FARM NEWS
Which has been standing for the farmer and the farm home for twenty-five years, and it is said to go into more actual farm homes, in proportion to circulation, than any other paper published in America.

There are departments for all phases of farm life, each containing the best that goes.

SPARE MOMENTS, A Magazine of Inspiration for the Ambitions of Both Sexes
Spare Moments is the best magazine ever published at the price. In the first year of its existence it jumped to a circulation of a quarter of a million a month. For 1906-07 Spare Moments presents a literary programme unexcelled by any magazine. During 1906-7 Spare Moments will print a series of articles under the title, "The Last Days of the Confederacy." These articles will contain the personal reminiscences of Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

HUMAN LIFE, Edited by Alfred Henry Lewis
When you subscribe for Human Life you know exactly what you are going to get. You're going to get the only magazine in America that is devoted entirely to people, not things. Not prosy or puny people, but men and women who bulk big in the public eye, men and women who are doing things that are bringing them the fame or fortune.

It is crisp, breezy and entertaining. A dull line is its worst enemy.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure
Digests what you eat.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
For children; safe, sure. No opiate.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure
Digests what you eat.

Lizard's Tail.
Certain lizards are remarkable for the fragility of their tails, although this weakness is not always the drawback that may be imagined. The diamond tailed gecko, for instance, frequently owes its existence to the readiness with which its caudal appendage can be snapped off. This reptile, which will perch upon a rock head downward and tail in the air, is liable to be preyed upon by lizards. One of these formidable birds will swoop down upon a lizard and seize what it takes to be the head, but is really the tail. The brittle tail snaps off, and the gecko wriggles away, not much the worse, to grow another.

Precise, but Acid.
The women with thin lips and rasy voice stepped up before the languidly indifferent ticket seller in the railway station.

"Where do you want to go?" he asked as his jeweled fingers rifled a bunch of pasteboards.

"None of your business where I want to go," she snapped. "Just you sell me a ticket to New York, but bear in mind that I'm going there because I've got to; not because I want to."—Washington Star.

Effective.
Mr. Bowler—I should like to know what good all these cooking school lessons are doing our daughter?

Mrs. B.—Everything she cooks she brings home.

"Yes, and none of the family will touch 'em, and the things are just thrown away."

"No, they are not. She gives them to beggars."

"Huh! What good does that do?"

"We are getting rid of beggars."

The Hesitant Swain.
He—What would your father do if I told him I wanted to marry you? She—He'd refer the matter to me. He (hopefully)—And what would you do? She—I'd refer the matter to the young man who proposed to me and was accepted while you were trying to make up your mind.—Bohemian Magazine.

A Little Short of Funds.
Mr. Tyte-Phist—More money? What have you done with that dollar I gave you last week? Mrs. Tyte-Phist—That's in the savings bank, but I can't draw the interest on it till next January. I want another dollar to run the house on in the meantime.—Chicago Tribune.

His Contribution.
"What did that old miser put down when you asked him to contribute to the charitable fund?"

"His foot!"—Baltimore American.

To wait and be patient soothes many a pang.—Dutch Proverb.

Torments of Tetter and Eczema Allayed.
The intense itching characteristic of eczema, tetter and like skin diseases is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve and many severe cases have been permanently cured by its use. For sale by The Arant Co. Drug store.

Corrected.
Wife (during the tiff)—I have suffered every calamity that can befall a woman. Husband (calmly)—Oh, now you haven't, my dear. You have never been a widow. Wife—You evidently don't understand me. I said "calamity."

Notice to our Customers.
We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. The Arant Co. Drug store.

The Caloric Paradox.
Freezing is usually associated with cold, but water can be frozen on a red-hot plate. This pretty experiment has rightly been called the caloric paradox. If a drop of water is placed on a red-hot or white-hot metal plate it does not suddenly flash into steam under the influence of the great heat. It does not even boil. It simply evaporates quietly and slowly as it rolls about the plate. Now, suppose that the drop on the plate is a volatile liquid like sulphurous acid. It will evaporate, and this evaporation will produce cold. Let a drop of water fall in the sulphurous acid drop, and it will be frozen in spite of the heat. M. Bouigny thus froze water on a white-hot platinum capsule. Faraday carried this remarkable experiment even further. Pouring some ether and solidified carbonic acid gas on a red-hot platinum capsule, he formed a spheroidal mass which evaporated very slowly. He then brought some mercury into contact with it, and this was instantly frozen. Now, mercury requires a temperature of 40 degrees below zero to solidify it, and here it was frozen on red-hot platinum.

Public Speaker Interrupted.
Public speakers are frequently interrupted by people coughing. This would not happen if Foley's Honey and Tar were taken, as it cures coughs and colds and prevents pneumonia and consumption. The genuine contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. The Arant Co. Drug store.

They Joined Hands.
Mr. Rhodes once told a circle of friends after dinner the story of his first meeting with Beit. "I called at Forges late one evening," he said, "and there was Beit working away at a wheel. Do you never take a rest?" I asked. "Not often," he replied. "Well, what's your game?" said I. "I am going to control the whole diamond output before I am much older," he answered as he got off his stool. "That's funny," I said. "I have made up my mind to do the same. We had better join hands." Join hands they did. Unlike Alfred Beit, Cecil Rhodes had small patience with arithmetical details. Once this characteristic involved him in a difficulty. Pitching a balance sheet into the pile of papers before Beit, he exclaimed desperately, "Here, you understand things. For heaven's sake tell me how I stand."

Butterflies That Live on Fish.
The butterfly was blue and transparent. As through blue glass its tiny heart could be seen beating inside its wings. "This," said the professor read a newspaper article through its lovely blue paper article through its lovely blue wings. "This," he said, "is the pteropoda, a Mediterranean butterfly. It eats fish. On its tongue are rows of pointed hooks. They serve as teeth. This beautiful creature would turn up its nose at a garden of roses and lilies, but it would feast ecstatically upon a putrid eel. Now and then a pteropoda is found on the Florida or the California coast. It is only abundant, though, in the Mediterranean."

Duels With Pistols.
Discussing pistols as dueling weapons, the Paris Figaro sought the views of a man who had the reputation of an expert on the field of honor. He at once began to rail at duels with pistols. He could not bear even to speak of them. The fact was that he had once received a ball in the shoulder.

"Then you disapprove of them simply because you were defeated?"

"Why, I was not defeated."

"No; I was a second. You may well believe that I promised myself never to mix again in affairs of that sort. However, one day I had to accompany a friend on the field. He had asked if I could be a personal favor. I could not refuse. But I insisted upon one condition."

"What was that?"

"That I should climb a tree during the firing."

"A good scheme."

"You think so? Well, I was wounded again. My friend fired in the air."

THE PERSECUTED JEW.

He Is, It Is Claimed, the Most Spiritual Man Alive.

"The Jew is said to have what is known as the commercial instinct," said Oscar S. Straus. "Hume tells us that under Richard I. 500 Jews sought safety in the castle of York, where, not being strong enough for defense, they killed their wives and children, threw the bodies over the walls into the mob below and, setting fire to the castle, were themselves burned alive. The gentry owing money to the Jews hastened to the cathedral, where their bonds or promissory notes were kept, and made a bonfire before the altar. The compiler of the Annals of Waverley, in relating the event, Hume says, 'blesses the Almighty for thus delivering over this impious race to destruction.' History bristles with such stories of self sacrifice and barbarity. The commercial instinct in this particular case appears to have been on the other side.

"Instead of the Jew being a natural barterer, he is the most spiritual man alive. He has been pounded through the ages, robbed and massacred, but he yields neither his traditions nor his ideals. Had he been materialistic he would have sold out long ago and bought peace. If he would join the Greek church he would be safe in Russia. Rather than do that he will walk into the jaws of hell. Therefore I say that he is spiritualistic or idealistic rather than practical or material. Were I to choose a family that would live I would have it meet hardships and persecutions. Were I to choose one to die I would give it pleasure and luxury. The Jew, denied his civil rights, despoiled of his property, scourged and murdered, has only been made tougher and longer lived. His enemies have given him strength and trained him most admirably for the battle of life, no matter in what part of the world fortune may lead him."—New York World.

Foley's Kidney Cure cures back-ache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. The Arant Co. Drug store.

Land Crabs.

Crabs are generally supposed to live in the ocean, but there is one species that lives on the land. It is found on the island of Jamaica, in the West Indies. It burrows in the sand sometimes two or three miles from the sea. It has two long claws. In attacking an enemy it binds it with one claw, which is then thrown off, and then continues the fight with the free claw. The crabs stay in the ground during the day and hunt for their food at night. They visit the ocean once a year to lay their eggs. They travel by night, when they are caught in great numbers.

An Awful Cough Cured.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing just like one with the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Bassard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by The Arant Co. Drug store.

Soldiers In Battle.

"It is important to be cool and self possessed at the beginning of a fight," writes one who has commanded men in battle. "As soon as the first shot is fired men become nervous and go into action with a calmness which is most impressive. High explosive shells, with their deafening noise, make the most impression on young and unseasoned soldiers, while shrapnel affects the old soldiers the most. Those who imagine that it is possible to see a heroic look on men's faces at a decisive moment are completely mistaken. Their faces are pale and have a hard look about them. The struggle which is going on within them betrays itself by the nervous haste of their firing."

Deadly Serpent Bites

are as common in India as are stomach and liver disorders with us. For the latter however there is a sure remedy: Electric Bitters, the great restorative medicine of which S. A. Brown of Benningville, S. C., says: "They restored my wife to perfect health after years of suffering with dyspepsia and a chronically torpid liver." Electric Bitters cure chills and fever, malaria, biliousness, lame back, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. Sold on guarantee by The Arant Co. Druggist. Price 50c.

Skirt! Skirt! Skirt!

"Skirt!" is etymologically the same word as "skirt," though it has come over another linguistic route and properly means a short garment. In fact, "skirt," "skirt," "short," "shear," "kirtle" and "curt" are in all probability near relations. But "skirt" has got itself specialized to a lower garment, with special reference to the lower edge thereof, the boundary where the garment is cut short, whence the verb "to skirt."

The short crops in the vicinity of Manning have caused prices this fall not to advance as they did last year. Now is the investor's opportunity, as with reasonably good crops and prices next year's land will go much higher. Others think as we do. And here are two orders recently placed with us by two men from other counties, and the kind of men this county needs:

First. A farm, within easy reach of a high school and good churches, properly improved and costing from five to ten thousand dollars.

Second. A farm of from one to two hundred acres, within reach of a common school and good church, costing from three to five thousand dollars.
