

Time Out - This Week

Some of our subscribers will find a little slip in their paper this week. It is worded as carefully, and as politely as we know how, in order not to offend. It means that the time paid for has expired, and that we must not renew the paper, but if we do not receive the money we will stop the paper. If our subscribers will watch their dates, and send us their renewals three or four weeks before the time runs out, it would save us trouble and be greatly appreciated.

Sunday Selling in Manning.

Where do people get liquor in this town on Sundays? It is certainly against the law for liquor or anything else except medicines to be sold on Sundays, yet the fact is that on any Sunday one may go out on the streets and see white men and negroes under the influence of liquor, and in passing certain general merchandise stores the proprietors may be seen behind their counters selling goods just as they do on other days.

When the town council passed an ordinance forbidding the sale of liquors and merchandise on Sunday, the law was respected a short while, and if anything at all was sold it was done so slyly that the man selling did so with fear and trembling. But the respect for law and order became tiresome after a while, and the violators of the law gradually broke the law, and continued doing so without being punished, until now the law has become a matter of indifference, the whisky-sellers and merchants depending on their wits and influence to keep from being arrested and punished.

It is not guess-work to say that the law is violated in this town every Sunday, and that liquor as well as everything else is sold in defiance of law and decency. It is the practice of certain merchants to be in their stores on Sunday afternoons, ready to catch the floating dimes.

Why cannot this be stopped? Who deserves the most punishment, the poor, unfortunate countryman who happens to get a little too much aboard and opens his mouth a little too wide? or the citizen-merchant, who knows the law and refuses to respect it? No man can be a respectable citizen of a town unless he respects the law of that town.

A merchant should hold himself up to respect, but if he defies the law, becomes a law-breaker, he deserves not so much respect as the bar-keeper, because when a man goes into the liquor business he goes into a business that he knows is without moral backing; but a merchant is expected to do an honest business, and when he sells goods in violation of law his business is not honest and should be condemned.

Somebody is selling whisky and other things on Sunday, and without the right to do so. Why are they not caught? Are our police afraid to do their duty? Can it be true that the council are afraid to back the police in case they make an arrest? If the officers cannot or will not act, then the people should not be afraid to speak and act. Let such a sentiment be cultivated in this town that violators of the law will seek elsewhere to commit their crimes, and then we will have no whisky or other selling on Sunday. If the sentiment of this town is not opposed to law breaking, then the town council, police, or anything else, will not break it up, and the town may as well be turned over to the violators of the law. Are the men of Manning willing for this Sunday traffic to continue? If not, come out and assist the council to break it up. If a case comes under your observation report it to the police, and if he fails to act report him to the council and have him discharged. If the people will act, and the council has a backbone as large as a knitting needle, the evil of Sunday law-breaking in this town will be stopped.

The phosphate commission are after Coosaw again. Coosaw when about to be whipped by the State moved its digging operations to Mud Creek, claiming it to be private property and beyond the interference of the phosphate commission. The commission, however, have investigated the property and find it to be a navigable stream and belonging to the State. They will force this "octopus" to comply with the law or leave the State.

Next Thursday, Nov. 26th, is the day that Thanksgiving usually comes on, but so far we have failed to see any proclamation from the President, ordering such day to be observed as a day of thanksgiving and praise. What is the matter? Does Harrison think the people have nothing for which we should be thankful?

Mr. John G. Chinkcales, of Anderson, has been appointed chief clerk in the State Superintendent of Education's office, vice W. J. Thackston.

Manning needs another railroad, and a little united effort on the part of the citizens will get it. Is the united effort possible?

A Fine Reform Showing. Everybody, of course, feels a deep interest, politically and otherwise, in the finances of South Carolina under the Tillman administration, and the result of the fiscal year under the new regime.

Although Treasurer Bates has not made public the figures of his report, an abstract has been given to the comptroller general for incorporation in his report. Yesterday upon application, Chief Clerk Norton furnished some of them to a representative of the State.

The latest shows that the fiscal year closed with a cash balance in the treasury of $64,615.02. There are warrants against this amounting to $14,250.83, leaving a net cash balance of $50,364.19 on hand. Not a cent had been borrowed.

Local Items.

Another railroad would give life to the town and make things boom. The State legislature meets in Columbia on Tuesday the twenty-fourth of this month. 10 pounds family flour for 25 cents at Kalsky's. The Masonic Grand Lodge meets in Charleston Tuesday, the eighth of December. Persons desiring to sell their property will find purchasers by advertising in THE TIMES.

Try Johnson's Irish potatoes, onions, and corn fish. The town council are having shade trees set out in the place of the ones that did not live last spring when so many were set out. Thirty pounds of best family flour for $1, at Jacob Prodovsky's.

The streets of Manning were filled with an unusual number of people from all sections of the county yesterday—trade was good. Buy your fruit and vegetables from E. Thammes, opposite the Bank.

Mr. Aaron Weinberg has planted onions and garden peas on his truck farm. The returns from his shipment of turnips netted him $2 a barrel. Best sewing machines for the least money at W. H. Young's.

The board of stewards of the Manning M. Th. dist. church will have a meeting on Wednesday morning at the office of Joseph E. Rhame, Esq. A full attendance is requested. "Grand Republic" cigars are the best 5 cent cigars in this Grand Republic, for sale at Dinkins & Co.'s drug store.

Mr. Joe Barwick and Miss Rosa Ridgeway, oldest daughter of Mr. P. E. Ridgeway, were married last Wednesday night (Nov. 11) at the residence of the bride's father. Men's and ladies' shoes from $1.00 to $3.00 a pair, at Prodovsky's new brick store.

Cotton has had the bottom knocked out of the price, and it is quoted in low bids. The market reports at 7 cents for low middling. It took a slight rise to-day, and sold in Manning for 6 1/2.

Any kind of a shoe, any style and any price, at B. A. Johnson's. Farmers and merchants desiring to hold cotton can get a fire insurance policy on any number of bales. F. E. Nettles, will explain some of the best fire insurance companies in the world.

Cucumber pickles at M. Levi's, at $1.00 a peck. Married this afternoon at Wilson's, in the church at that place, Mr. Walter L. Burgess to Miss Jennie E. Strange, eldest daughter of Mr. R. B. Strange. The happy couple will spend the honeymoon in Atlanta, Ga.

Seventeen pounds of granulated sugar for $1, at Jacob Prodovsky's. Last Sunday night between the hours of 6 and 9 o'clock the moon was in eclipse, and for a while total darkness reigned supreme. Shortly after eight the moon glided out from its dark places, and the light was again lit up in beautiful brilliancy.

Granulated Sugar, 4 pounds for 25 cents, at Kalsky's. Although the price of cotton is low, our merchants did a very good trade last Saturday. People are beginning to learn, since the merchants have commenced advertising in THE TIMES, that they can buy goods at Manning as cheap as elsewhere, and they are giving their home merchants the preference.

"Grand Republic" cigars are the best 5 cent cigar in town. We keep them, J. G. Dinkins & Co. Col. A. S. White, the popular traveling salesman for the wholesale grocery establishment of Otto E. Winters, spent to-day in Manning. Col. White thinks that Manning affords excellent advantages for manufacturing industries, and if the citizens will only properly invest their live capitals, would come here and "cool their sleepers."

Cabbage, Irish potatoes, onions, and other vegetables always on hand at E. Thammes's, opposite the Bank. The farmers are very much depressed on account of the present prices of cotton, and some of them say they are thinking of selling cotton planting a rest for a while, and of devoting their attention to something that will command a living price. A number of farmers in Darlington and Florence counties have made large sums of money from tobacco culture. Perhaps our farmers would be doing a good thing for themselves if they would devote some of their attention to raising tobacco. The experiment has been tried elsewhere and found to pay.

Brockinton's Sarsaparilla with iodine of potassium, a specific remedy for skin diseases, sores, and ulcers, for sale at Dr. Brockinton's drug store. The conspiracy case of the United States against D. P. Humphreys and Garley Jackson, charged with intimidation, etc., at a political meeting held at Timononsville in October last, was tried in Charleston last week. The jury acquitted the defendants. Judge Simonson said that if the jury had believed that the meeting was held solely to promote the election of Haskell for governor and not to promote the election of Deas for congress they could not convict the defendants. The case occupied three days in the trial, the longest political trial held in this State since 1875.

Big Cotton Fire in Sumter. SCHEER, S. C., Nov. 15.—The Sumter cotton compress, together with 350 bales of cotton, was consumed by fire this morning at 1 o'clock. The fire is supposed to have caught from a locomotive on the C. S. & N. Railroad. Total loss on compress, $30,000; insurance, $20,000. The cotton belonged to the Carolina Cotton Company, and was fully insured.

All kinds of hats at your own prices, at B. A. Johnson's. M. Kalsky says he is greatly in need of money, and till January 1st, will sell goods at greatly reduced prices.

Go to Brockinton's drug store for pure drugs and medicines. Call at W. H. Young's for the best sewing machine in the market.

FOR SALE.—Cooking stove. In use only three months. In first-class condition, as good as new. Apply at this office.

The Palmetto Collegiate Institute, Lexington, S. C., offers excellent advantages at lowest cost. Holders of its certificates will get first grade teacher's certificates. Best equipped school of its class in the State. Seven teachers. Board and tuition from $8 to $10 per month. For full information write the principal, P. E. Bowler.

Parents, it costs only from $9.25 to $11.00 to build up to send a boy or girl to the Shreveville Graded school. Six departments. One hundred and fifty-three students, representing five counties. Send for catalogue. Address, E. Y. Perry, Superintendent, Bishopville, Sumter county, S. C.

The Sumter Hotel "Busted." The meeting in the interest of the new hotel yesterday evening ended in failure. The treasurer was instructed to refund the money paid in and the meeting adjourned sine die. - Freeman.

Catarrh

Is a complaint so common that comparatively few people are entirely free from it, so in fact it is a victim of the disease, and before it becomes dangerous as to seriously threaten the general health, and liable to develop into bronchitis or Consumption.

It is a mistake to consider Catarrh merely a local trouble. It is unquestionably a disease of the blood, and therefore the right way to cure Catarrh is to remove from the blood the impurities which cause and feed it. This is to be done by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which expels all traces of poison and gets rid of disease.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures all of Catarrh and built up any general good health, so that I am feeling better than for years. Hood's Sarsaparilla. Is the only medicine I know of which will cure miller's catarrh. Geo. Foster, Leure, Ohio. N. B. Be sure to get Hood's, Columbus, Ohio.

Summerton News.

We are having very warm weather for the time of year. The season for picking cotton has been so good that nearly all the cotton is out of the fields. The low price of cotton has made the farmers blue, and it is to be hoped it will cause them to plant more grain and less cotton next year.

Rev. C. C. Brown and Ayers are conducting a prayer meeting in the Baptist church in this place. There will be preaching every night this week. The Baptist parsonage of this place will soon be completed.

Mrs. S. R. Cole has so much recovered from her recent illness as to be able to visit her relatives in Manning.

District Deputy Grand Master Corbett visited the Masonic lodge of this place at their last meeting. Mr. Corbett is a very bright Mason. The annual election of officers for this lodge will be held at its next meeting.

The Presbyterians have employed Rev. Mr. Hollingsworth as pastor of their church. Mr. J. C. Latham's mother is visiting at his home. Miss Emma White is visiting relatives in the village.

CATARRH CAN'T BE CURED with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, and of course they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

Build Roads by Contract. A correspondent of the York Enterprise has this to say on the subject of public roads: There is but one way and but one system that will give us the kind of roads that we need. It must be done by a system of taxation that will fall equally upon every man alike. This can be done by placing a reasonable ad valorem tax upon all property and a reasonable poll tax upon every man of every calling, and then build the roads by contract, just as railroads are built.

Pastor Pounded. Permit myself and wife to return our most sincere and hearty thanks for the nice donation of groceries which the people of Atolea and Dudley Baptist churches made to us last Friday evening. This nice treat contained about 45 packages of the following articles: Sugar, coffee, flour, lard, rice, cans of fruit, grits, tea, soda, baking powder, cheese, crackers, starch, soap, matches, etc., etc.

To say that we highly appreciate these favors is but to faintly express our gratitude to the many kind donors. May God bless them all. PASTOR T. E. JASPER AND WIFE.

McFall Guilty of Manslaughter. BANNWELL, November 17.—After two full days work the case of Wm. L. McFall, for killing Policeman W. P. Burpee at Midway, was given to the jury, who rendered a verdict of guilty of manslaughter with a recommendation to mercy.
