The constitutional inhibition against special legislation is like a two edged sword, cuts both ways, and we believe it will be better to strike it out, so that counties and towns can have legislation which suit their conditions and environment.

The Charleston Chamber of Commerce is urging the cultivation of sweet potatoes for the manufacture of starch. Several years ago such a movement was on foot in this county but had to be given up because the people could not afford to raise potatoes at 20 cents per bushel.

The mayorality contest in Charleston promises to be exciting, and we judge that the Hughes element will give the Rhett-Smythe element a race for their money, and it would not surprise us to see Congressman Legare taking a considerable interest. He is a declared Hughes man, which means a great deal in Charleston.

Capt. W. E. Gonzales is now editor in chief of the State, and we are satisfied he will conduct the editorial department of that great paper in an able manner. He is a fluent writer and a close observer, and his long experience in newspaper work, under his gifted brother especially fits him to carry out the principles which has made the State famous.

It is now being said that Col. William Jennings Bryan has aspirations for the chairmanship of the Democratic National committee. Perhaps after all, he could direct a campaign more successfully than he can lead one. With Bryan as chairman, the committee may be able to read Grover Cleveland out of the party and curb the independent tendencies of Senator Bailey of Texas.

Should the movement to secure the necessary funds for an exhibit at St. Louis be successful. Governor Heyward and the Columbia State will deserve much of the credit as they have labored faithfully for this commendable and wise object. The press of the State generally is giving the movement its aid, because it sees great advantage in it for the material interests of the State.

The State constabulary is making it lively for the lawless liquor dealers in Charleston, at least some of them, but the whiskey is sold all the same. Governor Heyward's strenuous efforts to force respect for the dispensary law Charleston has the approval of the people throughout the State, but it is doubtful if he will succeed, regardless of the fair promises made to him by the local authorities. In our opinion, the United States army cannot stop the sale of whiskey in a city where its population do not want it stopped.

The Act requiring the State Treasurer to "write off" the books certain bonds is to be considered by the supreme court. The Act was passed by a former legislature, and Governor McSweeney vetoed it, because he regarded the action of the legislature as repudiating an honest debt, but the present general assembly passed the act over the veto, and now the matter will come before the court on constitutional grounds, and the question whether the constitutional requiremeat of a two-thirds majority means two-thirds of a quorum present or two-thirds of the entire membership.

The editorial in the Charleston Post of last Monday "Let's us keep our heads," is thoroughly sound and sensible; the News and Courier's suggestion to take the Crum matter to the courts is captious and foolish, and calculated to undo the sympathy that has been gained for the people of Charleston for having an offensive appointment thrust upon them. We think the News and Courier would perform a greater service if it will ascertain who those "prominent Charlestonians" are that recommended Crum for federal appointment when no vacancy existed in Charleston, but when several did exist, up in the State; also who are the white applicants for positions under Crum? It might be a popular move on the News and Courier's part if it would have issued a writ DU CES TECUM and make Crum come into court with his batch of applications, and the president with his file of recommendations, or send a commission to the president to take his testimony DE BENE ESE, or any old thing to give the people the desired information.

Pinewood Picknps.

Special to The Manning Times.

We can now boast of the only town in the county that has a K. of P. lodge. The lodge was organized in Sumter last Wednesday night. The members were given a royal time by the Sumter K. of P's. We organized with 14 chartered members and it took over a half dozen goats for the occasion as there were some heavy boys in the crowd. The following went in as charter members:

W. D. Epperson, D. R. Lide, W. C. Howle, P. C. Matthews, C. M. Huggins, N. L. Broughton, P. H. Broughton, R. A. Lawrence, O. D. Harvin, R. L. Harvin, B. P. Broadway, N. C. Stack, E. F. Anderson and the Duke of Frog Island, W. P. Mooneyham. The following had their names down to join but could not get off to go up to Sumter, Dr. M. D. Murray, S. G. Griffin J. E. Broughton and A. G. Stack. The members are taking some steps to build a Castle ball as soon as all arrangements can be completed. The following officers were elected and installed: P. C., W. P. Mooneyham, C. C., D. R. Lide, V. C., N. L. Broughton, P., B. P. Broadway, M. of W., O. D. Harvin, M. of E. P. H. Broughton, K. R. and S N. C. Stack., I. G. R. L. Harvin, M. at A., W. D. Epperson.

The lodge closed at 4:15, and there was seen some fine foot racing to catch the 4:28 train.

Mr. P. J. Watkins of Greensboro, N. C., spent three days here last week, writing up insurance among the members of the K. of P., which has been just organized.

Dr. G. W. B. Smith is visiting in the upper part of the State on professional business.

Mr. W. P. Mooneyham, "The Belle and Duke of Frog Island," made an excellent address to the members of the lodge last Wednesday night.

Mr. M. Clayton Orvin an old A. C. L. agent was married in Savannah, Ga. Saturday the 21, to a Miss Rogers.

Mr. Bunch, a relief agent spent the first of the week here visiting friends.

Old Milford is fast becoming a pleasure spot. There is a crowd of visitors nearly every day from all parts of the State.

Pinewood has had the pleasure of welcoming two millionaires and a gentleman who is rated a half a million in the last three weeks. They came down from New York prospecting.

Mr. J. H. Reville is at home for a few days.

The heavy rains in the up country has caused Santee to rise above the line at Rimini. The railroad company have a crew on guard day and night, for you can stand on the trestle and dip water up. The trestle is twenty five feet high. A good many tetegraph poles have been washed down. The company only a short while ago filled in over a quarter of a mile of the north end of the trestle but all for no good for the sand and clay they filled in with, the Atlantic ocean has by now.

Pinewood citizens are on time for they have a "Flinch paaty."

Quite a crowd gathered at the depot last Friday afternoon to see the fastest train pass that ever ran over this road, running time 90 miles an hour, consisting of engine, four pullman horse cars and one coach. The train had on board the race horses of William C. Whitney carrying them back to Paterson, N. J., from Aiken. When the train reached Denmark they had orders for the "Whitney flyer" to proceed over the S. A. L., to Richmond, The crowd here was not altogether disappointed for about dark the engine that was going to make the run passed through on its way back to Florence, running about 15 miles an hour.

Mr. N. C. Stack is holding down the tower house this week at Denmark.

It is being talked a great deal that a new school house should be built this summer, which certainly is very much needed here. If they build it two stories high, the new K. of P. lodge will rent the upper story. It would be a good idea for the school trustees to look into this matter at once, for the lodge stands in need of a place to hold its meetings and are making arrangements to build a hall but if the school is going why not erect a two story building and let the K. of P's. rent it? The rent from the lodge would over pay the interest on the money that will have to be borrowed to build the school house. Mr. D. R. Lide C. C. will be glad to talk with any of the school trustees regarding this. Let us hear from the school at once.

Miss Olga Reynolds who has been visiting Miss Sue Lide has returned to her home near Paxville.

The readers of this paper will be pleased t learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

To the Churches of the Black River Union.

Sunday was such a bad day! Too bad for a meeting, so our Union went to pieces, like a mighty cohort the elements dashed into our well martialed plans for Sunday's service and scattered them. No doubt we enjoyed the comforts of home circle around the fireside and were compensated. But how about the collection for the old preachers? It was a good time to think of the poor and of how we may bless them by sending cheer into their homes. Let us—all the churches—take a quick collection and send it to Dr. C. C. Brown and thus get compensation all round for Sunday.

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

"Look Not Upon the Wine When it Is Red."

Editor The Manning Times:

The last issue of THE TIMES contained a startling statement of parties at Davis' X Roads running circular blind tigers by inflating bicycle tires with whiskey, etc. Consequently the officers here have raided the establishment of one of the merchants at that place and found signs of compressed apples such as are used in distilling apple brandy, and it appears from his statement that his neighbor merchant sold him the apples and borrowed his spiritual bicycle, but in trying to get homh with it he found it acting very queerly; consequently this bicycle is now undergoing repairs. It also appears that the owner claims to have only used "Adam's ale" to fill his tires, but this brother merchant who borrowed the wheel used in it hot stuff, as he keeps X cocoanuts in stock which melted the shellac and caused it to act queerly with his competitor, as it is shown by abundant signs in the road which he traveled home. The bicycle was found leaning on his well curb with his socks on the handle bars, and his hat on the seat of the bicycle and nearby was found several one X cocoanuts and one gill measure, a small patch of white hair all wrapped up in a fish net marked "M. D. & J. M., Santee," and early the next morning as our friend was crawling out of the barn loft where he had been fishing that night, his plowman inquired: "Say, boss, what tear off your britches legs to the knees dat er way?" Our friend said he was Chicco's son in knee britches, at the same time holding up a bundle of fodder counting the blades to his plowman for shad. The plowman jumped the fence and peeped through the cracks while our friend in knee britches, still holding to his bunch of shad, hatless and sockless, tapped lightly on the kitchen door, and as the preliminary has not been held we can only give you the outlines until later.

A Sweet Breath

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dysppetic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. The R. B. Loryea Drug Store.

A Yelp From St. Paul.

Editor The Manning Times:

I read what you had to say about the fellow down this way, running a booze ladened bicycle, I have some reason to believe you are hitting at me, and my reason for so believing is that I was in Manning not long ago, and as I was coming out of the dispensary with several bottles of whiskey I noticed you watching me, and I said to the nigger that was with me "he thinks we are selling this stuff and will make the governor send Jeff Alsbrook or Charlie Jenkinson down here to capture it." That liquor was not for me, except one bottle what I bought for sickness in my family, the rest of it was for neighbors, who hearing that I was going to town asked me to buy it for them because they have sickness in their families, and we cannot buy it at Summerton our nearest town. I don't sell whiskey, and drink very little. I own a bicycle and do a great deal of riding about, and you can ask Joe King, Jeff Davis, Frank Richbourg, Selwyn Dingle, Beauregard Harvin or any of the other people down here, if they have ever bought liquor from me. You needn't call on Millard Wells to investigate, he wouldn't tell if he knew, because he rides a bicycle himself and tells people his tires were filled with water, may be so—but all the information you get out of him won't be much. No, Mr. Editor, you are barking up the wrong tree, not that liquor is not being sold in these parts, I believe some niggers are selling it, and I suspect may be some few whites, but it ain't me. C. Road Inquiries No. 5.

Editor The Manning Times:

Today or tomorrow or next day would be a good time for all road authorities to go over the roads and see where the low places are and mark them, to be worked. When dry weather comes, the time the roads are worked, all the water is dried up and the hands see no need of digging ditches and elevating the road.

Any time will be a good time for the supervisor to visit Paxville, and go over all the roads in this section—any time soon. That is if he has a good eye for road inspection, and any intention of doing work here.

Due Notice is Served.

Due notice is served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, unadulterated witch hazel. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. The Colt and Its Rider.

Once upon a time a man tried to ride on the back of a young colt, which objected very much to his doing so, and there was quite a struggle between the two, with plunging by the colt and clinging by the man.

Finally the colt threw the man over his head, depositing him on the ground without injury. But the man, determined not to be defeated, pursued the colt and, capturing him, proceeded to again mount, with some difficulty.

There was another struggle, which ended as before—with the man prostrate on the ground—but this time he received severe injuries.
