The goods are here and must be sold. We have learned from experience that it is much better to sell out Summer Goods at a sacrifice rather than carry them over until the next season.

We certainly do appreciate the liberal patronage of the people of this and adjoining counties during the spring and early summer, and now we want to show our appreciation by offering our entire stock of Summer Goods at FIRST COST, and some articles BELOW COST. As usual, some of our competitors may say we are trying to run a "bluff game" over you, but positively you can get the goods at just what they are quoted. We call special attention to our

MILLINERY PARLOR.

Never was there such values in anything as you can get in our Millinery Parlor. Now come and see for yourself.

Yours for business.
