The Minor stores in Sumter were destroyed by fire last Monday night with a loss of about $20,000. Mr. E. Carson, secretary of the company, was injured by glass falling on him while entering the store to remove the books.

The board of county commissioners will be B. P. Broadway, and H. M. McIntosh. Mr. McIntosh was in Manning yesterday and qualified. The delegation has given the supervisor a good bond to serve with him the next two years, and we say without taking away any credit due Mr. McFaddin, who made a good commissioner.

It is customary for us to publish the jury list two weeks before court, but this we could not do as the jury was not drawn until last Thursday. In accordance with the Commission having to wait until the legislature amending the constitution in filling the box in December as the law required. Court is next Monday, and Sheriff Gamble has done all in his power to have the jurymen notified by mail and otherwise.

Peculiar Disappearance.

J. D. Runyan, of Butlerville, O., laid the peculiar disappearance of his painful symptoms of indigestion and illness, to Dr. King's New Discovery in Pills. He says: "They are a perfect remedy for indigestion, sour stomach, headache, constipation, etc." Guaranteed at The R. B. Loryea Drug Store, price 25c.

The Hannah Levi Memorial Library—A Beautiful Monument.

We are authorized to announce a donation to the Hannah Levi Memorial Institute of $1,000 for a library to be known hereafter as the "Hannah Levi Memorial Library."

It will be remembered, after the death of the late Moses Levi his children purchased and presented to the town of Manning the graded school property, and to honor his memory the school was named, "The Moses Levi Memorial Institute." Now since the death of their mother, the children to link in memoriam the names of their departed parents, have donated $1,000 for enlarging the school's library and stipulating that it shall be known as "The Hannah Levi Memorial Library," and that the people of the town shall have access to it.

The appreciation of this donation is unbounded on the part of the citizens, the superintendent, teachers and pupils, and the trustees. This contribution will be available very soon and it is quite likely that early arrangements will be perfected looking to the careful expenditure of the fund. In this connection it is proper to refer to the present library. Though this seems small by comparison with what, it is hoped, will soon arise from the memorial fund; yet with its present number of 315 volumes of well selected books, in connection with the whatever interest on the part of the pupils, books are eagerly sought on the days when the library is open, and there is not the least doubt but that untold good has been done already during the past year, and it is impossible to estimate the healthy influences that have emanated from this contact with good books. How splendid an idea is it, then, that not only the school children, but the citizens of the town, shall have access to this wider incentive to literary culture—the memorial library! The superintendent expresses his appreciation to the contributors for the present library, which it will be recalled was by voluntary subscriptions in books and money. The fund was started by the following ten subscribers giving $10, each to raise the first $100: Messrs. W. G. King, Abe Levi, Joseph Sprout, S. A. Rigby, Dr. C. B. Geiger, Rev. J. O. Gough, B. A. Johnson, Mrs. S. Iseman, John S. Wilson and Louis Appelt. The second $100 was not long in being made up, and came from several sources. To all who acted in this and gave books, as some did, the people generally are grateful. The total amount of money raised for the library fund was $225.28, and the number of volumes in the library is 315. When the $1,000 from the Levi heirs becomes available, a room will be set aside properly arranged with cases and tables, and Manning will have a public library superior to any in a town of this size, all of which will be due to the noble impulses of the children of the late Moses and Hannah Levi, who wish the memory of their parents to live on in the town where they spent the longest years of their lives, and where they were so highly esteemed. May their noble purpose be blessed.

A Touching Story.

is the saving from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyer, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months our little child was afflicted with serious throat trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs, and colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At The R. B. Loryea Drug Store: 50c. and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottles free.

All Run Down

THIS is a common expression we hear on every side. Unless there is some organic trouble, the condition can doubtless be remedied. Your doctor is the best adviser. Do not dose yourself with all kinds of advertised remedies—get his opinion. More than likely you need a concentrated fat food to enrich your blood and tone up the system.

Scott's Emulsion

is just such a food in its best form. It will build up the weakened and wasted body when all other foods fail to nourish. If you are run down or emaciated, give it a trial; it cannot hurt you. It is essentially the best possible nourishment for delicate children and pale, anaemic girls. We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Stand by the Colors Boys.

There is widespread interest, tinged with some anxiety throughout western Clarendon as to the approaching fate of her two Cavalry commands, troops B. and C. U. S. Cavalry, whose time of enlistment expires on the 20th instant.

These commands are better known as "The Hampton Light Dragoons," and "The Connor Mounted Riflemen," and for twenty-four years have been justly the pride and admiration of this county. Their splendid soldierly of a quarter of a century is without a parallel in the history of any community in the State; eliciting over twenty-four annual inspections, the honest and deserved commendation of every Adjutant General, before whom they appeared for drill and inspection. During this long and honorable service the original members have given way to a new generation of young cavaliers, worthy sons of their noble sires, who are resolved that the flags waving over commands bearing the magic and thrilling names of Hampton and Connor shall never on the soil of Clarendon be furled away in shame. Their conduct in camp, both at Camden and Columbia, were as admirable as their service at home; and their fine average size, and their fresh and ruddy complexions and their tidy, neat appearance make them conspicuous in the regiment; and the young ladies in Camden declared that they were as pretty as cadets.

This is their past history, what shall the future be? I have not a misgiving but these young troopers will measure up to the sanguine and natural expectations of their country.

Their preservation of peace and good is more needed with a turbulent element growing worse as time rolls on; and to lay down and ship back to Columbia the finest arms that the government could supply you, and to dismount from your pretty horses, caparisoned just one week ago with the handsomest cloths and bridles of any troop in the State; is too monstrous and disgraceful an idea to apply to your heroic commands. I am sure the inspiring cry will be raised "rally around the flag boys" and every other gallant member of the Hampton Light Dragoons will appear at their parade ground on Saturday the 18th, at 11 a. m. uniformed and equipped for inspection and enlistment.

Letter to Legg & Hutchinson.

Dear Sir: We manage to get some fun out of paint. J. H. Kohlmeier, Grove City, Pa., put-in Devoe. Along came a salesman of somebody else's paint before ours had got there. Salesman said ours was short-measure. Kohlmeier weakened hung fire and fopped; stopped ours and took his.

It was our turn now. We emptied our can into his and his into ours. The short measure was his, not ours, and we kept our man.

And ever since then that paint man, manufacturer gives full measure; his paint is not pure, but his gallon contains four quarts.

Go by the name; and the name to go by is Devoe lead-and-zinc.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO. P. S. Manning Hardware Co. sell our Paint.

How to Walk.

There is no virtue in a dawdling saunter. The slow and languid dragging one foot after the other, which some people call walking, would tire an athlete. It utterly exhausts a weak person, and that is the reason why many delicate persons think they cannot walk. To derive any benefit from the exercise it is necessary to walk with a light, elastic step, which swings with the weight of the body, so easily from one leg to the other that its weight is not felt and which produces a healthy glow, showing that the sluggish blood is stirred to action in the most remote veins.—Family Doctor.

The Poor Artist's Provider.

It is related of the late Mr. Whistler that he went one day with an artist in Paris who was not overburdened with this world's goods and was surprised at the sumptuous lunch provided. On asking him how he managed to live so well his host replied: "I have a pet monkey, which I let down from my landlady and trust to Providence. Sometimes Jacko returns with a loaf, sometimes with a ham. His visits are full of surprises—one never knows what may appear."—Leslie's Weekly.
