CAPITOL CORRESPONDENCE.

The legislature is in session. I find many new faces in both Chambers, at Lake tomorrow, horse racing, turkey the same time there are also many of those who were members when I was in the Senate before, and it was indeed a great source of gratification to receive their warm greetings and wel-

> Our entire delegation reported for duty promptly, Messrs. Woods, Dingle and myself reaching the city Monday and Scarborough on Tuesday in time to be there at the opening of the ses-

D. D. McColl of Marlboro. On this election of course I had no vote, it being only for the members of the lower house to participate in, and from the viewpoint of striking the lucky side, Scarborough struck it first, he voting for Whaley, and Woods and Dingle for McColl. A great many people regard the vote in the election for Speaker as an indication of how the iquor question stands in the House, because it is well known that Mr. Whaley is a local optionist, while Mr. IcColl is for the State dispensary, although coming from a prohibition county, but in my opinion this election is no indication at all, as McColl received a number of votes for Speaker that will go against the State dispenary. The man who presented Mr. IcColi's name, Hon. J. P. Gibson of The representatives of the State Marlboro, is, and has always been. League will meet in Sumter on next opposed to the State dispensary, then there were other votes cast for McColl from sectional sentiment. . It is true the State dispensaryites had their forces well in hand, and made the vote for Speaker show up close to the outside world.

The Senate's presiding officer elected by the people the same as is the Governor, but the Senate selects a president pro tem, to preside when the president is absent. There is a custom that the Senators holding over every two years meet in caucus and prepare the committees, and also name the president pro tem, and when they make their selection the same is presented to a full Senate in open session and confirmed. This time, however, the holdmous in the selection of a president pro tem and the choice of the 'majority which was indeed a minority of the Senate, brought on considerable mutmade to get up a revolt to smash the elected Senators from having a voice in the selection of a presiding officer, but it failed because no new Senator could pointment of the opposition to Hon. Cole L. Blease who was the caucus nominee. I was approached to lead this fight and was assured of the support of the new Senators and some of d, but I never was fond of chesnuts if I had to pull them out of the fire, so I declined and was the first to have my cellent officer. The next important part of the or ganization was the arrangement of the committees. On the part of the Senate Clarendon's representative is chairman of the committee of Enrolled Bills, which is a job I hoped to escape because t carries with it a vast amount of labor, and especially towards to middle and last part of the session; every bill will have to be read and compared with the original bill, and every amendment must be carefully looked after to see that it is properly inserted. I must confess 1 had rather that some one more fond of hard work had this place. I am also on the committee on Education, which is important but it does not make the labor so nard, as a clerk is provided, and of course we can make him earn his money. Legislative, Library and Printing are my other committees. Our first meeting of the We would ask our readers to look at committee on Education will be held the label on their paper and if the date this week, when we will take up a number of bills looking to improvement in the public schools, and if possible I > on committees as follows: Scarborough, Agriculture, Penitentiary, Accounts. Mr. Scarborough has already done good service on the agriculture com-mittee. He is a strong advocate of The congregation of the New Harmony Presbyterian church very pleasantly remembered Rev. R. L. Grier last Thursday. They sent over a as an agriculturalist. He has also had much to do with penitentiary affairs (outside of course) and he will prove himself well acquainted with the needs of that institution; being a business man he will watch the accounts with a close eye.

This is Mr. Dingle's first term and of course he will have to learn how things are done. He is fast getting acquainted, and we believe he will, by the time the legisture gets well under way, be in position to do good service.

Woods is on Banking, Finance and Medical affairs. Dr. Woods is an old hand at the pump, and this accounts for his managing to keep them from loading him down with a multiplicity mittee will probably receive a number of bills relating to vaccination and midwifery-the abolishment of both. We understand that the "Society Mothers" is anxious for legislation which will be a protection against a certain practice by incompetent women. I doubt if there is a member of the medical committee better fitted for the position and one who knows more about the needs of the people along this line.

Dr. Woods has introduced a bill to amend the law relating to magistrates so as to abolish the office of magistrate at Turbeville, and increase the salary of the magistrate at New Zion from $100 to $300 a year. I do not know what demand there is for the change but it does seem, that if there is no need for two magistrates in Salem, then the remedy is to abolish one office and leave the pay stand as it is, that is, if the object is to save money. I pre-sume the delegation will hear from Salem about this matter, and I would arge that section to inform the delegaion right away whether or not Dr. Woods' bill represents their wishes; so there is danger in taking some unknown far as I am concerned it is entirely, a preparation. Foley's Honey and Tar matter of local importance, and were not that the pay comes out of the entire taxpayers, the wishes of the Dr. alone would be accepted, but I cannot see where there will be any saving if if one office is abolished, and the remaining office gets three times the pay, or one hundred dollars a year more than both offices cost. It is a matter the people of the Salem section should make their wishes known without delay.

Dr. Woods and myself were about to prepare bills on the subject of "Immigrant Agents" looking to make prohibitive the carrying out of the country the labor, but when I learned that Dr Sawyer of Georgetown had already gotton Solicitor Wilson to prepare such sion.

As was predicted in THE TIMES several months ago, Hon. R. S. Whaley of Charleston was elected Speaker, over much needed legislation. Dr. Woods ment, Plaster much needed has also concluded he will wait, and amend the Sawyer bill on its passage. The purpose of this measure is to fix the license so high, and make the penalty heavy that agents from Georgia and Florida will be chary about coming into this State for labor.

The inauguration takes place Tuesday and then work will begin in hard earnest, day and night. The great liquor question will be brought up the latter part of the week and it will be a continuous performance until something, one way or the other, has been done; of one thing I am Address T. Childs, Sumter, S. C. almost sure and that is, the Raysorby several others, will not become a law. The House will pass a local option bill but as yet the Senate is problem. atic-too close to form an opinion; there is a majority in the Senate against the dispensary, but whether that majority will agree upon a definite bill is hard There are some few who want prohibition and these will be hard to bring to understand that the principle of local self-government is higher than theory impossible to obtain and that by clinging to that which they must know cannot be gotten, they play right into the hands of the State whiskey machine. If these few persist in holding out for prohibition the responsibility for the continued existence of the State rum machine is upon them and them only. A resolution was introduced by Senator Blease, and adopted by the Senate requesting our Senators at Washington to stand by the President and General Garlington, in the matter relating to the President's order discharging the negro troops that "shot up" the town of Brownsville. The resolution went over to the House, and several speeches endorsing the President's action were made but when it was iutimated that Senator Blease's resolution was a crack at Tillman, it placed on record the House as voting against its convictions for fear of displeasing the big man at Washington.
