JUDGE EARLE'S SUICIDE.

At last the hide-and-seek game of and Courier. Last Monday one of pledge. But oh! the disappointment Friday night at half-past eight. his friends was here and filed a pledge for him; a little later said pledge was withdrawn as per instructions from Judge Earle, and still later the pledge was renewed, why Senator Irby, written with reference to this matter. Not a hint is there in that address that he wrote to his Coasin John Irby about this race before any explanation on the bond matter came from Governor Evans, and in fact before the insinuation reflecting on the Governor came out in the New York Times.

Not one word is there in the address to say why he has taken Cousin John Irby's place in the fight, nor does he give any reason why Cousin John flunked. We expect to pay our respects to Judge Earle a little later and we also expect to hammer some nails into his political coffin. I-willand-I-wont-Earle has disappointed not only his former friends, but he has also betrayed the new friends who picked him up out of the politithe whine he puts up in the address, "I am in accord with Senator Tillman in the positions assumed by him in the Senate, and if elected I shall sup- for it is raining down. plement his able efforts to protect the rights of the people with such power as I may have and with all the earcoat-tail swinging, what is this? Judge Earle has forgotten that Tillman's coat-tail has been sent out West and it will not be back until after the Presidential election. Poor Earl, we pity him, and if we could have a mixture prepared as an antidote for "Cereboo swingiasis coattailibus" we would surely beg him to take it until cured of his dreadful greed for office. There was a time when Earle was "fit to wear a crown" "I would rather be a dog and bay the moon than such a Roman."
