THREE QUEER DISEASES.

Two of Them Abide In the Kongo

Region and One In Peru.

There are two remarkable diseases, either or both of which may attack you if you elect to reside within the Congo basin, but you need have no dread of them if you live in any other part of the world. One is the sleeping sickness, a terrible, mysterious and invariably fatal malady. The patient is at first only drowsy, but ends by sleeping almost continually, waking only for meals or when forcibly roused. Finally the torpor becomes complete. He cannot be roused even to take food, and dies of starvation.

The other disease alluded to is even more curious, although fortunately not nearly so deadly, and is known to specialists in tropical diseases as ainhum, from a negro word meaning a saw, a very amosite name, for the typical Region and One In Peru.

very apposite name, for the typical slow amputation of one or more of the victim's toes by means of a serrated bony ligature which grows around the joint of the affected member just where it joins the foot. As soon as the ligature is completely formed it begins to contract, and off comes the toe as effectually, if not quite so quickly, as if it had been severed by the surgeon's knife.

In the province of Cerro de Pasco, in Peru, may be contracted a strange malady which consigns its victim to feature of the ailment consists in the

She showed me everything except the man she is going to marry. I suppose she forgot about him.-London Answers.

Lake Colors. Some lakes are distinctly blue, others present various shades of green, so that in some cases they are distinguishable from their level, grass covered banks, and a few are almost black. The Lake of Geneva is azure hued, the Lake of Constance and the Lake of Lucerne are green, and the color of the Mediterranean has been called indigo. The Lake of Brienz is greenish yellow, and its neighbor, Lake Thun, is blue.-London Spectator.

A LAND WHERE DOMESTIC SERVICE IS CONSIDERED AN HONOR.

The "Boys" That Wait on Table In Hotels and How They Work. Household Servants That Are Equal In Birth to Their Masters.

They have some curious notions about servants in Japan. Instead of its being considered a disgrace to go of all the sights of the woods-deer houses men were accustomed to resort into domestic service in that country it is an henor, writes Mr. Douglas Sla-Jinrikisha boys and grooms may not lowest thing of all in Japan short of being an eta, or member of the class of outcasts. Grooms are excluded as Japanese think it impossible for a groom to be bonest) and the rickshaw boys as rough people without any man-

There are two classes of servants personal and kitchen. Kitchen servants need have no knowledge of etiquette. They are sometimes rough creatures from the country, no better than rickshaw boys. They are dull, contented drudges, but Cook San (Mr. Cook) is held in a very different estimation. In a small household he does the catering and keeps the accounts as well as superintends the ridiculous little bird's nest of charcoal ash which cooks the meals in Japan.

them even said that he could take in a felt hat which I gave him so large for him that his ears did not stop it. The Japanese like their hats to rest upon their ears. They can mend your clothes or put a button on and are handier than sailors. They expect you to show them all your purchases and always tell you how much more or how much less you ought to have paid.

In the transient life of a hotel you see the farcical side of Japanese servants. The pristine and sentimental side you only get in a private family, where the servants, like the pages of the middle ages, may be equal in birth to their masters, but willing to do service in his household because he is a famous poet or noble or man of science, so as to gather the crumbs of education which fall from his table.-Exchange.

Care of Puppies.

Puppies after weaning will keep strong and healthy and will grow fast if fed only on fresh buttermilk and corn bread, with soup instead of the buttermilk twice a week, till they are five or six months old. Do not feed them sweet milk. Keep the pupples where they can get plenty of exercise. Do not crowd them. Arrange their kennels so that they can go in and out of their sleeping quarters. If fed in the same vessels, some dogs get more than their share of food and lose their manners also. Fasten a number of chains where they eat at such distances that no one can reach the other: then feed in individual pans. Give little medicine and plenty of exercise, and you will then have strong, healthy dogs. An hour's run every day in the year in the fields and woods, weather permitting, is essential to good health.

Get a True Focus.

A habit of looking at things from a distorted angle, of focusing the vision on things that depress and suggest unhappiness and misery, is a destroyer of happiness and success. A man who goes about with a funereal face, thinking "hard times," fearing "dull seasons," disaster, panic and failure wherever his interests center, is never a happy man, rarely a successful one. Pessimism is a destructive force in men's lives, just as optimism is a constructive agency.-Success.

The Millennium. Little Dot-I know something my teacher doesn't know.

Mamma-Indeed! What is that? "I know when the world is coming to an end and she doesn't. I asked her and she said she didn't know."

"Oh, well, who told you?" "Uncle John. He said the world would come to an end when children stopped asking questions that nobody could answer."

The Ant's Toilet.

A naturalist has been making observations on the toilets of certain ants, and has discovered that each insect goes through most elaborate ablutions. They are not only performed by herself, but by another, who acts for the time as lady's maid. The assistant starts by washing the face of her companion, and then goes over the whole body. The attitude of the ant that is being washed is one of intense satisfaction. She lies down with all her limbs stretched loosely out; she rolls over on her side, even her back, a perfect picture of ease. The pleasure the little insect evinces in being .thus combed and sponged is really enjoyable to the observer. - Philadelphia

Took the Order Literally. A suburban golf club has a Japanese steward named Ocka. He is an excellent cook and his neatness and good taste are beyond question, but he has a very slight knowledge of English, and this sometimes causes him to make ludicrous mistakes. A young woman gave a tea at the clubhouse and sent for Ocka a few days ahead of time, so that all the details of her party might be perfected. She arranged for everything and at the end said: "Now Ocka, at the tea we must have apple pie order." "Yes, madam, apple pie," Ocka returned. "No, apple pie order," said the young girl. "All right. Me understand. Apple pie," Ocka repeated with an obstinate smile. "Apple pie order," the other corrected T. M. EMERSON, Traffic Manager again, and Ocka took his leave.
