Columbia, S. C., Jan. 26, 1902. Another week has passed and turned into the county treasury, that it can be collected. If the any one year, Coroner $125. and just how much was paid out, substitute bill goes through, it this information we must have makes the license not less than in order for us to be able to in- two hundred dollars, and notelligently fix the levy. The delay in sending the estimates to the delegation is no fault of the commissioners, it is the fault of those holding claims and not presenting them. I notice a letter in THE TIMES of last week from W. T. Kelly from Foreston in which he seems to think that the reference to the magistrate's office at Foreston was a reflection upon the manner in which the constable discharged his duties. He is mistaken. The constable cannot serve warrants unless they are given to him to serve, and I know from personal observation that Mr. Kelly is one of the best constables in the county. There was no reflection on Mr. Kelly nor Mr. Richbourg the magistrate; the point was, whether or not a magistrate's office pays at Foreston. If there is not enough business there, ought it be removed on that account? I am another magistrate a good cause for complaint would be stopped and those wanting warrants would go to their nearest magistrate, thus giving the constables their share of the work, and relieve the sheriff from doing work that constables are being paid for. No magistrate or constable can make work, and they are not to blame if the work is not brought to them. It would be brought to them however, if the Manning Magistrate would use warrants for those living within the scope contemplated when the Act was passed requiring the sheriff to act as constable for the
