Wilkins will be at the Clarendon Tobacco Warehouse, where he has at present a full stock of tobacco fertilizers and seed.

Mr. J. E. Kelly knows what's what, and when he comes to a newspaper man to tell him of his hog killing at home, he has consideration enough not to attempt to feed the editor on a wild story, but he demonstrates in a practical way that he has killed hogs, by presenting that poorly fed individual with a nice mess of delicious sausages. We know Kelly killed hogs, and feel satisfied he has put away enough meat to keep hunger at a distance for many, many moons.

"I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my health and life. It cured me of long trouble following grippe." T. J. Tison, a friend advised me to try the action of this never failing remedy. It cured coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents complications. It is the only "cough" remedy that gives immediate results. D. O. Rhame, Summerton; Dr. W. M. Brockinton, Manning.

Died last Saturday afternoon in the city of Charleston Mrs. Jane Ingram, relict of the late Dr. John J. Ingram. The body was brought to Manning Sunday and the funeral service was held in the Presbyterian church Monday. Mrs. Ingram was a woman of the highest type of character and her noble traits endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. Her loving kindness will ever be remembered in many families in this town.

Governor McSwain and Comptroller General DeBarnam, authorized given them by the law have extended the time for the collection of taxes one month. These officials thought that it would be better to make the extension now, than to wait for the legislature to take up the time at the expense of the taxpayers. There ought to be a limit sometime or other, and if it is necessary to extend the collection every year we think the law should be changed fixing the last day January 31st.

Dr. Francis H. Williams, of Charleston has accepted a position with the R. B. Loryea drug store, Isaac M. Loryea, Proprietor. Dr. Williams is a graduate of the South Carolina Medical College Pharmacy Department, and was recently at the prescription cases of that well known drug store. That Doctor Williams understands his business needs no further recommendation than the fact he has served the Barbot's more careful and exact than druggists do not exist in any city.

We take pleasure in informing our friends in Manning, Clarendon and adjoining counties that we have secured the services of Mr. Frances H. Williams, Ph. G. graduate of South Carolina Medical College Pharmacy Department. He has been connected with the firm of A. O. Barbot & Son of Charleston, S. C., where the junior member is secretary of the Pharmaceutical Association of South Carolina and a member of the State Board of Pharmacy, and comes to us with the highest testimonials from this State as to his skill, competency and carefulness in filling and compounding prescriptions. CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Williams.

A man must make his own way in the world, while a woman merely has hers. The trouble with the man who knows but little is that he always tells more.

A Remarkable Case. Notice, Miss, July 1, 1898. I want to thank you for the great benefit I have received from your wonderful remedy, Benedicta. I was induced to try a bottle, and it benefited me so much I used another and am now entirely well.

It is unfortunate for any man to rise in the world—at the end of a rope. August Flower. "It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Horton, "that in my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not irritate the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion."

Advice, like castor oil, is easy to give, but dreadful uneasy to take. CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Williams.

The man who smiles, and smiles, is liable to see snakes if he doesn't quit. The Mother's Favorite. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the best medicine made for these diseases.

One way to prevent hicough is to abstain from going out between the sets. Quick Results. Coolidge, Ky., Aug. 1, 1898. I have been suffering with female troubles and was unable to get relief. I was persuaded to try Benedicta and after one month's treatment I can recommend your remedy to suffering women.

The dog with the handsomest collar doesn't put up the strongest fight. A Woman's Letter. Coolidge, Ky., Aug. 20, 1898. New Spencer Medicine Co. Since writing you in July, I have continued to use Benedicta and am surprised at the results. Before using the remedy I suffered from womb troubles and a weak stomach, but the three bottles of Benedicta has completely cured me. It is a great medicine for delicate women. Mrs. H. R. Ginnear. Sold by R. B. Loryea.

A little fresh air is good for humanity; but a good deal is better—for a poker player. A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks. Prof. Rosa Tyler of Chicago, vice-president Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies, but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by the R. B. Loryea drug store, Isaac M. Loryea, Propr.

Heat travels faster than cold. Anybody can catch cold. CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Williams.

The man who has bet and lost can readily see how wrong it is to gamble. Beat Out of an Increase of His Pension. A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48, I contracted Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension for every renewal a doctor has prescribed for it. It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by the R. B. Loryea drug store, Isaac M. Loryea, Propr."
