REORGANIZATION IS THE ONLY REMEDY.

We are asked to say, "if the Democratic party as now organized is a failure, what can be done to bring the party back into good standing and confidence with the people?"

The Florence Times must be hard pushed for material when it cold-bloodedly endeavors to make it appear that we defended the appointment of George W. Murray for the office of Deputy Collector.

We reiterate our disapproval of appointing any colored man to office, but from what we gather from the Collector's statement, the appointment of Murray was not of his choosing.

The opponents of Senator McLaurin would be doing the people a greater service, if they would drop their tactics of misrepresentation, and show by argument where he is wrong in the governmental policies he is advocating.

The Greenville Mountaineer is laboring under the impression that Ed Deas who was supplanted by G. W. Murray as deputy revenue collector, is "a decent young white man."

present day statesmen, are holding down fast positions, and to keep holding them down they resort to all kinds of obstructive methods, and to the infaming of sectional prejudices.

Senator Tillman is posing before Western audiences, delivering lectures as the hired man of a lecture bureau.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Try them when you feel dull after eating. When you have no appetite. When you have a bad taste in the mouth.

BE ASHAMED OF YOURSELF, SIR. The Florence Times must be hard pushed for material when it cold-bloodedly endeavors to make it appear that we defended the appointment of George W. Murray for the office of Deputy Collector.

It is Easy to Say. "Be careful," but we must all go from heated houses into chill outer air, and the change sets us coughing and wheezing.

hearing are simply the men who are the most favorably inclined toward his suggestion. If the papers of the State furnish any indication of general sentiment, he has very little to delight him in the line of his suggestion.

The proposition, coming from Col. Jones and at the time it did, carries less force with it than if it had been made by some one who had never been mentioned in connection with the senatorship.
