

THE HOME CIRCLE.

Some Helpful Thoughts for the Young Folks

CULLED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

All the Young People Who Read This Paper Are Particularly Invited to Read This Column.

In life—no death—Hearts need food words to help them on their way.

THE OLD CORN SONG.

Oh, what has become of the old corn song That used to float along...

Oh, when shall the corn song come again Over hill and plain?

MADE HIM A CHILD AGAIN.

Daniel Webster looking back to an incident in his fifteenth year...

A WORD TO THE GIRLS.

Nothing adds so much to the attractiveness of any one as a deferential manner toward older people...

RETURN TO THE FARM.

The Augusta Chronicle says it would be a good thing if many young men who left the farms in hard times...

"Young men, I would rather have forty acres of land and a log cabin on it, and a woman I love in the cabin...

THE FASHIONING OF EVE.

According to a Hindoo legend this is the proper origin of woman: Tvasutri, the god Vulcan of the Hindoo mythology, created the world...

In the recent meeting of the Georgia State Baptist Convention Ex-Governor Northern, who was president of the body...

COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS.

Thanksgiving Day invariably brings about a season of reflection and reflection which is wholesome and

THE SOLID SOUTH

Will Never be Broken as Long as the Fifteenth

AMENDMENT STANDS AS A LAW.

So Says Senator Tillman in an Interview with a Correspondent of the Augusta Chronicle in Columbia.

When I met him here by appointment as he was passing through Columbia on his way to Trenton...

DEFERENCE TO THE AGED.

Why is it that so many girls and young women of the present are not polite to older people?

For some unaccountable reason, this has all been forgotten of late years ago, one of the distinctive traits of our race...

THE DANGER OF DISCOURTESY.

I think that it was Rev. Stopford A. Broome who once uttered these wise and true words: "The power of being able to keep a household from fretting and complaining and from violent tempers, the power of being able to encourage, nourish and stimulate the freedom and growth of others, is gained from there having been built up in the minds of all in the house, as the first motive of life, the great Christian law—Christianity as entirely human—"

THE NORTH IS GRADUALLY GETTING EDUCATED ON THE NEGRO QUESTION.

In this connection Senator Tillman told of his experience in campaigning in the West, and mentioned a number of Illinois and Indiana towns which will not allow the negro to live in them.

Dr. George W. Currier, president of the Ashmun, N. Trust Company, and his wife, who was Annie Welch of Boston, alleging extreme cruelty. Neither will talk about the specifications but it is understood that the chief allegation against her is garrulity.

Nomination of Crum.

The president has again sent to the senate the nomination of Crum as collector of the port of Charleston the outlook is that this nomination will be confirmed. It was to be expected that the president would do what he has because to be consistent with his position as to political equality of citizens regardless of color he could not do otherwise.

A Misunderstanding.

A Missouri paper winding up a compliment to a young schoolma'am with a good word about "the reputation for teaching she bears."

IN GENERAL.

There are at present 155 children at the orphanage, the capacity being

A GREAT CHARITY.

The Connie Maxwell Orphanage and What it Has Done

DURING THE PAST FISCAL YEAR.

An Article that Will Interest All Who Are Interested in the Work of Caring for the Orphans.

Perhaps the institution which is dearest to South Carolina Baptists is the Connie Maxwell Orphanage, located at Greenwood.

ANOTHER SCHEME GOTTEN UP TO DE-FRAUD THE COLORED PEOPLE.

It is evident from letters received by several negroes in this country and other places that another effort is being made by some sharper in the North to swindle them out of some money in the hope of securing a pension.

MAKING A NEWSPAPER.

Out his newspaper out of the life of the average man and you will create a gap for which the combined conveniences and luxuries of modern civilization will hardly compensate.

FINANCIAL.

The Convention at Sumter a year ago resolved to raise $15,000 for the Orphanage during the present year.

LIVED CHEAP DIED RICH.

There is $159,000 in special public bequests in the will of Charles E. French, a retired drug merchant, whose death occurred in Boston within a week.

USE TO THEM.

About 1,400 earthquake shocks are recorded yearly in Japan, the last of which were felt on Nov. 10.

GIVES UP HOPE.

Senator Latimer has given up hope of the passage of his good roads bill at the present session of congress.

WHY HE LEFT EUTAWILLE.

The witness retained at Martin's all of the following week. Mr. Lewis Martin told him it would not be well for him and that he must leave there and go to Charleston.

KILLED HIS TRAINER.

Charles Hendricks, a lion tamer, lacerated by a huge lion during an exhibition at San Francisco, died Friday.

THE EUTAWVILLE LYNCHINGS.

Four Men Committed to Jail on the Serious Charge of Murder.

As a result of the preliminary hearing at St. Georges last week of the famous Eutawville lynching case, Andrew Martin, Bennie Martin, Town Marshal Palmer and Constable Eadon have been held on the charge of killing Kitt Bookhart.

DEATHS OF BENEFICIARIES.

J. G. Carter, S. B. Sawyer, M. N. Thomson and Mrs. Jane Hutchins, beneficiaries of the relief board, have died during the year.

"WORLD HAVE KILLED HIM"

According to the Boston Traveller this is what the Yale boys would have done to the negro student that presumed to play football with them on the Harvard team had he stayed in the game.

EDWARDS'S TESTIMONY.

H. C. Edwards said that he is 22 years old. Was living in July last on Mr. Lewis Martin's place.

HOW THE MURDER WAS DONE.

Eadon got out of the buggy and told Bookhart that his "time had come"; they had "arrived at the River Jordan."

WHY HE LEFT EUTAWVILLE.

The witness retained at Martin's all of the following week. Mr. Lewis Martin told him it would not be well for him and that he must leave there and go to Charleston.

KILLED HIS TRAINER.

Charles Hendricks, a lion tamer, lacerated by a huge lion during an exhibition at San Francisco, died Friday.

IN GENERAL.

There are at present 155 children at the orphanage, the capacity being

THE EUTAWVILLE LYNCHINGS.

Four Men Committed to Jail on the Serious Charge of Murder.

As a result of the preliminary hearing at St. Georges last week of the famous Eutawville lynching case, Andrew Martin, Bennie Martin, Town Marshal Palmer and Constable Eadon have been held on the charge of killing Kitt Bookhart.

DEATHS OF BENEFICIARIES.

J. G. Carter, S. B. Sawyer, M. N. Thomson and Mrs. Jane Hutchins, beneficiaries of the relief board, have died during the year.

"WORLD HAVE KILLED HIM"

According to the Boston Traveller this is what the Yale boys would have done to the negro student that presumed to play football with them on the Harvard team had he stayed in the game.

EDWARDS'S TESTIMONY.

H. C. Edwards said that he is 22 years old. Was living in July last on Mr. Lewis Martin's place.

HOW THE MURDER WAS DONE.

Eadon got out of the buggy and told Bookhart that his "time had come"; they had "arrived at the River Jordan."

WHY HE LEFT EUTAWVILLE.

The witness retained at Martin's all of the following week. Mr. Lewis Martin told him it would not be well for him and that he must leave there and go to Charleston.

KILLED HIS TRAINER.

Charles Hendricks, a lion tamer, lacerated by a huge lion during an exhibition at San Francisco, died Friday.

IN GENERAL.

There are at present 155 children at the orphanage, the capacity being

THE EUTAWVILLE LYNCHINGS.

Four Men Committed to Jail on the Serious Charge of Murder.

As a result of the preliminary hearing at St. Georges last week of the famous Eutawville lynching case, Andrew Martin, Bennie Martin, Town Marshal Palmer and Constable Eadon have been held on the charge of killing Kitt Bookhart.

DEATHS OF BENEFICIARIES.

J. G. Carter, S. B. Sawyer, M. N. Thomson and Mrs. Jane Hutchins, beneficiaries of the relief board, have died during the year.

"WORLD HAVE KILLED HIM"

According to the Boston Traveller this is what the Yale boys would have done to the negro student that presumed to play football with them on the Harvard team had he stayed in the game.

EDWARDS'S TESTIMONY.

H. C. Edwards said that he is 22 years old. Was living in July last on Mr. Lewis Martin's place.

HOW THE MURDER WAS DONE.

Eadon got out of the buggy and told Bookhart that his "time had come"; they had "arrived at the River Jordan."

WHY HE LEFT EUTAWVILLE.

The witness retained at Martin's all of the following week. Mr. Lewis Martin told him it would not be well for him and that he must leave there and go to Charleston.

KILLED HIS TRAINER.

Charles Hendricks, a lion tamer, lacerated by a huge lion during an exhibition at San Francisco, died Friday.

IN GENERAL.

There are at present 155 children at the orphanage, the capacity being

THE EUTAWVILLE LYNCHINGS.

Four Men Committed to Jail on the Serious Charge of Murder.

As a result of the preliminary hearing at St. Georges last week of the famous Eutawville lynching case, Andrew Martin, Bennie Martin, Town Marshal Palmer and Constable Eadon have been held on the charge of killing Kitt Bookhart.

DEATHS OF BENEFICIARIES.

J. G. Carter, S. B. Sawyer, M. N. Thomson and Mrs. Jane Hutchins, beneficiaries of the relief board, have died during the year.

"WORLD HAVE KILLED HIM"

According to the Boston Traveller this is what the Yale boys would have done to the negro student that presumed to play football with them on the Harvard team had he stayed in the game.

EDWARDS'S TESTIMONY.

H. C. Edwards said that he is 22 years old. Was living in July last on Mr. Lewis Martin's place.

HOW THE MURDER WAS DONE.

Eadon got out of the buggy and told Bookhart that his "time had come"; they had "arrived at the River Jordan."

WHY HE LEFT EUTAWVILLE.

The witness retained at Martin's all of the following week. Mr. Lewis Martin told him it would not be well for him and that he must leave there and go to Charleston.

KILLED HIS TRAINER.

Charles Hendricks, a lion tamer, lacerated by a huge lion during an exhibition at San Francisco, died Friday.

IN GENERAL.

There are at present 155 children at the orphanage, the capacity being

WHY HE LEFT EUTAWVILLE.

The witness retained at Martin's all of the following week. Mr. Lewis Martin told him it would not be well for him and that he must leave there and go to Charleston.

KILLED HIS TRAINER.

Charles Hendricks, a lion tamer, lacerated by a huge lion during an exhibition at San Francisco, died Friday.

IN GENERAL.

There are at present 155 children at the orphanage, the capacity being

WHY HE LEFT EUTAWVILLE.

The witness retained at Martin's all of the following week. Mr. Lewis Martin told him it would not be well for him and that he must leave there and go to Charleston.

KILLED HIS TRAINER.

Charles Hendricks, a lion tamer, lacerated by a huge lion during an exhibition at San Francisco, died Friday.

IN GENERAL.

There are at present 155 children at the orphanage, the capacity being