Next Monday will be the Jewish day of atonement, and all the business men of that faith will keep their places of business closed.

Beautiful line Plush Lap Robes from $3.00 to $5.50 at Horton, Burgess & Co.

Trial Justice Timmons held a preliminary yesterday, in the case of the State against E. P. and A. C. Briggs, for assault and battery with intent to kill. The prosecution arose out of a difficulty at Silver, about three weeks ago, in which Mr. A. W. Thames and Mr. A. C. Briggs were both seriously hurt. The defendants were bound over for trial.

Candies, raisins, citron, currants, etc., at Johnson's.

Winburn, the mammoth photo tent photographer, of Sumter, has returned from the mountains of western North Carolina, and has re-opened his gallery on West Liberty street, in Sumter. Mr. Winburn has won for himself a reputation in the State and our Clarendon people will do well to give him a call when wanting anything in the line of photography.

Golden Machine Oil for gins, and mills, for sale cheap at Dinkins & Co.'s drug store.

Rev. W. S. Stokes left yesterday for Washington to attend the ecumenical conference of the Methodist Church, which meets in that city to-day. Dr. Stokes expects to be absent about two weeks. There will be no preaching in the Methodist church here next Sunday. The Sunday-school and League meeting, however, will be held at the usual hours. Prayer-meeting to-morrow afternoon.

Sires & Chandler will compete with any fruiture house in the State in prices.

Married last Friday night at the residence of Trial Justice Timmons, Mr. Lamarine Newman and Miss Ida Young, both of this place. This union had its obstacles in the shape of opposition on the part of the bride's parents, and romancing was resorted to. At a given signal the bride leaped over the garden wall, joined her lover, and both skipped by the light of the moon, and kept skipping till they reached the house of the officer that united them man and wife.

Cabbage, Irish potatoes, onions, and other vegetables always on hand at E. Thames's, opposite the Bank.

Advertising pays, and those that engage in it know it. Mr. Jake Prodovsky has an advertisement in the Manning Times, and his business has grown to such proportions that he has found his old stand, the iron store, too small for his large stock and increasing patronage. Realizing the necessity of meeting the demands of his people, he has moved into one of the handsome brick stores with plate glass fronts, where he proposes to have a fine display of goods, and make a strong and steady pull for the trade. Mr. Prodovsky is a business man, young, full of energy, and competition has the effect of making him double his efforts as is seen by his recent move.

Set His House on Fire.

Last Sunday afternoon the people living in the neighborhood of the Baptist church were startled by several reports of a pistol in the house occupied by the family of Mr. Willie Butler, and a few moments later some one cried fire. Warden Mounzon who lives in the next house rushed out of his house to ascertain the cause of the disturbance, and found Mr. Butler in a state of liquor frenzy with a pistol in his hand defying people to approach. Mr. Mounzon took in the situation at a glance and saw that it was useless to rush upon the man in his frenzied condition, so he summoned help as soon as he could. In the meantime Policeman R. H. Davis arrived and rushed into the house, and dragged from it a burning bed that had caught on fire from Mr. Butler's pistol. As soon as he put the fire out he took charge of Mr. Butler and placed him in the guard house where he remained until night when after sobering up he was allowed to go home upon payment of a forfeit of ten dollars.

CONFIRMED.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid Fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers, the California Fig Syrup Company.

Briggs's Store at Silver Burned.

The store of Mr. A. C. Briggs, of Silver, was burned last Saturday night, about one o'clock. The fire is thought to have originated in one of the back rooms. When discovered it was too late to save anything, the clerk, a Mr. Andrews, barely escaping with his life. The building and all stock of general merchandise were insured for $2,400. Dr. Henderson is said to have also lost several hundred dollars of medicines that were stored in the building.
