Next week is Fair week in Columbia

Mr. S. R. Vennig spent Sunday in Sumter.

Everything is lively in Summerton this week.

Rev. R. A. Sublett of Summerton was in town yesterday.

Died last Friday an infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walker.

The Manning Social Club will give a dance tomorrow night at Institute Hall.

Hon. Jerome P. Chase, of Florence, is in Manning visiting Mr. J. W. McLeod.

Dr. W. B. Alford, a prominent dentist of Sumter, died yesterday at Bringham, S. C.

Captain W. C. Davis left last night for Rock Mount, N. C., on professional business.

Bishop Capers will hold services at St. Marks church next Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. Marion Bradham had one of his fingers broken last Monday, in a job press in The Farmer office.

A party from here will go to Charleston tomorrow to attend Dixon's play, "The Clansman."

A large crowd of Manningtons and Summertonians attended the "Clansman" in Sumter last night.

Capt. Joe Bates and wife of Eastover spent a few days of last week in Manning visiting their relatives.

Died last Thursday, near Sardinia, Miss McFaddin Wheeler, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Wheeler.

There will be an ice cream and oyster festival at Home Branch church next Friday night, for the benefit of the Sunday School.

Died at Clinton, on last Thursday, Rev. W. A. Pitts, of the South Carolina Conference, a son-in-law of Hon. C. M. Davis, of Summerton.

The friends and relatives of Mrs. J. S. Lowder, near Columbia, and who has been very ill, will be pleased to learn that she is convalescent.

Mr. J. W. Rigby of the firm of Coffey & Rigby left today for St. Louis to purchase new and used mules for this market. Mr. S. A. Rigby accompanies his son on the trip.

Miss Louise Brunson, a daughter of Mr. E. Brunson, was run over by a hack in Sumter yesterday on Main street, but fortunately she was not seriously hurt.

Married last Wednesday by Rev. James McDowell of Sumter, at the home of the bride's father, at Sardinia, Mr. Ernest Rose and Miss Vida McFaddin, daughter of Mr. I. E. McFaddin, Sr.

Died last Saturday at the Wood-Orten Infirmary in Sumter, B. E. King of Ruminia aged about 50 years. The deceased was a merchant at Ruminia for a number of years, and contracted hemorrhagic fever of which he died.

Found dead in Grant Williams' field last Friday near Davis Station, Peter Clark, a well-to-do negro. Clark had been over to Williams' house on a visit Thursday night, and it is supposed he was stricken suddenly while on his way home.

Rev. S. A. Nettles, in last Saturday's News and Courier has a very able paper relating to the legislative history of the dispensary. Mr. Nettles is a prohibitionist, and had much to do with the legislation which finally resulted in the dispensary. He believes the institution is doomed.

Died in Summerton last Sunday, Mrs. H. T. Avant, wife of Mr. H. T. Avant. The deceased formerly lived in Manning, where she enjoyed the love and esteem of many friends. For a number of years her health has not been robust, but her recent illness was of so short duration, that the news of her death came as a severe shock to her friends.

A big steal was discovered yesterday in the State treasurer's office in Columbia. A warrant has been issued for Daniel Zimmerman, a former clerk. The discovery was made in looking up some State bonds, and it was found that several thousand dollars worth had been stolen. This shortage it is alleged has existed undiscovered for several years. Zimmerman cannot be found. The peculations are variously estimated from $12,000 to over $20,000. A thorough examination may show up considerably more.

Captain W. C. Davis, about midway yesterday brought us a very lengthy type-written article in reply to an editorial of last week relating to the case of Federal vs. the Northwestern railroad, also to the interview had with Captain Thomas Wilson relating to his railroad coming to Manning. This article reached us too late for publication in this week's issue, but it will appear in the next, and this connection we will state that hereafter when there appears anything in this paper which a person desires to make reply to, they should not wait until the eve of going to press to bring in their matter, but should send it or bring it as soon after the paper is published as possible. Those who will reply to articles in THE TIMES need not be afraid of putting their matter in early we will take undue advantage of them in any answer we would think proper to make.

The Alcolu Railroad.

In a conversation with one of our leading merchants yesterday, we found him advocating the town of Manning issuing bonds to build a railroad to connect with the Alcolu railroad to bring the Salem section in closer trading facilities with this town. The Alcolu railroad brought to Manning would be a great trade feeder for this place, and it should be, if possible brought here. We know that the Alcolu men are kindly disposed towards bringing this road to Manning, and in our opinion, if anything like a proper encouragement is held out the road will come here. The bonding the town for this purpose would be an after consideration, we think the trade-seekers should get together and ascertain how much aid they will give for the helpful project, before other taxpayers are asked to contribute. A railroad bringing a large volume of trade to Manning will help all interests, but the mercantile interests, especially, therefore, we think our merchants, bankers, stablemen and other concerns should come together and give some substantial indication to the Alcolu men that they want the Alcolu railroad, and how much money they will put into it. Sometime ago the writer conferred with Capt. D. W. Alderman about his road, and at that time he impressed us with a willingness to come here, if our people would give him the encouragement necessary for such a project. Capt. Alderman is a business man, not a dreamer, nor a sensationalist. Business with him is a proposition of mathematical calculation, with dollars and cents for results, when this can be figured out he is in, if not he is out, and if Manning wants to break down the Chinese wall that is fast surrounding us, let our business men knock down the bars of selfishness and meet the Alcolu men with a proposition that will appeal to their business sense.

Horrible Tragedy.

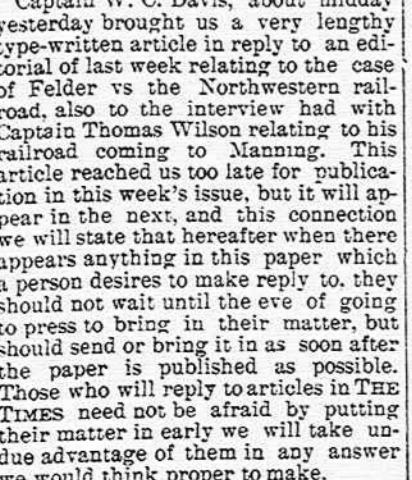

A terrible murder was committed at Coopers, in Williamsburg county, last Friday night which shocked Williamsburg and Clarendon counties. The deceased was well known in both counties. The following is the account verified to the News and Courier from Kingstreet: Mr. Julian Wilson, a gentleman 57 years of age, was found murdered last night at the store of W. P. Cooper & Co., on the road to Indian town church, about 14 miles from Kingstreet. The murdered man was a quiet and inoffensive gentleman, a nephew of the late Frank N. Wilson, of Manning, and a first cousin of Solicitor John S. Wilson. Sheriff Graham and Solicitor Wilson spent last night on a camp out on the road near the scene of the crime, and were soon on the ground, and are there now, and no stone will be left unturned to bring the guilty man to justice. Mr. Wilson was one of the most popular men in Williamsburg county, equally so with white and black, and his death is a tragedy of this atrocious crime. It is his murderers are caught today it is doubtful if they will ever see another sunrise, in spite of the presence of Solicitor Wilson and the sheriff. The coroner has been summoned, and the inquest will probably be held tonight or tomorrow. The last word from the scene tonight says that Mr. Wilson was killed by being beat on the head with a club about three feet long, which was found this morning outside of the door, with blood and white hairs upon it. The supposition now is that his murderer obtained admittance to the store under pretext of buying some medicine, as some bottles of medicine were found on the counter, just above his dead body. Several negroes are suspected and one arrest has been made. The latest news from the above horrible tragedy is that four negroes are under arrest and lodged in the Kingstreet jail. Their names are Arthur Williams, Miller Harrison, Robert Scott, and Jenkins Tresscott. The sheriff, Solicitor Wilson and the sons of the dead man had great difficulty in keeping the crowd from applying lynch law to the suspects. Sheriff Graham, who is a determined man, with pistol in hand, announced that he would protect his prisoners, and would kill the first man who crossed the threshold. Solicitor Wilson made effective appeals to the crowd of enraged friends to control themselves and not bring discredit upon the county. In this he was seconded by the three sons of the murdered man. Sheriff Graham and Solicitor Wilson are being warmly commended for their manly devotion to duty under such very trying circumstances.

The Gallant Colonel Wants His Fortune Told.

Editor The Manning Times: Under the caption, "Revoke It," which appeared in an issue of THE TIMES several weeks ago, you appeal to your Town Council to cancel the contract made with Mr. Barkout and his vandeville shows to exhibit in Manning in November, as the shows will carry away more money than it leaves. This is certainly a rather calculating and selfish view of the matter, for allowing that they do carry off a great deal more than they leave, is no reckoning to be made of the great pleasure and diversion they furnish the poor laboring masses, who by their toil, build up your towns, and whose poverty debar them from enjoying Italian operas in Charleston. Dickens and other fine students of human nature contend for the amusement and diversion of the toiling masses and argue rightfully that it tends in a large degree to reconcile them to their humble surroundings and unceasing labors. This view certainly applies most aptly to our own people, laborers of the Southern fields, who toil twelve months in the year with no labor organization or the first idea of entering upon a strike, and whose peer as a laborer no country has yet furnished us.

D. W. BRAILSFORD.

Letter to L. L. Wells.

Dear Sir: Two years ago the estate of the late Congressman Scott, of Erie, Pa., painted 24 Rolling-Mill houses one coat Devco at a saving of 11 per cent for paint (lead-and-oil was after the job). That's how the tale reads. We infer what really happened. The buyer, as usual, went by the cost of paint; got bids. Lead-and-oil bid low and guessed the quantity low; the saving was only 11 per cent. "Nob!" seems to have thought of this; the painting cost two or three times as much as the paint. How much did we save on the painting? Don't know. The tale ends with this: We often refer inquirers to those houses, for wear of Devco. That's a good-enough story; but nobody knows what it is. Our only difficulty is want of paint-intelligence. Your truly, F. W. DEVCO & CO., P. S. Manning Hardware Co. sell our paint.

The South Carolina Annual Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will convene in Johnston Oct. 21-24. Mrs. John O. Gough and Miss Sarah Harvin will attend as delegates from the Manning Station. The people of Manning will doubtless recall with pleasure the meeting of this convention here just a year ago when Mrs. Fry, of Illinois, was with us. Mrs. Nelle G. Burger of Missouri will represent the National W. C. T. U. at the convention this year. Mrs. Hayes, South Carolina's State President dearly beloved, will preside, and will as usual address the convention at the opening meeting. The W. C. T. U. of South Carolina has been unusually active this past year, and has more than doubled its membership. MRS. JOS. SPROTT.

Class Organization.

The organization of the tenth grade of the Moses Levi Memorial Institute took place in their room on Monday afternoon, Oct. 9th, 1905. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Mabel Tresscott. Vice President, Miss Joe Hall. Secretary, Mr. Perry Jayroe. Prophet, Miss Ethel McCollough. Poet, Miss Aileen Howle.

The Tenth Grade Pupils of the Moses Levi Memorial Institute organized on Oct. 10th, a literary society. The name of the society will be announced later. The following officers were elected: President, Ethel McCollough. Vice President, Lillian Tisdale. Secretary, Ruth Touchberry. First Critic, Marjola Walker. Second Critic, Joe Hall. Censor, Lizzie Williams. A committee on program, consisting of Misses Aileen Howle and Lizzie Williams was appointed by the president.

The Juvenile Literary Society of the Manning graded school met on Friday the 2nd of Sept. for the purpose of organizing. The society was organized by Mr. Scarborough, who made a short talk giving us some idea of the work of our society. The time of the first meeting was taken up with the election of officers. The three highest officers, President, Vice President and Secretary were elected by ballot. The minor officers were filled by nomination. The election resulted as follows: President, Jack Levy, Vice President, Martha Jenkinson, Secretary, Furman Bradham, Treasurer, Edwin Johnson, Senior Critic and Reporter, Ora Dollard, Junior Critic and Reporter, Joe Thomas. The society then adjourned to meet Oct. 6.

The Girdle of Old.

Howell grows as familiar a French proverb, "Il a quite a ceinture" (He has given up his girdle), which intimated as much as if he had become bankrupt or had all his estate forfeited, it being the ancient law of France that when any man upon some offense had the penalty of confiscation inflicted upon him "he used before the tribunal to give up his girdle, implying thereby that the girdle held everything that belonged to a man's estate, as his budget of money and writings, the keys of his house, with his sword, dagger and gloves." The fact had much to do with its importance in general appreciation. We have an English proverb confirmatory of this appreciation. It is said, "Unbelt, unbelt," and that it was in very common use is clear from the frequency with which the phrase occurs in old out of the way literature.—Chambers' Journal.

To My Friends And Patrons.

The great Week of Bargains is being held at Summerton this week. A revelation to all economical shoppers. There is no reason in the wide world why this special business sale should not prove a great success for all of Summerton's enterprising merchants. It has proven a success and it warrants the step I propose to take, to have just such a special sale for my store in Manning, Oct. 30 to Nov. 4. My store is complete with all the latest furniture for every part of the house. New ideas in parlor and bed room suits, dining room sets and odd pieces of every description. The prices we are running now are the lowest you have ever heard of on such quantities of goods. But when the Special Bargain Week comes on, you want to be among the very first to pluck the ripe bargains. A point to be remember is that we buy our furniture direct from the makers and in very large lots so that we save you every unnecessary part of costs and you get the best goods at the very least possible price. The thing is that you can buy here on easy payment plans. Keep your eye on our advertisements and look out for the advance notice. It will be a week of great money saving to everybody who wishes to properly and economically furnish their home. If you need furniture now, come here and buy it. We have on sale right now some of the best values we have ever known and you'll save money here. Watch our advertisements. Remember the date, October 30th to November 4th. S. L. KRASNOPE, Manning, S.
