

More New Goods.

Our dress goods stock has been so badly broken that we were compelled to buy more new goods, and in buying we picked up some jobs in the dress goods that will astonish our customers. Call and see these goods; it will pay. Ladies, we are still selling a jersey ribbed Undervest at 25c each that none of our competitors are to produce for the same money.

Notice is hereby given that no advertisements will be hereafter changed in this paper where the copy is brought in later than Saturday noon.

Thursday, November 3rd, is Thanksgiving Day. Miss Annie L. Davis of Marion is in Manning on a visit to Mrs. A. I. Barron.

Go to Brockington's for whatever you want. The honor of carrying off a prize in the State fair outweighs intrinsic value.

Mr. Samuel Sparks is building a very handsome Episcopal church at Summerton.

A fine line of stationery at Brockington's, at all prices. Next to M. Levi's.

Winburn's Gallery is now open. Don't delay having your picture taken, for his stay will be very short.

Quite a large number of people attended the Baptist Association at Pickersville last Sunday.

International Poultry Food cures and prevents chicken cholera. 35c a package. R. B. Loryea, the druggist.

If you are past learning from the experience of others, stay away from the State fair next week.

Look—look—go to Brockington's for that wonderful Celery Compound, only $1. per bottle. Next to M. Levi's.

Do not wait for extraordinary opportunities for good action, but make use of common situations.

Do you want a strictly first class photograph made? Then go to Winburn's Gallery on Court House square.

After serious illness, like typhoid fever, pneumonia, or the grip, Hood's Sarsaparilla has wonderful strength-giving power.

It is not until we have passed through the furnace that we are made to know how much dress there is in our composition.

Loryea's Cleansing Compound instantly removes paint, oil and grease spots from woolen and silk goods without injury to the fabric. Fifteen cents a bottle. R. B. Loryea, the druggist.

There is only one objection to people who "mean well" and that is they mean to spare the time to carry out their meaning.

Don't forget that Winburn's Gallery will only open for a few days. Now is the time to get high grade work.

How to keep the boys on the farm—take them off it occasionally when such an opportunity as the State fair next week presents itself.

A New York man, to shy around his creditors made all of his property over to his wife. She eloped with one of his creditors and now the wifeless man is in the poorhouse.

People who do not understand the English language when it is written are easily made the victims of the practical joker who finds much amusement in taking his work upon them.

Do not miss the chance of washing your family to the State fair. Old and new will be instructed and entertained. All immoral, gambling and questionable parties are rigidly excluded.

Sunday being the appointed day for the fourth quarterly Conference of the Methodist church here, the Rev. T. J. Clyde, Presiding Elder of the Sumter District, will preach in the Institute both morning and night.

Miss Fannie Haysworth, of the Breckington section, was in Manning last Thursday shopping, and while looking at goods in McLeod's store, a snake bit managed to steal her purse containing about $34. Miss Haysworth had laid the purse down on the counter but a moment, while her attention was directed elsewhere. Who ever the scoundrel was, is certainly no novice at the business.

In the retirement of Mr. Jacob W. McLeod from the general merchandise business of this town Manning loses from her commercial circle a man whose business was in the zenith of his glory, with every promise of a continued profitable patronage, and who by his attention to business largely aided in giving Manning a rating which places her among the best towns in South Carolina. One of the main reasons for this retirement was failing health, due to a long illness, and it is to be regretted that Mr. McLeod will not leave us, but will open an office in the rear of Harvin & Barron's store, where he will devote his attention to his cotton and other business.

Fire.

This town was again visited by fire and where it was least expected did the demon put in his work of destruction. Last Thursday morning between the hours of 5 and 6 o'clock Policeman Higgins discovered flames eating their way out of the western upper story window of the Harvin & Barron store. Immediately he sounded the alarm and before an entrance to the building could be effected the fire had gained such headway that it was dangerous to life to attempt the work of saving the goods. Mr. Archie Barron, the junior partner of the firm, attempted to reach the money till where the night before he had left about two hundred dollars in cash, but he was drawn back by the intense heat and smoke. A second attempt would have been made, but the falling in of the upper door near the place he was seeking to get prevented him, and very fortunately, too, because had he reached his money would have been caught by the falling timbers and killed. Very little goods were saved—not as much as twenty-five dollars worth.

Policeman Higgins says that some time during the night or early morning he heard a noise like the breaking of glass and he made a careful hunt in the store lots and about the fronts to ascertain the cause. His search was fruitless, but he came to the conclusion that a piece of glassware had fallen from a shelf. He secreted himself among some bales of cotton in McLeod's lot and watched for over an hour. At the same time Miss Barnes threw a lighted lamp at the member of the firm, the lamp exploded and the burning oil enveloped Miss Thomas. The gathering fled in horror.

The Barnes girl walked out quietly, closed the door on her antagonist and laughed as her agonizing cries pierced the air.

Miss Thomas was burned to a crisp before succor came. Her murderers is in hiding.

Alleged Murderers Acquitted. ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 1.—The circuit court jury, in the case of George Hall and Abe Davidson, negroes, charged with the murder of Harry Slagle, returned a verdict of acquittal after being out 8 minutes. Slagle was found dead beside the railroad track near Swannanoa Station July last, and the state's theory was that Hall and Davidson murdered and robbed him and placed the body on the track to divert suspicion.

Irish Office's Are Indignant. LONDON, Nov. 1.—According to a dispatch to The Daily Mail from Bombay, officers of the Irish regiments (Second battalion), which had been described in a sensational telegram as The Daily Chronicle as insubordinate, unliking at the critical moment, and for that reason withdrawn from Samana to Rawalpindi, indignantly deny this story and declare that the men were withdrawn solely on account of sickness.

Coroner Blames Car Company. ATLANTA, Nov. 1.—The coroner's jury empaneled to investigate the death of Will Carlisle, who lost his life in a collision of two trolley cars on the Atlanta Railway company's line, has returned a verdict holding the company responsible and declaring that the accident was due to negligence. Several people were seriously injured in the wreck.

Justice Deaver Is Convicted. ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 1.—W. H. Deaver, african magistrate and the justice who issued a rule for contempt against Judge Ewart, has been convicted by a jury of embezzlement of public funds. The maximum penalty is five years. He will be sentenced later. There are three other bills of indictment against him.

Americans Lack Enterprise. WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Consul Tingle, at Brunswick, Germany, says that the importation of American products in that district is insignificant in amount, due more to the lack of enterprise than to the part of American manufacturers than to any indisposition of the people to buy foreign made goods.

An Interesting Case Argued. RALEIGH, Nov. 1.—A case at once interesting and important was argued before Associate Justice Montgomery of the supreme court, under habeas corpus proceedings. It was that of Miss Sallie Ferguson of Henderson, who was arrested for selling pianos, as the representative of a Norfolk firm, without license. Justice Montgomery discharged Miss Ferguson, saying that this provision of the revenue act was void and unconstitutional, so far as it applies to persons outside of the state who sell by sample, catalogues, etc., in that it is violative of the interstate commerce act.

Congressman Ewart in Contempt? RALEIGH, Nov. 1.—Judge and ex-Congressman H. G. Ewart made some heated remarks in his charge to the grand jury at Asheville, about the cases in which warrants had been issued against the Southern railway for giving passes to him. The judge, in a published interview, made strictures on the magistrate Deaver, who issued the warrants. Justice Deaver now takes a stand by issuing a rule on Judge Ewart to appear before him and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court.

Epton Appointed by Eilerbe. COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 1.—Governor Eilerbe has appointed L. P. Epton, the present auditor of Spartanburg, to succeed Mr. Norton as comptroller general, the latter having resigned that office on receiving his commission as congressman. Epton was appointed to succeed Epton as auditor of Spartanburg.

CATARRH IS A DISEASE Which requires a constitutional remedy. It cannot be cured by local applications. Hood's Sarsaparilla is wonderfully successful in curing catarrh because it eradicates from the blood the scrofulous taint which causes it. Sufferers with catarrh find a cure in Hood's Sarsaparilla, even after other remedies utterly fail.

Hood's pills are prompt, efficient, always reliable, easy to take, easy to operate.

ONE GIRL KILLS ANOTHER.

Cotton Factory Operative Throws a Lamp on Her Rival. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 30.—Ella Barnes and Dessie Thomas, two 16-year-old cotton factory operatives, met at a friend's house at a social and quarreled over their mutual regard for the same youth.

The Thomas girl advanced on the Barnes girl with a pair of scissors. Miss Barnes threw a lighted lamp at the member of the firm, the lamp exploded and the burning oil enveloped Miss Thomas. The gathering fled in horror.

The Barnes girl walked out quietly, closed the door on her antagonist and laughed as her agonizing cries pierced the air.

The stocks are complete, wherever you look oceans of new and stylish goods will meet your eye.

We have had the good fortune while in the Northern markets to secure extraordinary bargains, and as space does not permit, will only mention now a few of them. Unless all signs fail the demand for capes this season will be a record breaker.

Under the event of this we have bought largely, direct from the manufacturers and are now showing a very large and varied assortment of new and stylish goods. We can sell you Ladies' black cloth capes, fur and braid trimmed, from $1.25 to $3.00; you will wonder how they could be made to sell at such a price, and then we have a fine quality of Beaver Capes in Beavers, in the proper fall and winter shades, beautifully tailored, some plain, others braid trimmed, which we sell at $7.00, worth $10.00; also Ladies' fine Plush Capes made to retail at $5.00, our price, $4.

A full assortment of fancy Knit Hoods, hand-made Facinators, In Hats, Saques, Booties and Socks.

Will keep the public posted from time to time of the great bargains in different lines of goods.

Yours truly, S. A. RIGBY.

THE MANNING HARDWARE COMPANY

Does not expect to do business with the people of Clarendon for a few days or weeks or months, but for years, and we hope by honest dealing to gain the confidence of our patrons.

There is nothing more distasteful to us than cheap John methods of doing business, and we don't propose to adopt such tactics to attract trade.

We keep some shoddy stock on hand because there is a demand for it, but our patrons shall be fully advised as to the merit of the goods they buy from us, for we will not put our guarantee on worthless articles.

We have already lost some money by refusing to deceive customers as to the character of material that looks good but is not so, and we expect to lose much more in this way, but when the people of Clarendon come to know us better they will appreciate our honest method of dealing and then our losses will be "as seed sown on good ground."

We buy Hardware, Tinware, Mill Supplies & Wagon Material

Wherever they can be bought to best advantage and we sell the same as low as they can be sold by any one doing an honest business.

The Manning Hardware Company extends a hearty invitation to the people of Clarendon to visit their place of business, and if in need of anything in our line we shall do our best to please and give satisfaction as to price and quality.

Very truly, THE MANNING HARDWARE COMPANY, FRANK P. ERVIN, Manager.
