

Something Doing This Month.

During the past ten months or since we have succeeded S. I. Till we have sold thousands and thousands of dollars worth of beautiful and stylish merchandise, have sold enough goods and have a class of customers that would be a credit to a bigger and more pretentious concern. For this we are proud and thankful to you; we are prouder still for the reputation we have made with the people of Manning and Clarendon. We have always given you what you want and you always get just what you think you get. Sometimes you may find something that you think is cheaper or it seems to be cheaper to you, but you will not find a lower price than ours on the same quality.

We have lots and lots of bright, new, stylish summer goods left and we want to make June our record-breaking month.

All or most of our summer goods must be sold and we will not carry them over. In order to get them out we have put them all down at a ridiculously low price. Just a visit to our store will convince you of what we are doing. Not just ONE, TWO or THREE items, but everything.

Millinery Especially.

We have just got in a full line of Summer Sample Hats. Come in and see them at half price, if nothing more.

It makes no difference what others offer you goods at you certainly will not show good business judgment if you buy before you come and see ours and get our prices on the same goods. OUR PRICES ARE LOWER.

This must be our record-breaking month.

J. W. McLEOD.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON VI. THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, AUG. 6.

Text of the Lesson, II Chron. xxxiv, 1-13—Memory Verses, 1-3—Golden Text, Eccl. xii, 1—Commentary prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

In the conflict of the ages recorded in the Scriptures between God and the devil for man and man's dwelling place we see those who stand with God and for whom God works and those who stand with the devil against God. And so it shall go on until the conflict of the ages shall be overthrown and the leader shut up in the bottomless pit for a thousand years and the earth shall enjoy a reign of righteousness and peace.

Josiah was one of the few who did right in the sight of the Lord and realized a fulfillment of II Chron. xvi, 9. He was one of seven in the Scriptures who were named before their birth by Him who knoweth all things and declared the end from the beginning. Nearly 300 years before his birth he was named by God as one who on certain altars would burn men's bones, and he did. Compare I Kings xiii, 2, and II Kings xxiii, 16. Hezekiah collected all others in the matter of "trusting in the Lord," but Josiah excelled in "trusting to the Lord" (II Kings xviii, 5, xxiii, 25). To do right in the sight of the Lord without turning to the right hand or to the left and to please Him in all things is an attainment to which only one perfectly reached, but by His grace all believers might come much nearer to it if they desired it as much as Elisha desired that which he sought through Elijah the day that they were parted by a whirlwind.

Josiah began by getting himself right with God, for in his sixteenth year he sought the God of David, his father, evidently with the whole heartedness of Jer. xxix, 12. Paul's advice to Timothy was to first take heed to himself (I Tim. iv, 16), and our Lord taught us that if we would get the notes out of other people's eyes we must first get the beam out of our own eye (Matt. vii, 5). The first thing for each individual is a right relationship to God, and this can be obtained only by receiving His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, and in Him the forgiveness of all our sins and a righteousness which makes us accepted in Him and gives us the standing of children and heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ (John 1, 12; Eph. i, 6, 7; Rom. viii, 16, 17). This being established and we assured of it by the Spirit through the word, we are then as ambassadors of Christ authorized to move forward on behalf of the interests of His Kingdom.

When Josiah was twenty, or in the twelfth year of his reign, he, being himself purified, began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from her idols and idolatry, doubtless remembering and obeying the Lord's words at the founding of the nation, "I am the Lord thy God; * * * thou shalt have no other gods before Me." When an individual or a nation has heard and seen Jehovah's idols are no longer tolerated (Hos. xiv, 8). In II Kings xxiii, 1-14, there is a more full account of the cleansing of the land, and all the things which were done by Josiah's reading to the elders and to the people all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the Lord. It is the word of God that sanctifies and cleanses (John xvii, 17; Eph. v, 26; Ps. cxix, 11).

The burning of the bones of men upon the altars (verse 5) is more fully described in II Kings xxiii, 15-18, and when compared with the prophecy uttered nearly 300 years before, referred to earlier in this lesson, we cannot but be reminded of such words as Isa. xiv, 24; xvi, 10; Ps. xxxiii, 10, 11. To know the purpose of God, "the eternal purpose which He purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Eph. iii, 11), and to live in that purpose is the greatest of all honors conferred upon mortals, and it is open to all.

The last part of our lesson tells of Josiah's efforts to repair the temple and to undo the harm which had been done by other kings of Judah (verse 11), for though Manasseh endeavored to undo some of his great wrongdoing his son Amon walked in his first ways and trespassed more and more (chapter xxxiii). The tabernacle first, then the temple, was the center of Israel as a nation, for there God dwelt in their midst (Ex. xxv, 8), and the neglect of God's dwelling place meant the neglect of God Himself. Read the first chapter of Isaiah and see what God thought of their neglect of His house after their return from Babylon and how He dealt with them because of it. When our Lord was on earth the temple building was in good condition, but the worship therein was hypocritical, and they had introduced business into its courts, so that at the beginning and end of His ministry He cleansed the temple. The majority of people either wholly neglect God or render Him a formal worship, which is worse than none at all, for He seeketh those who worship Him who will worship Him in spirit and in truth. Believers are the temples of the Holy Spirit, mansions in which Father, Son and Spirit dwell (John xiv, 17, 23; I Cor. vi, 19, 20), and if we would know the power of God in and through us we must be willing to be undefiled by the world (Ps. cxix, 1).

In verse 12 of our lesson we note that the men did the work faithfully, reminding us of our Lord's words, "Who, then, is a faithful and wise servant?" (Matt. xxiv, 45) and I Cor. iv, 2. "It is required in stewards that a man be found faithful." It also calls to mind the warning in Jer. xlviii, 10, "Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully or negligently." The eyes of the Lord are ever looking for the faithful.
