There is a darkey who is permitted to go on rudely upon these streets, his name is Deas and his tongue is wagging and sending forth a lot of silly jabs and often profanity. The town authorities should put a stop to this nuisance or turn him over to Supervisor Owens, who can possibly get some benefit of his services. Deas is Deas and he will be a pretty sight customer that should not be allowed so much latitude on these streets.
Monthly and bearing-down pains, attendant upon irregular or suppressed menstruation, are relieved by Simmons' Squaw Vine Wine or Tablets. Sold by Dr. W. M. Brockington.

The trustees of the Moses Levi Memorial Institute require from those who do not live in this school district, the usual tuition fees, and we told that this requirement is not satisfactory to some who do not reside in this district. The taxpayers voted to pay an additional tax of four mills to give their children better school facilities, but this additional fee was only for the children of this school district. It will be readily seen, the more scholars in a school, the greater number of teachers are to be employed, and therefore more expense attaches, to be paid out of the taxes collected; now the trustees permitted to increase the tuition fees, and at the same time cut down the school term on account of the additional expense of an increase in teachers. The trustees in charging outsiders the usual tuition fees are not only protecting the taxpayers, but if they can succeed in securing an equal side patronage they may be able to cut down the tax.

Manning has now good school facilities, and judging from the work done already, we believe that the improvement will be so apparent that the trustees permitted to increase the tuition fees, and at the same time cut down the school term on account of the additional expense of an increase in teachers. The trustees in charging outsiders the usual tuition fees are not only protecting the taxpayers, but if they can succeed in securing an equal side patronage they may be able to cut down the tax.

Benjamin DuPre Hodre.
The announcement of the sudden death of little DuPre Hodre, Monday afternoon, cast a gloom over all hearts. To know him was to love him, and even those who did not know him were attracted by his bright and happy face.
Benjamin DuPre Hodre was the youngest son of B. DuPre and Martha Hodre, deceased. He would soon have passed his seventh birthday.
Since the death of his esteemed parents, DuPre has spent the greater part of the time at the home of Dr. C. J. Alfred, in this city. Here he was the idol of the home and pet of all. He was taken ill very suddenly last Wednesday night, having been apparently well all day, but not until Saturday was the sickness considered serious. Doctors Talar, Smith and Hood were in attendance at his bedside, and all that love, skill and devotion could do was done for him. But the disease, congestion of the brain, prevailed, and, Monday afternoon, the sweet spirit entered the pearly gates to join those gone before.

The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at the residence of Dr. J. G. Law and Rev. T. J. Nixon. The little body was laid to rest by the side of his parents.
The circle of DuPre's friendship was unbroken in the home and in the school, and was ever widening in the community. But while our hearts are sad and our lives lonely without the sunshine of his presence, we know that it is but the heavenly messenger sent to "bring the little one to Jesus."—Ocala (Fla.) Banner.
