Since the matter of town improvement has been discussed in THE TIMES, the Intendant's mail has increased very much with propositions to furnish water works plants, electric lights, also to take all bonds issued by the municipal corporation. This simply means that Manning can have modern improvements, and need not be afraid of not being able to procure the necessary funds to carry them out. We have to pay taxes anyway, and always will, so why not let us derive a benefit more substantial than what we give at present.

Last fall I sprained my left hand, handling some heavy boxes. It called on said at first it was a strain and would soon be well, but it did not. The doctor then said I had rheumatism. ### School Property Sold.

Last Monday Sheriff Bradham sold at public outcry the property known as the "Manning Collegiate Institute." The bidder was A. Levi Attorney, and the amount bid was $1,315. The property was owned by J. W. McLeod, Joseph Sperry, and the heirs of the late B. Presley, Barron Esq. In order to secure a good title, there being minor heirs of the late Mr. Barron, the court had to be invoked to render a decree permitting the sale. Major A. Levi, representing the heirs of the late Moses Levi, bought the property for the purpose of presenting it to school district number 9, for school purposes; the school to be dedicated to the memory of the late Moses Levi, and bear his name. We know of no more graceful, or sacred compliment which can be paid to the dead, than the taking of a part of the means he made in a community to establish an institute of learning. It is a monument more lasting than bronze or stone, and more reaching in practical effect than any other expenditure possible. The children deriving a benefit from the manhood of the late Levi, who have drilled into their minds and hearts a reverence for the man whose means largely contributed to their education, and the training received will be felt, not only in this community, but everywhere. The community, of course, will be most benefited, for in after years every artery in its spiritual, social, commercial and industrial being, will be permeated with its effect, and whatever progress it may make will be largely due to the source emanating from the Levi memorial contribution.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c, and $1.00, trial bottles free from R. B. Loryea's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

A Mother's Tribute.

Died May 25, 1899, of typhoid fever after an illness of five weeks, the infant son of Mr. J. D. and Mrs. Ella C. Alsbrook, aged 2 years, 8 months and 2 days. He was healthy, manly and of brilliant intellect, yet so much of a baby's sweetness. He would recite poetry, verses of Scripture, and his baby voice would sing so clearly as to amaze his hearers. From the time he was nine months old at night he would clasp his little hands as if in prayer, and as soon as he could lisp his prayer he kneeled asking, without any prompting, God's blessing on each member of the family. He was a patient little sufferer, taking his medicine and nourishment without the slightest irritation. He begged those around him not to cry, displaying Christ-like fortitude. Those who knew him and loved him so dearly cannot forget him; though his little body lies in the cold ground, he yet speaks even while asleep in Jesus. ELLA C. ALSBROOK.

Quick Results.

Would not Suffer so Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my morning. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Dr. M. A. Simmons' liver medicine store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liverman, Bartonsville, Wash. Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by R. B. Loryea, druggist.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreary condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Chamberlain's Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c per bottle at R. B. Loryea's Drug Store.

Trapping of Fish.

Editor THE TIMES:

I notice in several issues of the News and Courier articles in reference to the destruction of fish by trapping and the use of dynamite. Now, Mr. Editor, I would like for you to bring this matter to the attention of those of this county who are violating the fish law.

I understand that there are a good many traps in the small streams in Santee, in fact all the small streams leading from the river to the lakes and it is through these streams that both large and small fish travel, hence both are caught in the traps placed in these streams. If this practice is continued it is only a question of time when hand line fishing will be a thing of the past.

The writer has been informed that one of the members of the grand jury for this county has traps in some of the lakes or streams in Santee. It is the duty of a grand jurymen to report violations of the law that come under his observation.

It may be that a good number of these fish trappers do not know that there is a law against it. I think the penalty for violation of this law is $100 fine and, may be, imprisonment, but to be sure of the law, it is to be hoped that when this matter is brought before the violators of the fish laws the practice will cease. A word to the wise is sufficient.

No news of importance in this section. Fine rains the last few days have made the farmers happy.

Editor THE TIMES:

Upon hearing through one of my friends that you would like to have a correspondent from this place, I will take great pleasure in representing our dear section in your noted columns, though as in other sections of the county, news is very scarce, but will try and write a little news, which, I hope, will prove of interest to the readers.

Our farmers have been suffering very much from the corn and wheat spell that has prevailed for the past five weeks; though to our delight we had some heavy showers last week.

The farmers are busily engaged in reaping oats and plowing corn. The corn and cotton crops are looking fine, also fruit and vegetation. The past two weeks has been a spectacle of great enjoyment in spite of the dull, dry season. Children's Day exercises were conducted at the Methodist church at this place the 21st of last month and the pastor being absent the services were led by Rev. N. J. Brown.

The program was neatly arranged and carried out in great style. The program of the evening consisted of selected songs and recitations, and each child deserves great credit for acting their part in such great taste. In spite of the gloomy weather the church was crowded with people from all over the community and the assembled spectators were very much pleased with the exercises.

Miss Mamie Brown, a charming young lady of Fulton, spent a pleasant week's visit with us last week and returned home last Saturday to the regrets of many. We hope to have Miss Mamie with us again soon. She is always welcome.

There was a reception at the residence of J. C. Griffin, given in honor of his birthday and Miss Mamie Brown. The few invited guests assembled at 8 p. m., and after refreshments the evening was passed off very pleasantly with music, recitations and general games. We extend to Mr. Griffin many congratulations of a happy birthday, and may he live to see many in future.

Mrs. J. R. Fletcher (nee Miss Katie Broughton) of Waycross, Ga., after spending a few weeks with relatives here returned home last Saturday to the regret of many friends.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give an ice cream festival at this place on Friday evening, 9th inst. Each and every one are cordially invited to attend. As it is for the benefit of the church we truly hope a large crowd will be present. Boys bring your best girl with you, you will never regret it.
