

Pay Your Taxes.

The county treasurer will be at the following places next week, to collect taxes: Jordan, Monday, Nov. 24. R. E. Smith's, Wednesday, 24th. W. J. Gibbons's, Thursday, 25th. New Zion, Friday, 26th. Midway, Saturday, 27th.

Barber E. D. Hamilton.

E. D. Hamilton, who for nearly five years has been running a barber shop in this place, closed up his shop last Friday, and left for Florence, where he has made arrangements to run a shop in the large new three story brick hotel just completed in that place.

A Good One.

One thousand dollars will be paid by "The Queen" to the lady or gentleman, girl or boy, forming the largest list of English words (of not less than four letters) from the letters contained in "Queen Souvenir Spoon."

Pay The Preacher.

Let no person spend all the spare change in going to State fairs and gala week celebrations, and then with affected meekness try to persuade the pastor that he is too poor to support the benevolent institutions of the church.

A Card from Mr. J. H. Lesesne.

EDITOR MANNING TIMES:—I notice from the presentation of the grand jury as published in your paper to-day, they say it had been brought to their attention that the county commissioners had refused to pay an account of $2.70 for the draping of the court house in memory of my late father, Maj. H. H. Lesesne, and recommended that this account be paid by the county commissioners out of the fund from fines and licenses.

Joe Tucker Writes a Letter.

EDITOR MANNING TIMES:—You are doubtless crowded for space, in fact I see from the growth of your paper that you are making every effort to give the reading public the benefit of what is going on now. I trust, however, you will excuse the liberty I take in thus trespassing upon your valuable time.

Joe Tucker Writes a Letter.

I am glad to know that old Clarendon is coming to the front in agriculture as I see from the TIMES that crops are fine this year. You give the Alliance news very good. I am glad to note the fact that you are not, like most editors, using your columns to break down that noble order. The people need educating in the great principles upon which this organization is based, and the press is the proper channel through which this knowledge should come.

Williamsburg News.

Williamsburg, October 21, 1891. One would judge Mr. Willie A. Sparks to be a complete carpenter, if they will look at the neat store he has built at Lake City for Mr. C. M. Kelly.

Grady and Dawson.

The ceremonies attending the unveiling of the Grady monument in Atlanta must have drawn the thought of many South Carolinians to the failure of Charleston and the State to provide a fitting memorial of the life and services of Capt. F. V. Dawson. Capt. Dawson, like Henry Grady, had faults, and they were faults which, unfortunately, lay at the surface, but beneath that, lay a rare intellect, an extraordinary capacity, a heart kindly and warm, and a devotion to the people among whom he had cast his lot, and to the city and State of his choice, which was profound and touching.

DEMAND AND SUPPLY.

Eli Perkin's Thirty Years of Wit. I was talking one day with Mr. Depew about demand and supply. I said the price of any commodity is always controlled by the demand and supply. "Not always, Eli," said Mr. Depew; "demand and supply don't always govern prices. Business tact sometimes governs them."

"How is that?" I asked. "Well," said Mr. Depew, "the other day I stepped up to a German butcher and out of curiosity asked: 'What's the price of sausages?' 'Twenty cents a pound,' he said. 'You asked twenty-five this morning.'

"Ya, dot was ven I had some. Now I ain't got none I sells him for twenty cents. Dot makes me a reputation for selling cheap and I don't lose nothings."

"You see," said Depew laughing, "I didn't want any sausage and the man didn't have any, no demand or supply, and still the price of sausage went down."

Recommends it to Everyone. "Thinking that a word from me might be the cause of others receiving benefit from your S. S. S., I write to say that I have been a sufferer from Eczema, which my doctor called pink heads. Small blisters would form on my limbs, would break and ooze, and cause large sores to form.

The odor arising would be very disagreeable, and I would often be laid up from one to two weeks at a time. The disease would break out about every two months. I tried various physicians and treatments, but received no permanent relief until I was induced to try S. S. S., and felt the benefit from it in a few days. I continued the use of it until I had taken three bottles, which was over a year ago, and I have not had the Eczema since. I believe it is thoroughly eradicated from my system. I feel sure that S. S. S. is the greatest blood remedy, and I would recommend it to everyone afflicted with any form of blood poison, for I believe they will receive like benefits that I have."

In the Cemetery. Tommy: "Pa, some of these people who are buried here haven't gone to heaven."

Pa: "Hush, Tommy; how do you know they haven't?" "Because I read it on the tombstones."

"Read what on the tombstones?" "On ever so many of them I read 'Peace to his ashes.' There ain't any ashes except where it is very hot, is there?"

LA GRIPEE AGAIN. During the epidemic of la grippe last season Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds, proved to be the best remedy. It relieved the many who used it confirm this statement. They were not only quickly relieved, but the disease left no bad after-effects. We ask you to give this remedy a trial, and we guarantee that you will be satisfied with results. The purchase price will be refunded. It has no equal in la grippe, or any throat, chest, or lung trouble. Trial bottles free for J. G. Dinkins & Co.'s drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

HAPPY HOOSIERS. Wm. Timmons, postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for many a bad feeling arising from my liver and liver trouble. John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: 'Find Electric Bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine. I feel like a new man. J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, of same town, says: 'Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle at J. G. Dinkins & Co.'s drug store."

Rev. Plink-Plunk on Courage. De most courageous deeds, dead brethren, are done with habber been recorded. De man dat gits home half full at two o'clock in de mornin' and faces an angry wife who wants to know whar he's been, hev no courage dan half a dozen Wellingtons or Napoleons.

The first successful blood purifier ever offered to the public was Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Initiators have had their day, but soon the remedy which has proved its worth for this incomparable medicine increases each year, and was never so great as at present.

Williamsburg News. [King's Record, October 21, 1891.] One would judge Mr. Willie A. Sparks to be a complete carpenter, if they will look at the neat store he has built at Lake City for Mr. C. M. Kelly.

There is an English walnut tree just across the line in Clarendon county, which bears excellent fruit. Mr. T. S. Stuart showed us one of the nuts a few days ago. A dead white man was discovered by the side of the mill-truck, a short distance north of Camp Ridge, by the engineer on the 9-30 a. m. train yesterday morning. The coroner was notified, but the inquest was not concluded up to the time of going to press.

A school has recently been opened in the neighborhood of Mr. J. P. Shaw, which promises to be of great benefit to the citizens living in that community. Miss Lella McLeod, of Clarendon county, is the teacher, and the patrons are very much pleased with her work.

Mr. W. H. Campbell, of Greasleyville, whose dwelling house was burned at that place about one year ago, had the misfortune to lose his new dwelling house last week by fire. The house was nearly completed when it was destroyed. There seems to be scarcely any doubt that Mr. Campbell is the victim of some incendiary, as his last house which was burned, was off to itself and the workmen had not been about it for several days. We learn that there was some insurance on the building.

As a family medicine Ayer's Pills excel all others. They are suited to every age, and being sugar coated are easy to take. Though searching and thorough in effect they are mild and pleasant in action, and their use is attended with no injurious results.

Never Touched Her. Diggs: "I found a mighty caustic mother-in-law joke in the paper and showed it to my wife's mother."

Figgs: "What did she say?" Diggs: "She laughed, and said she supposed there were just such mother-in-law in the world."
