Manning's trees which have become famons for their beauty are now wrapt in an icy embrace and a great many of them are damaged to a great extent; some are totally destroyed. This is the most severe freeze we have experienced in many years, and the outside world's communication is completely hushed. All the telegraph wires are broken down and the trains must necessarily be slow and late in coming in.

Jenkinson, he having consented to let me have a portion of his store for the purpose of displaying and distributing my presents to the the children of Manning and Clarendon County. I expect to arrive at my headquarters about December 10th and remain with you until after Christmas. Here you will see the largest line of Toys and Christmas Goods ever brought to Manning. All kinds of nice presents for the little boy and little girls. Fire Crackers and Pistols for the large boys. All kinds of nice presents for the young men and their sweethearts. You all must come and see our grand dis-

Your old friend,

Friends, as you have seen by the above, we will have Santa Claus with you Christmas and have given him a portion of our space in the Times, but we have reserved enough of our space to thank you for the large and hearty support you have given me during the three months just passed and from now on to Christmas we expect to offer some great bargains in Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats and Clothing. When I make this assertion I do not make it only to be sav-
