred and creditors of the said J. P. HOFFMAN, deceased, that they be and appear, before me, in the court of probate, to be held at Manning, in said county, on the 27th day of August next, 1891, after publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand this 5th day of August Anno Domini 1891.
[SEAL] Justice of Probate C. C.

Attention
BATTALION!

The Cavalry Commands of this county, constituting the 24th Battalion of Mounted Troops, are hereby ordered to parade at Danola on Friday, September 25th, at 12 m., for review and inspection by the Adjutant and Inspected General.

Company Commanders will rigidly enforce, with full ranks, the number of drills required by law before appearing for inspection, reporting the same when duly performed to the office of the Adjutant General.

The commanding officer sincerely trusts that the 24th Battalion will on this occasion maintain their high reputation for soldierly bearing, thorough discipline, and perfect order, of arms, equipments, uniforms, and horses, which has won for them the generous encomiums of the lauded Marquis, and the dashed and gallant Bonaparte.

Commanding 24th Battalion Cavalry.
G. W. DINGLE,
Adjutant.

Painting and Whitewashing
Are Now in Order.

Do you intend to do either?
Probably we could offer you some suggestions about either, if it is wanted, and save you some money, besides. We have cheap paints, but we do not always advise you to use them. The best is often the cheapest. Now, paints are not the only thing we keep. S. S. is not the only thing we keep. S. S. is not the only thing we keep.
