Commissioners to Grand Jury.

In looking up the work of the recent court we find among the papers filed by the grand jury a paper addressed to that body from the County Commissioners relating to the county printing. It reads as follows:

To the Foreman and Members of the Grand Jury: Gentleman:-We, the Board of County Commissioners, desire to make a statement to your honorable body.

Doubtless during the past two months

you have read in one of the county pa pers, namely, The Farmer, articles and statements which were intended to cast aspersions upon our private characters Communications must be accompanied by the repute. You have doubtless read where County Commissioners into public dispose of misappropriating public funds. and of extravagance in office, especially in the matter of awarding the public printing.
