The friends of Mr. J. M. Bradham will be pleased to learn that he is back in the store of McLeod-Wilkins-King Co., after his recent sickness.

Work of repairing the roof on Huguenot Main osh's meat market has already begun. The roof was damaged by the men working at the fire. The property belongs to Dr. W. E. Brown. No insurance.

Mr. B. C. Doggett, formerly of New Zion, now living in Texas, sent us a box containing three genuine Mexican bull terriers. We do not wish to appear unappreciative, but Mr. Doggett can keep such curiosities in Texas, we can get along without them here.

Lost. A grey back memorandum book, with the word "Memorial" on the cover. It contained some newspaper items, and other memoranda and it is of no service to anyone but its owner, and is only to him for the data contained. The finder will please leave it at the Times office and will be rewarded.

The Mutual Dry Goods Company certainly made a beautiful display at its millinery opening yesterday. The styles was the admiration of the ladies and many a pattern hat was selected. Mr. McIntosh the manager is determined to do a large millinery business this season as is evidenced by his selection of goods.

Nothing succeeds as well as success. J. L. McLeod's store made a nice exhibition of ladies hats yesterday the new fall effects, and many were the favorable comments by the ladies. The opening of the millinery store at McLeod is up to the uppermost and it is a good proposition to see his hats before making a final selection.

The teachers and pupils of Paxville Graded School wish to extend their thanks on next Friday evening by giving a box party at their auditorium. These boxes containing a feast of dainties, will be sold at different prices, the proceeds being for the benefit of the library. Everybody is promised a good time, the old as well as the young.

There will be a hot supper at the residence of Mr. Daniel Reardon near Workman on the evening of the 19th for the benefit of the Presbyterian parsonage. There will be plenty of good things to eat, and John Epps promises to eat supper at home so as to insure a plenty for all of the visitors. Everybody go and help a good cause.

The commissioners of election for Clarendon have been appointed, and immediately upon receipt of their notices they should qualify at once, so as not to delay the publication of the notice to managers. The election is not far off and the law requires the commissioners to qualify, organize and appoint managers, for all of this they receive pay.

There will be a mass meeting for men only in the Institute hall, Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. An able address on Giant Evils will be delivered by Mr. A. C. Bridgman, assistant Inter-State secretary of the Carolinas Y. M. C. A. Good music by local musicians. All men invited. The pupils of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches will also be filled by a representative of the Y. M. C. A. on that day.

What do you think of a man who will write a letter to his fiancé and address the envelope to himself, the envelope having on it his business card and the number of days when to return if not delivered. Of course he wrote back. That is what we call a peculiar economy. We will give to the first girl that guesses right who this man was a free look at Jenkinson's pattern hats, and permit them to seek aid from Jenkinson in this guessing contest.

The hearing that was to be had before the county board of education last Monday in the Summerton school district matter, was postponed until next Monday, when by that time it is to be hoped the differences will be amicably adjusted, and the work of pushing the building will be entered upon.

Later: The citizens interested in the last night and adjusted their differences. The new building will be erected on the old school site. A happy solution. Governor Heyward has appointed the following as commissioners of election for the Clarendon county, State of S. C.: I. Appel, T. M. Beard and S. W. Thigpen. Federal C. T. Ridgeway, Jehu Smith and J. M. Montgomery. The general election comes off Tuesday November 6th. The commissioners upon receipt of their notices should immediately go before a notary public or magistrate sign the oath, and forward it at once to the Secretary of State. They will also meet in Manning next Monday morning at 11 o'clock for the purpose of organizing and appointing managers for the election. This is important and every commissioner should be present.

In the court of Common Pleas last week J. A. Hawkins vs. Atlantic Coast Line suit for $1,900 damages to person verdict $500. W. P. Hawkins vs. Atlantic Coast Line, suit for $350 damages to horse, verdict $25. P. T. White vs. North Western R. R. suit for $150 damages killing horse, verdict $20.

While enroute to Harvin's to preach last Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. M. Holaday, accompanied by Mr. S. E. Ingram got in the box in the midst of a heavy rain, and were forced to divert themselves of their clothes to reach dry land. Neither of these two Presbyterians were specially anxious to take to water, and that too in the vicinity of a Baptist community, but it was water then, or wait until the sun could absorb the pond, or the county authorities would ditch the road.

McLeod-Wilkins-King Co., as will be seen by their half page advertisement in this issue, have extended the time for their store sale until October 20th. The prices this concern is selling off a first-class stock of goods is attracting a great many purchasers from all over the county. Bargains have been secured, and additional bargains await those who will take advantage of this sale. These goods are as good now as if no storm had touched their store, but the management, after the storm, reached the conclusion that it was not for the public to regard the store damaged and they would throw it on the market at damage sale prices, and in order to accommodate the masses, and give everybody a chance to buy good goods at money saving prices, the sale is continued until October 20th. Read the advertisement.

Mr. Tony P. Mason, press agent of Pawnee Bill's great show, is an interesting character. He is a man of most agreeable gentleman. He assures us most positively that the management of the show to be here on the 20th permits no gambling, or swindling, and that there are secret services men to look out for just such things. This show is not like the ordinary circus. There is nothing about it that will prevent the pious from attending. Mr. Mason told us the stop over here is to make a rest from a long jump. The show carries about 600 horses, and over 1,000 people. It is without doubt the biggest thing that has ever come over this country. Several of our acquaintances have seen the show in New York and elsewhere and they commend it for the magnitude of attractions, so far different from the ordinary circus, and also for its cleanliness.

There will be an examination for rural mail carriers held in Manning next Saturday, and only those who have written or telegraphed an answer from the commission will be admitted to take this examination. Those who are going to stand this examination will meet promptly at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning in front of the Knights of Pythias hall, over the store of Mr. Logan. The Examiner will lock the door and begin the examination. This is a matter which will admit of no delay, and those desiring to secure the position of rural carrier must be on hand promptly with their written or telegraphic answer. The man who is late may lose a good paying job, and Uncle Sam is no respecter of persons. He makes the rules and everyone alike must come to the scratch.

Among the many dominant features with Pawnee Bill's Wild and Great Far East contingent, there are unlimited novelties, and different and extra hazardous maneuvers by the most adroit male and female performers in the world. Realistic racing contests and spirited turf events by accomplished lady and gentlemen jockeys. Two, three and four horse chariot races, cowboy races, Roman standing races by skilled and telegraphic equestrians, Indians and squaws in picturesque scenes on the plains, scouts, etc., introducing Mexicans, Chinese, Japanese, Asabs, Russian Cossacks, South Sea Islanders, ex-United States soldiers, boomerangs and bolo throwers, Filipinos, Turks, the African village, the South before the war, genuine Georgia plantation jubilee singers and dancers, Kellar's Zouaves, the best and only drilled lady soldiers in the world. See the elephant and camel races.

The Big Show. The circus drew a fairly good crowd to town last Friday, but the short crop, and the storm, kept many a one contented with the street parade, as was evident from the many empty seats under the canvas. Cole Brothers gave two good performances; the show was good, and the managing department was made up of nice, clever men, but like with most traveling aggregations there is a survey lot, either as camp followers or pigsties, and these did not do much to add to the innocent, or liquor-soaked, part with his coat of the realm. There was lots of "easy money" but more "easy marks," and quite a number of men who are owing for the bread and meat they ate the past summer, and who have their all, tied up with a bill of sale, that went up against the chance to get a big bunch of money on a very small investment; say be invested five dollars, and by watching closely with his eagle eye, he would receive fifty dollars—just as easy, but when he put his William down, and with his own self, shrewd and satisfied air, turned the card or pointed out the number, it was like the Irishman's see, non-est-inventus, or in plain United States, Not There, but it would not always end thus, the smart guy who robbed his wife and children out of the money he put upon a gambling scheme, would cry out that he was "robbed" by the circus people, and go about complaining to his friends.

One Cold and Another. The season's first cold may be slight—may yield to early treatment, but the next cold will hang on longer; it will be more troublesome, too. Unnecessary to take chances on that second one. Scott's Emulsion is a preventive as well as a cure. Take SCOTT'S EMULSION when colds abound and you'll have no cold. Take it when the cold is contracted and it checks inflammation, heals the membranes of the throat and lungs and drives the cold out.

Eddie Burgess Promoted. The following from the Portsmouth, Va. Star with interest by those who know Mr. Burgess. He is a native of Clarendon county. Says The Star: Mr. E. S. Burgess, who has been manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co., at Portsmouth for the past 12 years, with the exception of a brief interim, when he filled a similar position at Charlotte, N. C., is to leave the service of the company.

He has accepted a position in the Civil department of the Seaboard Air Line railway and will enter upon his duties about Friday, being succeeded as telegraph manager by A. C. Forrester, who has been manager of one of the Western Union's largest branches in Baltimore. Mr. Burgess' many friends will be gratified to learn that his new plans do not contemplate the removal of his residence from Portsmouth. He will continue to live here with his family.

His leave taking of the Western Union with which he has worked here and elsewhere for years, was most flattering to him. The management expressed his appreciation of his services and stated that if at any time he ever desired to re-enter the telegraph service there was always an opening with them for him. Mr. Burgess will have charge of the cattle and fire claims departments in the office of W. L. Stanley, claims attorney of the Seaboard. This position is an encouraging vista for promotion, and those who know the popular telegrapher are sure he will avail of his opportunities for advancement.

An Octogenarian Passes Away. Died yesterday at his home near Brewington Cape, Edgar R. Flor—2nd aged about 86 years. The funeral took place this morning at Brewington church, Rev. R. L. Grier conducted the service. The deceased was a remarkable man, active until the last few years, a man full of energy, and public spirit. Captain Flor went into the war between the States, as Captain of Co. I, 25th regiment.

After the war he was a man of influence throughout the county. He was a man of high integrity, and possessed of a whole-souled hospitality to a large number of people to town but the trade in the stores was no more than an ordinary Saturday. We doubt if it pays to permit these money-making institutions to come into our community.

Fought the Last Fight. Died at the home of his son-in-law, J. T. Brogden, about eight miles west of Manning last Friday, Thomas Abijah Bradham, aged about 70 years. His funeral took place in the Manning cemetery Saturday with a large number of relatives and friends present to honor the dead. Rev. A. N. Tolar pastor of the Paxville Baptist church conducted the service. The deceased was the father of Mr. J. M. Bradham, Mrs. W. P. Treseout of Manning, Mrs. L. T. Seyn, Mr. T. A. Bradham, Mrs. J. T. Brogden of Providence, and Mr. Ben Bradham of Jordan, the brother of Captain W. J. Bradham, Mrs. M. A. Greedy, W. J. Bradham, S. H. Bradham, D. M. Bradham, Mrs. J. C. Stukes and J. F. Bradham. He was a modest, quiet citizen, when in health an active business man, who was outspoken without being offensive, and one who had an appreciation of a citizen's duty.

Having heard something of his career as a soldier, at our request the following sketch was furnished us by a comrade who passed through the fiery ordeal with him at a time when the souls of men were being tried. Bradham was born in Clarendon county March 1835. At the commencement of the war between the States, he volunteered in a company commanded by Capt. Keels, and with it went to Charleston April 1861. Just before the battle of Fort Sumter he was ordered to surrender that fort he came home, and re-enlisted in the Sprout Guards, a company formed at Juseville and named for that noble old Roman, Joseph Sprott, of Joseph's Massacres. At the second battle of Manassas August 1862, he was severely wounded, when he recovered he again joined his company and actively participated in all of the maneuvers of his regiment.

He never referred to his past in the war except when asked, and then only in a modest manner. A long and useful life estimated by all who knew him, and surrounding his death bed were his seven children who are among our most useful members of society. In the death of T. A. Bradham the link in the chain of five soldier brothers who gave to their country, has been broken, and this one has "Passed over the river to rest under the shade of the trees with the Southern heroes that have passed before."

A Former Forest Girl, Daughter of the Late Capt. "Sam Ned Conyers," Marries a Prominent Banker, a Nephew of Mr. E. L. Wilkins of Manning. Greenville, October 6.—A beautiful wedding solemnized on Wednesday afternoon, was that of Miss Fannie M. Conyers, daughter of Mrs. M. O. Conyers, and Mr. John Wilkins Norwood, which took place at 4 o'clock at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Haynesworth, on North Main street, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. M. Duncan, pastor of the Buncome Street Methodist Church. The wedding was a quiet one, with only the two families and a few of the bride's girl friends present, who had only the warmest interest in the couples and the ceremony was all the more impressive in its dignity. The decorations of the home were especially lovely, bridal white and green, with touches of pink adding a bit of pretty color; being combined in a lovely arrangement. Suspended in the bow window, where the bride and groom stood, were three large wedding bells tied with pink satin ribbons intertwined with smilax. "Lobenrin's Wedding March" was played by Miss Bessie Taylor, with vocal solo by Miss Annie McFee. The first of the bride party to enter was little Miss Fannie Catey, bearing the ring on a silver tray. The bride entered with her sister, Mrs. M. S. Catey of Ashburn, Ga., who was her only attendant. Mr. Norwood, accompanied by his best man, Dr. Hunter, of Charlotte, entered through the folding doors between the parlor and library, where the ceremony was performed.

The bride's gown was an exquisite pale gray silk brocade, with a touch of pink. A large hat of pale pink with a rose crown and gray shoes and gloves completed this lovely costume. The bride carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and ferns. Mrs. Catey wore a beautiful white gown with a black velvet hat and carried pink roses. After the ceremony the usual congratulations were bestowed upon the happy couple, and the guests were then invited into the dining room, where Mrs. A. C. Furman presided. Long cakes and hot noon and cakes were served by Misses Bessie Barnes, Kate Macbeth, Alice Swandale and Anna Watkins. Delicious punch was served in the hall by Mrs. W. P. Conyers. Mr. and Mrs. Norwood left on the north-bound train for New York, where they will spend a month.—Sunday News.
