THE ELECTION. The campaign of 1898 is over and it is well to take a glance at the situation to see if we can figure out the causes and effects. The opponents of the dispensary took advantage of the fight waged by the Prohibitionists and enlisted themselves in the army of destruction. The question is then, was the large vote given to Mr. Featherstone a true indication of the strength of prohibition? We do not hear it often, hence he runs into the think it necessary to go into much of newspapers and lets the people know an argument to prove that in the what kind of men the people must second primary the question of Disby the opposition to Governor Ellerbe, by the liquor men, and by the disgruntled politicians and others who supported Mr. Featherstone not for the prohibition principles, but to of those in control. In our opinion the second primary was not a prohibition expression, nor was it an index to opposition to the dispensary system; many of those who voted under the Conservative lash are favorable to the dispensary and would not have cast their votes for Mr. Featherstone if the General As-50 sembly had been captured by the prohibitionists.
