of 1892. The Toledo Weekly Blade, the most rominent Republican weekly published, is the only political weekly newspaper in the United States that is edited with special reference to circulation in every part of the Union. It has subscribers in every State, territory, and nearly every county of the United States. It has always above 100,000 subscribers, and during late Presidential campaign had 200,000 subscribers. People of all political parties take it. Aside from politics it is a favorite family paper, having more and better departments than can be afforded by papers departments than can be afforded by papers of small circulation.
