Give Your Stomach a Rest.

Your food must be properly digested and assimilated to be of any value to you. If your stomach is weak or diseased take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest, enabling it to recuperate, take on new life and grow strong again. Kodol cures sour stomach, gas, bloating, heart palpitation and all digestive disorders. L. A. Soper, of Little Rock, Ky., writes us: "We feel that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure deserves all the commendation that can be given it, as it saved the life of our little girl when she was three years old. She is now six and we have kept it for her constantly, but of course she only takes it now when anything disagrees with her." Sold by The R. B. Loryea Drug Store.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON VII, FIRST QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, FEB. 12.

Text of the Lesson, John iv, 43-54. Memory Verses, 49-51—Golden Text, John v, 36—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.]

Two days He abode in Samaria and was refreshed by seeing many receive Him as the Christ, the Saviour of the world, a foreshadowing of the time when from all nations His church should be gathered (the age in which we are now living), and of a later age, beyond the present, when through Israel all nations shall be won to Him, a fulfillment of the word, "His own received Him not, but as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become the sons of God" (John i, 11, 12). The first two verses of this lesson are a little perplexing because they seem to say that He went into His own country, for a prophet hath no honor in his own country. Yet the third verse says that the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that He did at Jerusalem. Nazareth, where He had been brought up, is called His own country (Luke iv, 16, 23, 24), and, though He went to Galilee, He did not at this time go to Nazareth, and these verses may signify that, though He went to Galilee, He did not go to Nazareth, because a prophet hath no honor in his own country.

Some say that He did not immediately go into Galilee from Jerusalem, but delayed two days in Samaria to allow time for those who witnessed His miracles at Jerusalem to return home and prepare the minds of the people for a favorable reception of Him. We learned in our last lesson that He counted it His meat to do the will of Him that sent Him, and in chapter v, 44, He says, "How can ye believe which receive honor one of another and seek not the honor that cometh from God only?" So these verses might imply that He went into Galilee and later even to Nazareth (as we know He did), because He sought honor only from God and not from man, and came to do the Father's will, whatever it might be and wherever it might lead.

If the nobleman (courtier, margin) who came to Him at Cana on behalf of his son was Chuza, Herod's steward, then Luke viii, 3, may be a sequel to verse 53 of our lesson, for we there read that Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna and many others ministered unto Him of their substance. At Cana He had at the marriage feast manifested forth His glory and increased the faith of His disciples (chapter ii, 11), and here that miracle of making water into wine is indorsed. I refer to it because so many today seek to set aside all the supernatural, but the Bible is supernatural or nothing. Jesus is God or else He is not God.

The boy for whom the father pleads is not only ill, but at the point of death, as was also Jairus' daughter (Mark v, 23), but nothing is too hard for our Lord. It matters not how ill or what the disease, or ever if the person has died or been buried, the same word to be said, "Let there be light," can give light or life or health to a moment. He says, "Believest thou that I am able to do this?" And unto you." The nobleman entreated Jesus to come down to Capernaum and heal his son, not knowing that His actual presence was not essential to the healing, but having faith that if Jesus would only come to him He could heal him. Jesus gently tested him, for He never tries any one above that they are able, but his faith seems only to strengthen, and he grows more importunate. Then our Lord says, "Go thy way, Thy son liveth."

This was not as the nobleman expected. It was different from what He had thought. It was in one sense more than he expected, but there was power in the word, and it grasped his heart, and the glorious word is written, "The man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way" (verse 50).

The next day as he was nearing home his servants met him with the joyful news, "Thy son liveth," and on inquiring when his boy began to mend he learned that it was at the very hour on the previous day when Jesus said, "Thy son liveth." It must have thrilled him with joy to hear from his servants the very words that Jesus had said to him the day before. But what joy there was in that home which he had left in such gloom the day before! And all through the love and power of one who gave them life and breath and all things! But up to this time they had only heard of Him, but had not known Him. Now they did not know and believed in Him. Even the whole household accepted Him as God their Saviour.

One has said that in this miracle we see His omnipotence, in that He healed the sick child; His omnipresence, in that He healed him at a distance of several miles; His omniscience, in that He knew that His word was effectual, as the words testified. When the disciples were sent to bring the ass' colts and to prepare the passover and to go forth without purse or scrip, assured that they would be cared for, they all ways found it just as He said. Every promise and prophecy either has been fulfilled or will yet be fulfilled exactly as it is written. Blessed are all who believe, for there shall be a fulfillment of all things told them in the book. The Scripture cannot be broken. If sickness or any other affliction or trial shall bring us to this firm faith in God and in His word it will be a most blessed experience. But why not believe without the affliction?

Whiskey - 20 YEARS Old.

OLD NICK WILLIAMS WHISKEY

HOUSE - 136 YEARS Old.

Four Quarts Free. Read Our Offer.

Our great-grandfather, Colonel Joseph Williams, the revolutionary hero, established this business, right on this spot, in 1768—more than 100 years before dealers advertising themselves as "old houses" dreamed of going into the whiskey business. Ours is the original malt order whiskey business, after which many small dealers pattern in an attempt to duplicate our success. They cannot compete with us in quality because they are not distillers, and in attempting to meet our prices they put on the market terribly injurious and dangerous concoctions—many which contain the deadly wood alcohol.

Our business, our name and our whiskey have withstood all competition and criticism for almost a century and a half—record unparalleled in the business world. For four generations our whiskey has been recognized as the purest and best possible to produce and during that time we have served and satisfied hundreds of thousands of customers. In order to increase our line of customers to one million and to celebrate all our efforts during the next few months, we offer the following exceptionally low anti-revolutionary rates for a short time only. If not satisfactory when received, you can return our expense and we will refund every cent paid. What fair proposition could you ask? Our word—the People's Standard Bank of Manning, N. C. will tell you—is as good as gold.
