> One of the most praiseworthy things that has been done by our delegation in the General Assembly at this session was to provide for the payment out of the county funds of two hundred dollars to Mrs. Kate Tobias, widow of the late Samuel T. Tobias, who was killed in the honorable discharge of his duty while trying to capture a desperate criminal. It is intended to go as a year's salary. Samuel T. Tobias was a true hearted and brave man, and it is only a pity that more could not be done for his family. He was willing to risk his life in the discharge of his duty, and did not quit at what was absolutely required of him by his office, but when he was killed it was after he had sat up all night and watched and waited in the dead hours of the night down beside the swamp when other people were asleep. He was a man who discharged his duty from a conscientious sense, and all Clarendon should not stop until some day his foul murder is avenged.
