A dispatch from Washington says that Judge Izlar will contest his claim for re-election in the general election. Judge Izlar would not submit his claims to the Democratic primary for fear of defeat, and now that a Republican ticket is in the field in his district he comes forward to split the Democratic party. This is upholding white man's supremacy with a ven-

Newberry county must be the home of political freaks. That county produced Sampson Pope, the champion kicker; Ellison Keitt, the heaviest growler the world has ever produced; Cole Blease, a political contortionist. Last, but not least, is Mr. Frank Moon, who says he will run for the office of governor in the general election "as a protest against, ring rule and bossism." Mr. Moon of course, could not run in a white man's primary "as a protest." Oh, no! that would not be in accordance with the nature of soreheads who are so glib to protest. There is something wrong in Newberry. Pope became disgusted with his small following, Keitt disgusted because he couldn't get a following, Blease because he squirms and twists so often no following will attempt to keep up with him, and now the Moon in that county has gone wrong. Democracy in South Carolina means white man's supremacy, and a division among the white men of this State can only result in getting back to where we were before 1876. A division in our ranks would be bound to result in one side or the other or perhaps both sides appealing to an element which both sides has so far avoided, and when once begun there is no telling the amount begun there is no telling the amount of strife will be engendered. We must not lose sight of the fact that the Republican party expect to have a majority in the next Congress, and if they realize their expectations South Carolina will lose nearly all, if not all of her white representatives. If we have grievances, let us try and remedy them among ourselves, because it matters not which faction of the Democratic party succeeds those elected will always look out for the Democratic party succeeds those elected will always look out for the interests of South Carolina.

SENATORIAL LUXURIES.

Our Senators Not Only Drink Their Fill From a correspondent of The Times.

Washington, August 2. This is the season when apollinaris lemonade flows like water in the cloak rooms of the Senate. It is on tap all day long in great punch bowls furnished at the expense of the nation: To supply members of the upper house with that beverage will cost Uncle Sam something like $600 this summer. AND IF CROPS FAIL And it is not convenient for you to pay the entire balance Nov. 15th next, we will accept ONE-HALF CASH, and the balance in one year, by your signing a new contract and agreeing to pay the regular time price of the instrument on our one year plan, just the same as if you first purchased on this plan. Remember, please, Spot Cash Prices if you pay entire balance on November 15 next. Or, the one year price if you pay one-half the balance Nov. 15 next, and the remainder in one year from that date. New contract invariably required.

Special inducements are needed to sell instruments during the dull summer months and in order to keep our large force of salesmen, travelers and agents under employment and full pay, we devise the Special Summer Sale. Bayers should take advantage of it, and will miss it if they don't.
