It is with pleasure that we note an effort being made to give Manning a military company. There is a list going the rounds now, and it is being well signed. As we understand it, the law requires sixty members before a company is received into the State Militia, and we see no reason why Manning cannot have a first class company.

We propose to be absolutely fair and treat all county candidates alike.

Spain's Greatest Need.

Mr. R. P. Oliva of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in his back and limbs, and he was unable to do his work. He used Electric Bitters, America's greatest blood and nerve remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, and restores the strength of the nerves, puts vim and vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body, and makes one feel like a new man. About 4 o'clock last Saturday morning the barn and stables of Mrs. S. F. Spott near Jordan was discovered on fire, and too late to save anything at all. When the fire was discovered the buildings were so far consumed within that they were ready to collapse, and the horses and mules were already dead. There was no insurance on this property and the loss is severe, about $2500. There were destroyed four head of mules, four head of horses, a large quantity of grain and forage, 20 tons of fertilizer, a reaper and mower and other things. The origin of the fire is unknown, and it is suspected that it might be the work of an incendiary. From the fact that the fire had the appearance of having started from the rear. If it was an incendiary fire, we hope steps will be taken at once to discover the fiend, who would thus go, under the cover of night and destroy the property of a widow.

Caught a Dreadful Cold.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson a large importer of fine millinery at 108 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me away from work and made me unable to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at the time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to feel better at once, and I am now feeling well and very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by The R. B. Loryea drug store, Isaac M. Loryea, Prop.

The store of the McLeod-Wilkins-King Company is being put in an up-to-date condition, and if there is any virtue in hustling, this concern proposes to make things hum. They have the capital by which to do business and they have the experience as buyers, very essential features to do a competitive business. In this progressive day, in order to make money large quantities must be sold, and to sell in large quantities it takes a large capital. McLeod-Wilkins-King Co. can command a large amount of cash which give them a decided advantage over the small dealer. We expect the people to be greatly benefited by this competition, both in price and quality.

Quick Results.

Alcolu was thrown into a fever of excitement last Friday, by the shooting of a negro. The circumstances are, that on last Friday, Mr. J. R. Rose had charge of Alderman's train, and a negro by the name of Walter Lowrey gave Mr. Rose some impudence. Rose ordered him off the train at DuRant's crossing, but Lowrey refused to go. There was a lady on the engine, and the negro became very offensive in his language. When they reached Alcolu Lowrey attempted to shoot Mr. Rose, and did fire at him. Rose drew a pistol and shot the negro, the ball taking effect in the neck. The negro's about the mill quit work, and threatened to kill Rose, and at one time things looked squally. Mr. Rose came on over to Manning to be on hand in case the negro died, that he might surrender to the sheriff. Lowrey was not as seriously hurt as was at first supposed, and it is thought he will get well.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who suffer from Rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Dr. N. N. Sinks says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parson & Co., of Springfield, Mass., to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by The R. B. Loryea drug store, Isaac M. Loryea, Prop.

A Sad Death.

One of the saddest events we have ever been called upon to chronicle, occurred at Clinton S. C. last Saturday, and it only goes to show how uncertain life is. On the 20th day of March this year, a bright and happy young man from the town of Clinton came to Alcolu to claim the hand of his intended bride, and the next day at the residence of Mr. J. J. Nettles, Rev. James McDowell performed the marriage service for Job T. Booser and Miss Alice Cole. The bride was a graduate of the Thorneval Orphanage, and after the couple were made man and wife they left for Clinton to fight life's battle together.

Letters to friends came back conveying the happiness of the orphan-bridal in her new home, with her husband-protector, when all at once, the hand of affliction was laid heavily upon the groom, pneumonia caught him in its grasp, and before the honeymoon was over, death came and robbed the young bride of her joy. This is indeed a sad case; here was a girl left an orphan when young, and after being reared by the hand of benevolence, and reaching woman-hood, she marries and is so suddenly brought under the chastening rod.

Second Attempt at Suicide.

Sumter, April 13.—Miss Mattie Bryant, of Clarendon county, who attempted to commit suicide at Manning a few months ago, came to this city on Wednesday and that night again made an unsuccessful effort to kill herself.

On the first occasion she drank two ounces of laudanum, but she was saved by prompt medical attention. This time she took five grains of morphine and that she is alive is due to the fact that she took an overdose, which nauseated her and caused vomiting. She was quite sick at the Jersey House, where she was staying all of Wednesday night and yesterday, but today is said to be out of danger.

As soon as it became known that she was ill a doctor was called, and since then she has been constantly watched to prevent a repetition of the attempt at self-destruction. She is only 18 or 20 years old.

A Remarkable Case.
