

GRACE OF PATIENCE

Dr. Talmage Speaks on One of the Chief

CHRISTIAN VIRTUES

The Need of Its Exercise in the Affairs of Daily Life.

Final Reward Of Patience.

This discourse of Dr. Talmage is a full length portrait of a virtue which all admire, and the lessons taught are every helpful, text, Hebrews 12, 'Ye have need of patience.'

Yes, we are in awful need of it. Some of us have a little of it, and some of us have none at all. There is less of this grace in the world than of almost any other. Faith, hope and charity are all abundant, but patience is scarce.

Those of us who have a little of it, we are in awful need of it. Some of us have a little of it, and some of us have none at all. There is less of this grace in the world than of almost any other.

Perhaps he is given to defamation and destruction, and yet feels himself better than some one who is guilty of manslaughter, not realizing that the assassination of character is the worst of assassinations.

A LAND OF PROMISE

Golden Opportunities Which South Carolina Offers to settlers.

Ten years after South Carolina became a State its population numbered less than 400,000. One tenth of this population lived in cities and towns.

LOVE BORN IN ANTARCTIC SEA.

Fell in Love With Pictures of Women They Married.

Enveloped by the cold and solitude of an Antarctic night and with no woman within hundreds of ice-capped miles, Prof. Henry K. Arrowsmith, geologist and meteorologist of the recent Belgian Antarctic expedition, fell in love with the woman whom he had just persuaded to give up her operative career and become his wife.

LARGE STOCK RANGES.

At Bryd's Station, 41 miles from Charleston, is another fine body of land adapted to fruit and grazing.

NEWS ITEMS

From Every Nook and Corner of the Globe.

KILLED BY LIVE WIRES.

TWO PERSONS WERE KILLED IN U.S.A.

NEWS ITEMS

From Every Nook and Corner of the Globe.

KILLED BY LIVE WIRES.

TWO PERSONS WERE KILLED IN U.S.A.

NEWS ITEMS

From Every Nook and Corner of the Globe.

KILLED BY LIVE WIRES.

of the most attractive in the State; noticeable for its handsome residences, its wide streets, its parks and its shops.

Hard to Down a Philosopher.

A playful gust of wind came along and picked off his hat. It was of the straw brand, vintage of 1900, already out of date, although still quite presentable in appearance.

The Best-Loved Woman.

The world loves a true and noble woman more than the greatest beauty that ever lived or the most brilliant intellect.

Jamaica's Clef Mountain.

In Jamaica there is a mountain, between Kingston and St. Thomas in the east, on the south side of the island, which bears the name of Judgment mountain, or Mount Sinal, because of the awful catastrophe which occurred there in 1692.

Voracious Birds and Fishes.

Birds are big eaters. The much-admired robin can give points to most of his kind. He can easily manage two-thirds of his weight in earthworms in a day.

Padding for Footmen's Calves.

One of the greatest essentials with regard to the recommendation of a London footman is not only his height, but the size and form of his legs.

His Profession.

Employer—I thought you told me that you were the best scholar in your class at college. You don't seem to show it.

His Profession.

Employer—I thought you told me that you were the best scholar in your class at college. You don't seem to show it.

To Learn to Carve.

Every head of a family should attend a medical college long enough to gain a knowledge that will aid him in carving a chicken.

State Pensions.

The State board of pensions held a long session Wednesday and it was one of considerable importance. The board went over the whole pension situation very carefully and adopted a new set of rules governing the filing and passing upon applications for pensions.

One of the delights of travel in China is the innocent ignorance of the people. They think themselves the most sophisticated and heaven-lightened people on this earth, and so make their naive childlike questions so engaging.

Sugar Little Used in France.

One reason why the French people consume so little sugar is because the very way of living requires less of it. For the great mass of the French people breakfast consists of a bowl of soup, which is also frequently a part of the other two meals.

Lord Roberts' Warm Friend.

"It is not generally known," says M. A. F., "that Lord Roberts has with him in South Africa a warm personal friend who faced death with him in India more than 40 years ago."

He Inquired.

"Isn't it a nuisance to button one's gloves?" remarked the fair young girl, whose engagement had recently been announced.

He Inquired.

"Isn't it a nuisance to button one's gloves?" remarked the fair young girl, whose engagement had recently been announced.

A New Will.

"Hello, Jasper," exclaimed Spender, stopping his rich uncle's valet, "how's uncle this morning?"

His Profession.

Employer—I thought you told me that you were the best scholar in your class at college. You don't seem to show it.

To Learn to Carve.

Every head of a family should attend a medical college long enough to gain a knowledge that will aid him in carving a chicken.

State Pensions.

The State board of pensions held a long session Wednesday and it was one of considerable importance. The board went over the whole pension situation very carefully and adopted a new set of rules governing the filing and passing upon applications for pensions.

An Odd Tombstone.

With all its remarkable monuments in stone and tributes in bronze, Arlington contains nothing more striking than the memorial that has just been erected over the bones of the battleship Maine's men.

Sugar Little Used in France.

One reason why the French people consume so little sugar is because the very way of living requires less of it. For the great mass of the French people breakfast consists of a bowl of soup, which is also frequently a part of the other two meals.

Lord Roberts' Warm Friend.

"It is not generally known," says M. A. F., "that Lord Roberts has with him in South Africa a warm personal friend who faced death with him in India more than 40 years ago."

He Inquired.

"Isn't it a nuisance to button one's gloves?" remarked the fair young girl, whose engagement had recently been announced.

A New Will.

"Hello, Jasper," exclaimed Spender, stopping his rich uncle's valet, "how's uncle this morning?"

His Profession.

Employer—I thought you told me that you were the best scholar in your class at college. You don't seem to show it.

To Learn to Carve.

Every head of a family should attend a medical college long enough to gain a knowledge that will aid him in carving a chicken.

State Pensions.

The State board of pensions held a long session Wednesday and it was one of considerable importance. The board went over the whole pension situation very carefully and adopted a new set of rules governing the filing and passing upon applications for pensions.

Think of it boys and girls, Christmas is less than two weeks off.