Congress continues to saw wood.

Congressman Breckinridge's motion before Judge Bradley for a new trial was over-ruled, and the case will be appealed.

Several towns in the State have issued liquor licenses regardless of the decision declaring the power to issue license by the towns to have been taken away.

The feeling of uncertainly now pervading the State should be put at rest as soon as possible. Under the recent decision of our Supreme Court the liquor men are enabled to sell without interference from the authorities. There is no restraint vexed question the Governor should call together the Legislature and let lature should conclude to re-establish by law the barrooms, then let them do so and stop this "free liquor"

We clip from the Laurensville Herald, a Reform newspaper, published at the home of Congressman Shell, an exposure, if true, should put every member of the Reform Movement on the lookout.
