The Original. Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. The R. B. Loryea, Drug Store, Isaac M. Loryea, Prop.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. LESSON I, FOURTH QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, OCT. 1.

Text of the Lesson, Dan. v, 17-30. Memory Verses, 29, 30—Golden Text, Ps. xxxiv, 16—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Dr. Weston says that we have in the Scriptures the account of the conflict between Christ and Satan for man and man's inheritance, the earth. It is true also that everywhere in the book we see God working or the devil. In this book of Daniel we see God working in and through Daniel and his companions and also by holy angels. On the side of the devil we see such as Belshazzar and his companions and evil angels who hindered Gabriel when on his way to Daniel. I do not wonder like the wisdom of this world would like to get rid of this special book, for in three instances it sets forth the inability of learned men to understand the things of God. In chapter ii they could not tell the dream, in chapter iv they could not interpret a dream, and in this lesson they could neither read nor interpret four words plainly written on the wall.

Before Daniel interpreted the words he had a little sermon for this wicked king, the last he would ever hear, for in that night he was slain (verse 30) and went to his own place (Luk. xvii, 22, 23). The name "Most High God" (verses 18, 21) is first used in Gen. xiv, 18, 19, in connection with this other title. "As such God ruleth in the kingdom of men and giveth it to whomsoever he will (Dan. iv, 17, 25, 32, 34). Daniel reminded Belshazzar that this Most High God had given his father all the power and dominion that he possessed, but that because of his great pride, boasting that he had built Babylon by his own power and might (iv, 30), God had by very severe measures humbled him and taught him to know the true God.

Belshazzar knew all this, but instead of profiting by his father's experience and humbling himself before God he lifted up himself against the Lord of Heaven and contemptuously blasphemed God. He did not believe that "a man's pride shall bring him low" (Prov. xix, 22), perhaps did not know it, nor that God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble (Jas. iv, 6). How apt we all are to fall to glorify Him in whose hand our breath is, and who are all our ways, in whom we live and move and have our being, who directeth our steps (verse 23; Acts xvii, 28; Jer. x, 23; Prov. xvi, 9). The word to Israel is a good word for us: "Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee. * * * Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God" (Deut. viii, 2, 11). We are here to honor and exalt Christ, but never sell nor humiliate.

The person who wrote these words upon the wall was not visible nor even the hand that wrote, but just a part of the hand—the fingers (verses 5, 24). It was not the messenger, but the words, that God wanted seen. It is not the preacher, but the word of God, that does the work of God. The writing upon the tables of testimony given to Moses was done by the finger of God (Ex. xxxi, 18; xxxiii, 16; Deut. ix, 10), and the same finger wrote on the ground when He was here as God manifest in the flesh (John viii, 6).

The time of the duration of the kingdoms of this world is fixed by God, and the time that the Babylonian kingdom should rule was made known to Jeremiah before Judah was carried captive (Jer. xxvii, 47). It is only when the kingdoms of this world shall have become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ that the world shall see a kingdom without end (Rev. xi, 15). The Lord weighs our actions, our paths, our spirits (I Sam. ii, 3; Isa. xxvii, 7; Prov. xvi, 2), and estimates all things at their true value in His sight. The widow's two mites were of more value, according to His valuation, than all the gifts of the rich that day. It is possible that the seemingly worthless gifts of the redeemed people may be only as hay, wood and stubble in His sight, fit only to be burned up (I Cor. iii, 14, 15). When it is God who worketh in us, both to will and to do of His good pleasure (Phil. ii, 13), then the works will stand; all else must perish.

The visions of the second and the seventh chapters, the one given to a man of this world and the other to Daniel, a man of God, are identical and set forth clearly the succession of these kingdoms. In chapter ii Babylon is the head of gold and Medo-Persia the breast and arms of silver. In chapter vii the same two are represented by the lion with eagle's wings and the bear with the three ribs in its mouth. In chapter viii the second of these two is represented by a ram with two horns, a harmless, domestic animal, suggesting the friendliness of the Medes and Persians to Daniel's people. Note from chapters vii, i; viii, 1, that these two chapters precede the one of our lesson in the order of time. Note also that to a man of the world like the king of Babylon power is something precious as gold or silver, but to a man of God waiting for the kingdom of God the present governments of earth are like devouring wild beasts, which "he nations themselves acknowledge by displaying upon their banners the lion, the bear, the dragon, the eagle."

Daniel was honored before men because he honored God (I Sam. ii, 30; John xii, 20), but Daniel sought the honor that cometh from God only (John v, 44) and still awaits (Dan. xii, 13). Poor indeed is he who, like Belshazzar, has a kingdom, but no Saviour. But how indescribably rich is he who, like Daniel, waits for the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and although tried my family doctor he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." and guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney troubles. The R. B. Loryea Drug Store, at 50c a bottle.

Bow Bells. To be born within the sound of Bow Bells has been a distinction for centuries. The famous old bells which have rung so long over London, it may not be generally known, are situated in Cheapside, where they may still be seen and heard. The street which passes beneath them is today the busiest in all London and is wholy given over to business, so that few people today are actually born within the sound of the famous bells.

How to be Plump. Most people constantly suffer from loss of appetite, especially for breakfast, an unpleasant taste in the mouth, low spirits; irritability, with a heavy, dull headache, biliousness, sick headache, blotches on the skin, lack of energy and a feeling of weariness, all of which are due to constipation. Constipation is the forerunner of indigestion, sluggish liver and nervousness, and it is of the utmost importance that the bowels should be gently regulated by a reliable aperient. Dr. King's Blood and Liver Pills meet this want. 25c at Dr. W. E. Brown & Co's.

Monuments of Ears. Throughout Korea a number of monuments are still standing which date from the war of 1592, when Japan invaded Korea with 30,000 men. These "monuments of ears," as they are called, mark the burial places of 10,000 ears which were cut from the heads of the Koreans as trophies of victory. There are many of these monuments in Japan also, for some of these grewsome relics were taken home by the conquering army.

A Laxative Cough Syrup. "A cold or cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard." Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It meets and corrects the above conditions, by acting acting as a pleasant cathartic on the bowels, expels all colds from the system and cures all coughs, croup, whooping cough, La Grippe, bronchitis, etc. Sold by The R. B. Loryea Drug Store.

Civil Service in the Kitchen. "Maria," said Boggies to his wife, with an idea of instructing her in political economy, "do you know what civil service is?" "Jasper," said Mrs. Boggies, with memory of recent contact with the cook, "there isn't any."—Chicago Journal.

Taking Him Down. "Yes," said the pompous man, "we move in the best society when we're at home." "Yes," replied the man with the cold gray eye. "I have some friends in that business too. Do you use the padded vans?"—Exchange.

A Latter Day Shaker. I have sold most all the chill tonics made, but can truthfully say that there are none that give the satisfaction that your Dr. King's Improved Little Tonic gives. It always cures before one bottle is taken. Please send me three dozen at once. J. C. Harner, Covington, N. C. Sold by Dr. W. Brown & Co.

Not That Kind of a Dog. Friendly Old Lady (to little girl sitting on porch beside dog)—Ah, my dear, your dog is a setter, isn't he? Little Girl—Oh, no, ma'am. He gets up and paws around sometimes.—Harper's Weekly.

A Clear Complexion and Bright Eyes. In most cases a sallow, bloated complexion and dull heavy eyes are due to poor digestion and an inactive liver. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels and makes the complexion smooth and clear. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. The R. B. Loryea Drug Store, Isaac M. Loryea, Prop.

Kept Him Guessing. "Suppose I were to tell you my must not go to the matinee today," said Mr. Naxart. "How would you like that?" "Oh," ambiguously replied his young wife, with a steady glitter in her eye, "I wouldn't mind."—Philadelphia Press.

The Coy Widow. "I think," declared the little daughter of the widow to the millionaire who was calling, "that you are a charming and delightful man." "How nice! What makes you say so?" "Mamma told me to."—Detroit Free Press.

Stirring Mortality. Statistics show startling mortality from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. At Pharmacy, 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for constipation and biliousness." 25c at The R. B. Loryea Drug Store.

Two of a Kind. "Yes," said the young dog clerk who had been trotting in double harness for nearly two weeks, "I've got a boss wife." "Well, you have my sympathy," rejoined the man who had come in to buy a bottle of hair restorer. "I've got that kind of a wife too."—Chicago News.

Cared of Lame Back After 15 Years of Suffering. "I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Giliam, Ind. "This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is sold by The R. B. Loryea Drug Store, Isaac M. Loryea, Prop.

He Wanted Action. Investment Broker—What you want, I presume, is something that pays large dividends. Prospective Investor—No, I don't care about the size of the dividends just so I get ten cent often enough. I'm no hog.—Chicago Tribune.
