Both for $1.50. 200

We have arranged to give our readers additional reading matter in the shape of a first class Agricultural Journal, a paper with a world renowned reputation as a farm helper and a family companion. Prominent among the many departments may be men-

Farm and Garden, Market Reports, Fruit Culture, Plans and Inventions, Live Stock and Dairy, Talks with a Lawyer, Fashions and Fancy Work, The Poultry Yard, Plants and Flowers, Household Features, The Treatment of Horses and Cattle, and Subjects of a Literary and Religious character.

The Farm and Home is published semi-monthly, thus giving you 24 numbers a year, making a volume of over 500 pages. No better proof of its popularity can be offered than its immense circula-special arrangement we are enabled to send THE FARM AND HOME to all of our subscribers who pay up their arrearage, and to all new subscribers who pay one year in advance, without any additional charge.

Every new yearly subscriber will be entitled to THE FARM AND HOME and THE MANNING TIMES for $1.50; also every old subscriber who pays up his arrears. This is a grand offer and we hope the people will appreciate it.

100 00 crisp, brown mouthful, of a delicate 25 00 nutty flavor. It is a fallacy to suppose that pork forms a constant article of diet in China. As a matter of fact, it is too expensive and is only eaten on high days and holidays or at restaurants. Neither do milk, beef or game enter much into Chinese cookery, the first two being tabooed on religious grounds. Dog flesh is eaten in the south but rarely and only by the poorest of the poor .- Blackwood.

A Curious Receipt. Hanover's registrar discovered a very curious document some time ago as he was looking through a bundle of papers that date back to the eighteenth century. The document is a receiptprobably the only one of its kind in existence-which was given to a Hanoverian captain by a canon of Duisburg during the Seven Years' war.

"I, the undersigned," it reads, "hereby acknowledge that I have received 50 blows of a stick, which were inflicted upon me by a lieutenant of Captain B.'s regiment as a punishment for the stupid and frivolous calumnies which I have uttered in regard to the regiment of chasseurs. For my imprudent words I now admit that I am profoundly sorry. I received my punishment lying on a heap of straw and held by two men, and I bear testimony to the fact that the officer struck me as vigorously as he could with a stick that was as thick as my finger.

"In proper form and with due gratitude I sign this receipt and avow that all therein is true."

Not the Greatest. Smith-I suppose Dobber regards himself the greatest artist that ever handled brush.

Jones-You do Dobber an injustice He never presumed to regard himself 47 70 in any such light. Why, I have heard him say very modestly that he was a second Raphael. Isn't that admitting that Raphael was a greater painter than himself?-Boston Transcript.

> Would Like Some. "What do you find in that stupid old paper to keep you "o busy?" petulantly asked Mrs. Youngcouple. "I was just looking at the money market," he answered.

"Oh, do they have a money market? Are there ever any bargains?"-Indianapolis Press.

Took Mutton. He was a station hand in from a three months' spell of work, during which he had tasted no other meat than mutton; also he stuttered badly. His eyes fairly leaped at the stuffed turkey on the hotel dinner table, though the boiled mutton made him shiver.

Said the host, "What will you try Mr. Straps?"

Eagerly, "I'll t-try a b-bit of t-t-t"-The word floored him. Again, "G-give m-me a li-little t-t-t"- Then, red faced and disgusted: "Oh, h-hang it! Give I am prepared to negotiate loans me some b-blooming mutton! I h-hate on good real estate security, on rea-sonable terms. it, but I can s-s-s-say it, anyhow."—
