

Something Doing This Month.

During the past ten months or since we have succeeded S. I. Till we have sold thousands and thousands of dollars worth of beautiful and stylish merchandise. We have sold enough goods and have a class of customers that would be a credit to a bigger and more pretentious concern. For this we are proud and thankful to you; we are prouder still for the reputation we have made with the people of Manning and Clarendon. We have always given you what you want and you always get just what you think you get. Sometimes you may find something that you think is cheaper or it seems to be cheaper to you, but you will not find a lower price than ours on the same quality.

We have lots and lots of bright, new, stylish summer goods left and we want to make June our record-breaking month.

All or most of our summer goods must be sold and we will not carry them over. In order to get them out we have put them all down at a ridiculously low price. Just a visit to our store will convince you of what we are doing. Not just ONE, TWO or THREE items, but everything.

Millinery Especially.

We have just got in a full line of Summer Sample Hats. Come in and see them at half price, if nothing more.

It makes no difference what others offer you goods at you certainly will not show good business judgment if you buy before you come and see ours and get our prices on the same goods. OUR PRICES ARE LOWER.

This must be our record-breaking month.

LESSON IV, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, JULY 23.

Text of the Lesson, Isa. lv, 1-13. Memory Verses, G-S-Golden Text, Isa. lv, G-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1905, by American Bible Association]

The salvation of Jehovah includes an absolutely perfect righteousness for the whole nation of Israel and for all nations, and it can be obtained only from God Himself. "In the Lord have I righteousness and strength" (Isa. 41, 24). When the kingdom comes Israel shall be a righteous nation, their king shall reign in righteousness, and the work of righteousness shall be peace, quietness and assurance forever (Isa. 21, xxxii, 1, 17). As to every individual now the need is just the same—righteousness, without which we can neither see nor enter the kingdom of God (1 Cor. vi, 9; Matt. v, 20).

Whether it be an individual or a nation, the great need before God is righteousness, and it can only be obtained from God Himself, whom we saw in our last lesson providing it in the sacrifice, the death and resurrection of His Son. God made Him to be sin for us that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him. Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth, and there is no way to receive this righteousness by believing—that is, receiving (11 Cor. v, 21; Rom. x, 4; Gen. xv, 6). We must receive it as Adam and Eve did the coats of skins, and then we can sing: "He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation; He hath covered me with the robe of righteousness" (Gen. iii, 21; Isa. lxi, 10).

This beautiful lesson today, like last week's lesson and all prophecy, primarily concerns Israel, but there is always an application for all people at all times. Let us lay it to heart.

The first three verses show how vain are the efforts of man to obtain that which God gives freely. No one can satisfy the soul but God Himself, and all souls are eternally unsatisfied unless they are clothed with the garments of salvation. The majority do not labor and spend money and sometimes pray and read the Bible and give to the poor and try to do good in order to find peace, but they seek in vain. That which the soul thirsts for is not found except by hearing the voice of God and coming unto Him and receiving freely that which is represented here by wine and milk and fatness. Note carefully the following texts: Ps. xlix, 6, 7; John iv, 10, 14; v, 24; Rev. xxi, 6; xxii, 17; Rom. iii, 24; iv, 5-8; Song v, 1.

The sure promises of David include all the kingdom of his son risen from the dead, even in Christ. Compare Acts ii, 29-36; xiii, 32-39. When He shall sit on David's throne at Jerusalem and reign over the house of Jacob, the faithful witness, the leader and commander of the people, a righteous king and a righteous people, then shall nations run to Israel because of the Lord their God in their midst. See how plainly this is stated in the following passages as well as in verse 5 of our lesson: Isa. lx, 1-3; lxii, 1, 2; Jer. iii, 17; Zech. viii, 22, 23; Rom. xi, 12, 15; these and many others.

Verses 6 and 7 may be applied universally. We are all by nature wicked and unrighteous and have our own ways and thoughts, which we must forsake if we would turn to the Lord and receive His righteousness, and it must be honestly and wholeheartedly (Jer. xxix, 13) lest a time may come when, having refused to hear His voice when He called, we may seek in vain (Prov. i, 23-33). There are exceeding abundant grace and pardon for all who turn to Him now (1 Tim. i, 14; Isa. i, 18) and the assurance that no one who comes to Him shall ever be cast out (John vi, 37), but the persistent rejection of His mercy can only end in eternal torment. Why should we tolerate or indulge in our thoughts when His, which are all thoughts of peace (Jer. xxix, 11), are as far above ours as heaven is higher than the earth?

Verses 10 and 11 ought to give perfect rest to every sower of the incorruptible seed of the word of God, for here is the blessed assurance that it will never return to Him void, but always accomplish His pleasure and prosper in the thing whereto He sends it. When the devil sowed his tares he went his way perfectly sure that the tares would grow, and yet there are many Christian workers with less confidence in the word of God than the devil has in his tares, for, having sowed the seed, they seem to feel that they must somehow get into the soil and see it sprout right on the spot. While we are always to look for and expect results, I do not find that we are authorized to try to force matters, but rather rest on the assurance that God will see to it that our labor is not in vain.

The last two verses of the chapter tell of Israel's future glory and of the time when the curse shall have been removed from the earth and thorns and thistles grow no more, for as truly as our Saviour wore the crown of thorns so surely shall the whole creation be delivered from the bondage under which it has groined over since sin entered and enjoy the liberty of the glory of the children of God (Rom. viii, 21, 22). The kingdom of righteousness and peace and joy shall not only reach all people, but even all creation, and so shall the name of the Lord be magnified in all the earth. "The Lord will be magnified from the border of Israel." "For from the rising of the sun until the going down of the same My name shall be great among the gentiles." "The Lord of Hosts" (Mal. i, 5, 11). Let us now hear and lay all this to heart and give glory to His name (Mal. ii, 2).

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cost but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by The R. B. Loryea Drug Store, Isaac M. Loryea, Prop.
