Flanning Cimes.

VOL. XXI

MANNING, S. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 21, 1907.

NO. 47. TELLS OF KOREA. GREATLY SHOCKED. TRUNK MYSTERY. BAFFLE POLICE HOTELS BURNED GENERAL SUMTER. WATSON'S PLAN BRUTAL MURDER A Monument to His Memory Un- For the Farmers to Protect Their The Odd Experience of a Phila- Of Monte Carlo Solved at Last A White Man Killed by a Negro Pity Of Senator Stone Rises at Captain Schneider Says Spook's And Many Guests Turned Out Crushing Of Nation. delphia Woman. by Confession Mystery is a Puzzling One. veiled at Statesburg. at Summerville. Best Interests. And Had to Leave. Turned on Light and Found Burglar Of the Man and Woman in Whose Marquis Ito Rules By Force-Em-Mr. H. A. M. Smith, as Orator of the KNOCKED HIM DOWN CATCH THEM. AT OLD ORCHARD, ME. SAYS HE WILL HELP peror and Father Prisoners in Palto Be a Man From Whom She Had Possession it Was Found Over in Day, Delivered Historical Address ace-Reckoning is Certain Been Divorced France. of Great Interest and Value. The authorities of France were And Beat Him to Death With the Senator William J. Stone, of Mis-The monument to General Thomas In the Fight and Urges Nacional Pol-To be confronted by the form of a These Invisible Being Chase People Two Lives Lost and Five Persons souri, who spent a week at Seoul, crouching burglar, to fire at him, and confronted by a perplexing problem Sumter in the cemetary at Statesicy for Organization-Says Far-Bar of a Store Door, While the Korea, investigating the Korean sit-From Their Houses-The Members Injured in Conflagration at Old then to flash up the light and find her- in a trunk mystery, unearthed in burg, where this Revolutionary soluation, was received in audience by mers Should Work Along Lines of self face to face with a man from Marseilles, some ten days ago. Mr. Proprietor of the Store Apparently dier and early American statesman of One Family Flee Clad Only in Orchard, Maine-Soda Tank Exwho she had been divorced in Cali- and Mrs. Goold, an elderly couple the Emperor, and the Marquis Ito the Old Farmers Alliance-Thinks lies buried, was unveiled on Wednes-Looked On Without Raising His chaperoned him. Senator Stone, sum-Their Night Clothes-The Ghosts fornia, such was the dramatic ex- body of a woman in their trunk and plosion Blows Man's Head Offday of last week in the presence of a the Movement Will March Steadily perience of Mrs. Richard Smith, of her head and feet in a satchel, were Hand to Prevent the Brutal Mur- ming up the situation, said to a cor-Bomhards Houses With Bricks and Visitors Compelled to Leave by large gathering of South Carolinians respondent of the St. Louis Globe-327 West York street, Philadelphia, subjected to a process of "cooking" and with interesting and brilliant exder of an Unarmed Man. Stones. Lack of Accommodations. Democrat: in the hope that they would tell about ercises. The little town of States-Thursday. At White Oak camp grounds, near It happened at about 3 o'clock in A dispatch to The News and Cour-"From a Korean standpoint the the crime. The woman is French, "Spooks" aren't afraid of policeburg was more lively Wednesday than at any time of its history and Two lives were lost and five per-Thomson, Ga., Hon. Thomas E. Wat- the morning. Mrs. Smith's husband the man English, and the murdered ier says Mr. Robert H. Graham of situation is pathetic. For the first men. At least, those that have been sons were injured, three seriously, as woman, a Swede. son was the guest of honor of the is a traveling man at present on the Summerville was assaulted between time in my life I have seen the mail- haunting Brown street, in Georgethe occasion will be notable in the an-Finally Goold broke down and a result of the fire which swept nals of Sumter county. Farmer's Union. He addressed an road. She was sleeping in her house 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday night by ed hand of a foreigner lay ruthlessly town, D. C., are not. Despite the confessed to the magistrate. He rethrough Old Orchard, Maine, Thurs-The Charleston contingent, includaudience of some 1,000 or 1,200, in- with her three children. over a conquered people. One Em-Luke Chisolm, colored, and died at vigilance of Capt. Schneider and his lated coolly all the details of the day night, causing a loss estimated at | ing the regular troops from the artilcluding people of five counties, Mc- moving about in her room, Mrs. Awakened by the noise of someone peror has been forced to abdicate to horrible crime. He alone had slain 7 o'clock Sunday morning without make place for a weakling. Both are officers, of the Seventh precinct, they lery post at Fort Moultrie, accompanthe woman, he declared, and it was having regained consciousness. The held in practical imprisonment by continue night after night their weird $800,000. ied by the band, arrived early in the Duffie, Lincoln, Wilkes, Columbia and Smith saw the shadow of a man's he who cut up her body, although The dead: morning, coming by way of the At- Warren. They had met under the figure near the bedroom. Reaching assault occurred at the store of Mr. their conquerors. morning, coming by way of the At-lantic Coast Line on a special train which was run to Seale's Siding, al and Co-operative Union. Philip Partridge, 24 years old, of and ghost-like tricks. The police are Pittsburg, Pa., struck by Boston & unable to stop the showers of gravel Maine train at Kennebunk and killed and stones, which appear to se the Marseilles, where they planned to mark made by Mr. Grah 1, and munication with the palace, all but favorite means of manifestation of while on way to fire. The burden of Mr. Watson's ad- the doorjamb and a man's voice yellhundred in number, marched and the Unidentified man, killed by explocast the body into the sea. Mrs. Violet Goold also confessed other members of the party rode to dress was that the Farmer's Union ed: the suppliant ministers doing the bid- these materialistic ghosts; nor are knocked him down, kicking him after sion of soda tank; head blown off. A number of people must have a national scope, a nationher part in the crime. She said her he fell to the floor and then beating not show themselves in the streets "Don't shoot!" Statesburg. they able to discover whence they The injured: came to Claremont on the Southern al creed national principles and a na-Mrs. Smith reached to the side of husband had promised to give Emma him into unconsciousness with the of Seoul without a Japanese guard. Rev. Rufus H. Jones, pastor Trinthe bed and turned a switch that Levin the sum of $100, but she decome. railway, and were conveyed from tional purpose. ity Episcopal church. Saco, Me.; M. bar used in fastening the front door "The Farmer's Union is going to With renewed vigor these invisible that station to Statesburg. flashed up the lights. She saw the "No man, Korean or foreigner, can T. Morrill, Salem, Mass. manded $100 more. To this Mr. At 11 o'clock the procession was declare the same principles and make face of a man standing in the door-Gooid objected, and said he would not pay the extra hundred. Thereuphave an andience with the Emperer being visited their wrath on the help-Unidentified man, probably fatally formed in the grove of the Gen. Sum- the same fight attempted by the old way. She gave a scream as she Mr. Graham, who was a son of the ence of Marquis Ito. The Emperor except by permission, and in the presless and terrorized denizens of Brown hurt by tank explosion. ter Memorial Academy, and marched Farmer's amance, and in that fight recognized the features and dropped late Judge R. F. Graham, a brother and his in their are prisoners in their Samuel Emerson of Old Orchard. on Emma Levin abuseu aim. Referrstreet Thursday night, and the visifrom there to the cemetary, the regher revolver. Whether or not the I am going to help," he said. tation was one that will never be foring to what happened next, Goold, in his confession, says: Miss Alice Minard, severely bruisulars leading with their band, and He is convinced that the time has man recognized her, she does not ed by being thrown from carriage at come when this organization, embrac- know. As he saw her drop-the pis-The Government is a the principle victims of the spookish of Dr. R. A. Muckenfuss, of Sum- the real rule followed immediately by the Sumter "I had been drinking, and becom-Kennebunk while on way to Old Oring in its membership 1,200,000 far- tol he made a jump for the stairs, ing angry I seized a hunting knife merville about 8 o'clock Saturday military force. despotism of foreigners, upheld by malevolence, were thrown into a pan-Light Infantry with the Second Regichard with Philip Partridge, who was mers, cannot be held together by the cleared them in three or four bounds ment band of Sumter. the whole gathand buried it in Emma's back. She night to go to his home in the southis. The police are utterly mysterfied. killed. restricted plans and narrow purposes and bolted from the house. ering of people following the mili-"The people of ____rea are overawand the musty records of Georgefell dead. The next day I dismem-bered the body with a saw and a knife, and placed the torso in a Seventeen summer hotels, 60 cotwestern limits of the town. About ed, intimidated and subdued, and town's ancient times do not shom a Mrs. Smith summoned the police tary which now prevail. tages and a score of buildings occu-Arriving at the grave the invocaby telephone, and when they reached In beginning his address Mr. Watsituation quite so strange. pied by stores were destroyed. tion was pronounced by Rev. H. H. them is as ruthless and as arbitrary son said: her house, told her story. She declar-The ghosts temporarily suspended The explosion which caused so trunk and the head and legs in a the store of Mr. Smith, in Stallsville. Covington, of Sumter, and the monuas a savage and is supreme "It is pitiful to note the hopeless-"In 'Memoirs of General Sam ed positively that she recognized the bombardment of the outside of the I only stabbed the woman When a little later, Luke Chisolm, many injuries occurred in Horgan's ment was unveiled, the cords releas-ing the draperies being pulled by Mrs. Charge of the Indians that were bevalise. once. The other wounds on her body walked into the store, Mr. Graham, ness and helplessness of this unhap- to play pranks in several of the housdwellings Thursday night and sought drug store on Old Orchard avenue. It is believed that the fire started Herbert Haynesworth and Miss ing removed from Alabama and Geor- recognition made her drop the pisaccording to the evidence, Graham py people. No American could wites, where the occupants were hidden her in the trunk. from an overturned lamp in the an-Beatrice Sumter, great-great-grand-daughters of Gen. Sumter, the bands way of the love those red men bore a California girl and had married Referring to his family, Goold said extended his hand to him saying: grandfather was a haronet and "This is a share of the saying of profound sorrow for the victim, some of them in closets. The family nex of the Hotel Olympia. The total of "Spike" Hampton fled into the insurance on the burned property, it his grandfather was a baronet and "This is a white man's hand and I but unhappily, in view of the Philip playing stiring military airs. Benson in Sacremento. He was, she this beautiful land. streets to get out of the way of a is understood, will not exceed $150,his father an Irish magistrate. He am going to carry you home," or pines, the American protest is silent The procession then reformed and "General Dale relates that not only asserted, the black sheep of a we:1ghost, which, they claim, was stalksaid he had at one time served secretthe whole assemblage returned to the grove, whence it had started, there to wih grief at having to give up their t wealthy "Forty-niner" and his words to that effect. Thereupon from an international standpoint. ing from one room to another. ly on the Irish Land Commission in The water supply is getting very grove, whence it had started, there to wih grief at having to give up their "The purpose of the Japanese is to Chisolm, it is alleged, somewhat in-The Hampton family say that hid-Dublin. In 1893 he moved to Monlow and it is feared the residents may treal, where he says he made a for- sultingly replied, "You are drunk," appropriate Korea and make it a carry out the program of the exer- homes, but that the warriors them- brother today being a well-known citeous sounds were heard in the house suffer from the lack of water. tune. He then went to Holland, and and knocked Mr. Graham down, gateway for encroachment upon selves were utterly unmanned. Stoi- izen of the California city. She deshortly after dark. While Hampton As a result of the fire the season China. The Chinese policy of Japan The chairman of the monument cal braves who would have died un- clared Benson had been convicted of struck him with both fists and also was half asleep, he declared, a figure, at Old Orchard is brought to an ablater moved to Monte Carlo. - surs. committee, Col. J. J. Dargan, called der torture without a groan broke hig way robbery in California. Under the gathering to order and introduced down and cried like children her divorce from him she had maris one of territorial and commercial clothed in white stood at the foot of kicked him. rupt close, as only one large hotel. Goold corrobrated everything her Mr. Graham and the negro scuffed aggrandizement, and this policy is down and cried like children her divorce from him she had marhis bed. He screamed, and the object the Old Orchard, remains. All trains when the United States soldiers came to march them off to the West. Gen- well-known resident of the northhusband said. on the floor and then tumbled out of carried forward with a ruthlessness Gov. Ansel as the presiding officer of dissapeared. The whole family a few The murder was unearthed by ac-Blood oozing out of a trunk the front door. One of the witness including several extras, were packed the occasion. The Governor made a brief address on assuming the chair. seconds later noticed a weired specwith persons leaving the shore. cident. is based on might, while the world at the Marseilles railroad station at- said he "heard the bar of the door eral Dale says that after the Indians eastern section of that city. ter as it flitted about the rocms, and The people who were driven from

the hotels were compelled to spend the night on the beach.

TRIED AND FINED BY PHONE.

Wyoming Man Satisfied M. Smith, of Charleston, was present-

Hon. Richard I. Manning, of Sumter. then introduced former Gov. A. J. Monatague, of Virginaa, who delivered a most interesting and eloquent address. The orator of the day, Hon. H. A. miles away.

mos

rushing river?

with their blood.

up their homes.

the East and North.

er, miner, manufacturer, farmer or have to depend on the North for monmade in the South and West.

was created in New York.

"What is the result?

made for themselves.

ailroader in the South that doesn't

North.

man.

"But they lost their homes, never-

"The

and delivered an extended and admir-

Mr. Smith's address was a

After music by the bands, follow-

BOYS HAVE "BLACK HAND."

Admit Threatening to Kill Youth Unless Mother Paid.

Charged with attempted blackmail

and with sending threatening letters

"Dear Madam: If you don't give

The boys admitted to the police

ENDS HIS LIFE.

to Mother.

the Sky.

In the midst of a terrific electric

Blackburn was in his cornfield.

"Beware

through the mails, two fifteen-year-

He reviewed the services of Gen.

had been collected and started on Mrs. Smith was completely unnerv-their long journey, they would re- ed by her experience. "Now that he turn, each right, to their homes, to knows where I am, I am afraid he see them once more. This was kept will come back and murder me, as up until the camp was pitched forty perhaps he actually sought me out the body of a woman. The head and to do me harm," she told the police.

tracted the attention of a porter. He fall out, saw Luke Chisolm grab it looks on indifferently. summoned the police and the old and heard him hit Mr. Graham with

"But history is being made here, which, in its ultimate and intended people were arrested after an inspec-The proprietor of the store, seeing consequences, is far beyond the con-the parties standing at the door when fines of this country and involves far ghost hunt and who was stationed tion of their baggage. - It contained with several other policemen near by, lower parts of the legs were missing. Chisolm entered and talking togethbraved the horrors of the situation er, was under the impression that the py Empire. and invaded the house. But no gnos These were carried in a hand bag. meeting was friendly, and turning and must be, a reckoning." was found. While Young was in the Mr. and Mrs. Goold said the murder had been committed by a man named away to attend to a customer heard house, however, the beings made LEAPED FROM TRIAN. their presence manifest by turning some one shortly after fall, and look Burkes, who escaped, and that they loose a fusillade of bricks and stones. ing backwards found Graham on the were taking the body to London, Eng-They rattled against the side of the floor, saw Chisolm strike him twice A Prisoner Hurls Himself Out of a land, to bury it without causing any house, and a brick, going through a with his fist and kick him in the commotion at Monte Carlo. Car Window window, fell at Young's feet. The side. The victim proved to be Mrs. Empoliceman captured it for anaylsis. Mr. Smith called upon Chisolm to ma Livey, a Sweedish woman, widow The Augusta, Ga., Chronicle says It was a sure-enough brick and had desist, but Chisolm ran round to of a rich Jewish trader of Stockpassengers coming in on the Georgia Railroad train on Thursday told of a She had been residing at wards the door, got the bar and all the appearances of one made from grim tragedy which occurred half way between Dearing and Sawdust, "Aunt Jane" Bolding, as ex-slave, holm. Monte Carlo for some time and had struck at Mr. Graham, and in a few been an associate of the Goolds, at seconds they rolled out from the who lives at 3218 Brown street, dewhose invitation she went to their store into the highway opposite. Mr. and for which the railroad authorities nor the officer in charge were in clared no ghost could make her run, Smith then closed the door and a few home on the afternoon of the murder. and sat all evening on the front of minutes after went out and found Mr. Within three hours she had been kill- Graham lying face downwards in any way to blame. her porch, defying the onslaughts A negro prisoner was being carried to Augusta by Sheriff Perry of made all around her. The other oced, cut to pieces and packed in a front of the store. He then went over cupants of her house made their estrunk and made ready for shipment. and notified Mr. Robert I. Limehouse, Columbia county. The man was handcuffed, and sat on the inside of a cape and sought the protection of the A niece who returned home to find who lives nearby. man immediately removed to his seat, by the side of the officer. While police, who are as much baffled as her aunt and uncle ready for a trio to England, says she sat on a trunk ever. The ghost mystery is as puzzling as the vestibule passenger train was and chatted with the aged couple for house, and medical assistance was bounding along at forty miles an hour, and with no word of warning ever asd the police are completely The Daughter of Wealthy Farmer some time and that she noticed a sent for. Dr. J. Julian Carroll, upon whatever, the negro leaped from the outwitted. The best sleuths in the strong scent of lavender water, for arriving and examination, found a window of the coach, and was hurled precinct have tried to fathom it, and which her aunt accounted by saying contused wound of the left eye, apparently produced by a fist, and a wound about two inches in length on have squads of policemen who have she had upset a bottle. to the ground eight feet below. been nightly detailed in the block, Death was caused by a deep stab The nearby passengers were horin the breast. It is not believed by the right side of the head behind the were last night augmented by scores rorstricken. Many on the same row of fearless citizens, who claim that the police that the old man was able right ear. This wound extended ed far out the window to catch a they are not superstitious. They witat the eld- through the scalp and the inner and to inflict the wound nessed with their eyes and ears do the cut- outer tables of the skull, producing a glimpse of the rash prisoner, and a erly couple were abl things that they had not heretofore ting unaided. For the e reasons, it compound fracture. There was also few saw his body strike the ground ting unaided. For the eleasons, it compound in the base of the brain is believed, there is a third party in the case. Robbery was evidently the blow The colored folks adhere religious is said to have fallen limp. on his ly to the belief that the spirit of old motive for the crime. Jewels known blow. "Mike" Catos, a daring and notorious while his victim was lying at the side, as if his neck had been broken to have belonged to the dead woman figure in that part of Georgetown 20 were found on Mrs. Goold's person. door of Mr. Smith's store, endeavored by the fall. years ago, has returned to haunt some of his neighbors, whom he hatto have Mr. Smith let him in, stating KNOCKS PREACHER DOWN. CHILD KILLED. ed and distrusted. that he wished to talk with 11m. Mr. Another thing that strengthens the Smith replied that he had closed and Auto Went Over Embankment Seven ghost theory in the minds of the resiwould not open again that night. Mr. dents of Brown street is the estab-Graham's assailant soon after this ty-Five Feet High. lished fact that the houses on the left the Brailsford plantation about thoroughfare were all built of brick At Gainesville, Ga., as the result of three mile from Summerville, where dispute in the Arlington hotel he was living, and during the night As a result of an automobile accidug out of vaults is an old grave dent near Susquehannah, Pa., Helen yard, which is within a stone's throw was taken into custouy by a party of Brush, aged 6 years, was killed, and of the haunted place. Hunt, a prominent banker and hotel citizens who went ...ere for that purthree others seriously injured. The "I have been on the police force proprietor, knocked down Rev. J. A. pose. While bringing him suck to machine which was owned by Harry twenty-five years," said Capt. Schnei-Brush, went over an embankment 75 Summerville it is stated that cansolm der to a Post reporter, "and I have Mr. Hunt used his fist, planting declared that Mr. Graham had cursed feet high and plunged into the Susnever struck a puzzle like this. My such a hard blow that the minister him and struck him, and that he men have worked like trojans to quehanna river. fell to the floor in a semi-conscious (Chisolm) struck him back, kicked The car was occupied by Mr. Brush solve the mystery, and have failed. condition. Mr. Bell claims he was him and after they had rolled from his daughter who was killed, Francis Brush Every night since these strange bethe store, hit uim twice in the nead Griffin and Thomas boylan. badly hurt. ings started their trouble, about a was held in the automobile; the two The difficulty between the two men with the door bar. week ago, from ten to twelve officers Magistrate Richard Cook, acting girls were thrown out and hurled son of the minister, by Mr. Hunt. The quest, with Mr. William T. Mackay as son was fined $50 at the last term of foreman, which, after hearing the Brush was caught in the steering every other conceivable place, and have found absolutely nothing that the court on the charge of disorderly facts related substantially above, and rescued by boys who were swimming. will explain these manifestations. If it isn't ghosts I don't know what it is. gear and had a leg broken. He went the testimony of Dr. Carroll, renderinto the river with the car but was The Arlington hotel, where the ed a verdict that the deceased came difficulty occurred and where the son to his death by a blow or blows on those of a clever midnight culprit, is said to have been disorderly, is the head, inflicted by a bar in the INSANE FROM CIGARETTES. but this supposition no longer holds ground. We haven't given the come owned by Mr. Hunt, who is a wealthy hands of Luke Chisolm. During the day there was some rash talk, but intelligence and a de-Boy Tries to Do Himseslf Harm and up, and expect to fathom it before we resident sire that the law should hold sway Is in Hospital. stop. prevailed, and Chisolm was commit-RISKED PRISON TERM. ted Sunday afternoon to the county Excessive cigarette smoaking has jail at St. George

the hurriedly escaped in their night clothes. Policeman Young, who has led the Wire, Saving Journey.

Tried, found guilty, and sentenced able address. over the telephone was the unique Sumter, recounting his military exway in which Miles Fitzgerald satisploits which won him the title of the fied justice at Cheyenne. Judge W 'Gamecock'' from his admiring Brit-P. Carroll, of that city, has just ish foes, and his services as a statesfinished this cases, saving at the same man in the Legislature of South Cartime a trip of fifty miles over the mountains for the principals in the olina and in the House of Representatives and the Senate of the United proceeding. States.

Albert Bristol and Fitzgerald, of Bear Creek, had a fight and Bristol called by telephone and asked for a valuable contribution to the history warrant for Fitzgerald. Judge Car- of the State and is probably the most complete record of the life and ser roll granted the warrant and televices of Gen. Sumter, which has even phoned Fitzgerald to come in for been prepared. trial.

Fitzgerald replied that he was too busy, and asked that a hearing be ing the address of Mr. Smith. Gov. Ansel read a letter from President given him over the phone. Arrange-Roosevelt, written for the occasion. ments were made, attorneys obtained by both men, and the case came to paying tribute to the services of Gen. trial, the lawyers appearing before Sumter. the court in Cheyenne, while both men remained at the ranch.

Testimony was heard over the phone, and then both lawyers made their plea. Judge Carroll fined Fitzgerald $15, and he agreed to mail a check for the amount.

SHOULD BE SWUNG.

old boys were arrested early Wednes-Negro Boys Charged With Assaultday morning by Acting Captain O'-Day, of the East Twenty-second St., ing Colored Girl.

station, New York and sent to the Children's society for safe keeping At Annopolis, Md., Leroy Haste. until their cases can be tried in the aged seventeen, and James Harris, eighteen, both colored, were com-Children's court. The boys gave their names as Peter Boyle, of 241 East Twentymitted to jail. without bail, by Justice John N. Davis, the charges being assault upon Lottle Brooks, first street, and Palmer Murcha, cf fourteen years old, of the same race. 229 East Twenty-first street. It is The offense is alleged to have been charged that these boys, who were dragged out of bed by the police committed on the night of July 4.

The girl is employed in the home shortly after midnight, had written a threatening letter to Mrs. A. C. of one of the professors at St. John's college, and was returning from her Schupp, of 204 East Twenty-first She testified that she was street, demanding ,100, and threatshe was in a lonely section of the kill him" if the money failed to be come to be so rich? She made the took her to a house some distance town, and that she was assaulted by forth-coming when a "man with a green necktie and a winte cap" passboth. At the ...earing ...e girl positively ed her stoop on the night of Saturday identified both of the accused. Both last. The letter read as follows: denied every statement. A number of persons, however, testified in corroboration of certain points of the $100 to a man with a green necktie girl's story. The girl is neat in ap- and a white cap who will pass by your stoop tonight at 10 o'clock pearaance and decidedly above the your son win be taken away and killaverage in intelligence. ed.

KILLED BY LITTLE FALL.

that they were guilty.

After Climbing to Dizzy Heights for Twenty Years.

The New York American says After Telling His Children to be Good "Steeplejack" Bill Anderson, after 20 years of climbing to the top of the loftiest towers and most dangerous flagstaffs in New York, with never a slip nor fall, was killed by a pretty little drop of six feet the other day.

It was an odd end to a steepledred and Fourteentn street New at home. jack's career. Bill laughed when he tackled the six foot job. It was to York, ended his life by swallowing paint a pole on the roof of the Hotel carbolic acid. Belmont. The pole base if only a tall man's height above the roof. Bill ran Etta, eight, thought his remarks two billions more than 8 per cent ticles consumed. up the short ladder like an ordinary When she arrived. . rancel assured citizen would run upstairs.

But as he turned to call to an as sistant he lost his balance for the first time in his life, and plunged head first to the paved rooi. He died doctor arrived. Business troubles in a New York Hospital ambulance are given as the motive. from the results of a fractured skull. LIGHTNING SPLITS TONGUE.

HEROIC GIR! DROWNS.

Man Strangely Mangled by Bolt From She Tried to Save a Boy But Both

Perished.

Miss Edith Gregor of North Attle storm, Bird Blackburn, a prosperous boro, Mass., and Clyde Morrison, the farmer of Hanover county, Va., was eight-year-old son of James Morrison struck dead while loading his cart. of Fairmouth, Mass., were drowned in a small pond Friday after a heroic about 200 yards from his home when effort by the young woman to save he was killed. His tongue was split.

both jaw bones broken and his neck the boy. The lad fell in and Miss Gregor and chest badly burned. plunged after him. Before assistance could reach her, she sank with the

"In all the wide world the stars of "I had put him completely out of my ed by Hon. Marion Moise, of Sumter. 1831 looked down upon no sight life and to encounter him in such more pitiful than that of these chil- a dramatic matter is terrible.'

The police of the Fourth and York dren of the forest, stealing out of camp at night to walk back twenty, streets station say they think that thirty and forty miles, to get one last Benson was not aware of the identity look at the humble cabins which had of the resident of the house which he entered. "It was just an accident that been their homes. he should have broken into the dom-"But who need wonder that the icile of his former wife," the police Indians loved this Southern land? Where did the smile of God, on Cre-ation's morning, rest more radiantly They are working on the theory than upon this marvelous clime of that he is the man wanted for jailbreaking by the authorities of Cali-fornia. They have sent out a general the green field and cloud-topped mountains, of shadowy forest and verdant valley, of dimpled lake and alarm for the man with his description. A police guard is being kept on Mrs. Smith's house in case the inred men loved it-loved it truder should make any attempt to with all their simple hearts.

"They loved it well enough to return. fight for it. They never gave it up

OUTRAGE IN NORTH CAROLINA. until every battlefield upon which they could muster an army was red

Assaulted by Fiend. theless-why? Because in the subtler combat of mind against mind they A special dispatch from Salisbury were no match for the whites. The N. C., to The News and Courier says pale face deceived his red brother. the sheriff of that county, number of official officers and a posse of citizens when the Indians were the strongest. and when at length the whites were the stronger, the red men had to give are scouring the surrounding country for a negro who Thursday made an attack upon Mrs. D. W. Tesler, "Brethern of the South! Will you learn nothing from the past? Have daughter of one of the wealthiest you no eyes to see what is going on? men in this county. It is a foregone Do you not realize that in the war of conclusion that the black man will be lynched if caught.

wits you are losing ground? Will you Mrs. Tesler was on her way to visit never understand that national polia neighbor, when the negro accosted cies and laws can be so shaped as to her at a small creek near her home. give all the advantage to one class. "r one section? Is it impossible for you to learn that special privilege always liquid from his pocked and ordered her to drink it or be killed. Mrs. lives at the expense of the unprivileged-is a deadly parasite that will Tesler took the bottle and started to run, screaming for help at the top of sap the live of the noblest tree? her voice. "Use your eyes. Look about you.

The black brute pursued and See things as they are. Where is the caught her and threw her into the bulk of the wealth of the nation? Mrs. Tesler made her way "In that portion of it which nature creek. did the least for-New England? out of the water only to again fall How did bleak, barren New England into the clutches of the negro, who took the prosperity of the South and home in an exhausted condition six West and gave it to the capitalists of hours after she had left. She is unable to say what occurred after the "Who owns your railroads? The negro took her to the house near the

Your mills? The North. Your creek. banks? The North. Your mines? The COUNTY COURT. North. There isn't a merchant, bank

Again Voted Down in Richland County by Large Majority.

ey. Yet the most of that money was The The election for the establishment financial currents which flow West of a county court in Richland county and South from lew York, first flowed in New York from the South and was defeated by an over-whelming West. Practically none of that wealth majority Thursday. The same proposition was defeated two years ago "Conside" .'e laws which the and was brought up in a different form this time, by a special act of the .s of the North have last legislature. These capi-

Only a few minutes after he had talists are protected from outside cautioned his two daughters always competition; they monopolize the to be good to their mother. Henry home market: they form a trust to federal government than are paid by Francel, forty-eight years of age, a dictate output and price, and they a farmer who is worth one thousand dollars. But, under the policy, the painter, of No. 55 West One Hun- sell their goods abroad cheaper than farmer may pay more than Rockefeller-the tax not being paid upon "They are making yearly a net income, or accumulated wealth, but upon the amount of manufactured ar-

His daughter Beile, twelve, and profit of $2,800,000,000, which is Thus the literal truth is that our strange, and called their mother, upon the money invested. national government does not tax honor, and Harry B. Leuth, son of "Think of it! After allowing them wealth at all. It allows the rich the the bride, was the best man. her he had only a snort time to live. selves a clear income of S per cent Then he went to the bathroom and upon their investment, they compel took the acid. He was dead when the doctor arrived. Business troubles to yield to them a yearly tribute of to yield to them a yearly tribute of taxation, but permits them to tax as happy as though in their teens.

two thousand millions of dollars! the unprivileged. In speaking of the part the farm-"Thus every man, woman and ers' Union should play, Mr. Wetson child in America is taxed about $25 per year to give special privilege to the manufacturer. On every family "The Farmers' Union is but the re-incarnation of the Farmers' Alliance of five, this is a crushing burden of $125 per year-and it is nothing The new order takes the place of the old. The prophet dies, but the word more than shameless, heartlesss conlives The flag which one brave standfiscation. In speaking of the effect of this ard bearer drops from his dying hand another catches up and carries ou. system Mr. Watson said: "Under this diabolical system of "And so, under the blessings of the national taxation. John D. Rocke- Most High, the Farmers' Union will which he and a girl companion were feller, worth his $5.000,000,000, pays march on, until it plants its victori- boating from capsizing. She reached no greater sum toward the support of ous banner on the walls which the for a lantern behind him and tipped

the national government than many Farmers' Alliance was not permitted the boat, when Shriver, seeing the to storm dispute in the Arlington hotel shortly gefore noon Friday, J. H. Bell, pastor of the Baptist church.

An Unfortunate Difficulty Between Residents of Gainesville, Ga.

is said to have been the outcome of son was fined $50 at the last term of conduct at the hotel.

В	RIDE	aT	AT SEVENTY.
Marries	Man	Thirt	y Years	Younger

Than She Is.

October. A grand mother, and nearly seven- county officials were fully alert to the Glasgow street, Portsmouth. Va. He ty years of age, Mrs. Mary Louth, a exigencies of the situation. former resident of New York, became Mr. Graham was a man of many the bride of William H. Becker, a excellent traits of character, intelliblacksmith aged 40 at New Castle gent and kind hearted. He leaves a widow, the daughter of Mr. L. C. Boyle, of St. Paul's Parish, and sev-Conn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George T. Alderson. Mrs. J. eral children. Auld and Mrs. George Gill. daugh-FIVE PERSONS KILLED. ters of the bride, were matrons of benefit of special privilege which not After the wedding reception the

SAVED THE GIRL.

But Plunged to His Own Death in the Lake.

A dispatch from Seattle says D. C. Shriver, a book keeper in the Pirget Sound National Bank, was drowned in Lake Washington, Friday night in an attempt to prevent the canoe in its capsizing. His efforts were suc-

made a raving maniac of "Buck'

Was Rich.

At Des Moines taking the chances is now confined in the hospital ward of a long term in prison and discovstrangely for several days, but it was ery by his sweetheart that he was not not until Wednesday that he that he was not not until Wednesday that he became really a young millionaire, Robert violently incane. He tried to de really a became steeling automobiles violently insane. He tried to do Stevens has been stealing automobiles to take the young woman for drives. The thefts continued with regularhimself bodily harm, and to prevent ity and apparently the police were this the police were called in. In a moment of calm he consented to accompany the police to the helpless until they discovered a Boarding House in Chicago Collapses jail, but on the way he became so bunch of sweet peas in an empty ma-

In the bunch was one of a peculiar shade, which it was found was grown only in one garden in the city. Stevens was shadowed for several days by the detectives until the other

Upon Fence Pickets.

Edward Hornsley plunged 40 feet a

Because His Mother Told Him to Benight when he was arrested. IMPALED ASLEEP.

have Himself. Ah Meadville, Pa., Raymond, the Somnambulist Walks Out and Rolls

twelve year old son of Hermon Whitman. a farmer, hanged himmself because his mother scolded him.

HUNG HIMSELF

of the Portsmouth jail.

While returning from the hayfield men, who risked their lives in the with his two brothers, the children to his death during a somnambulistic work, being compelled to crawl upder began throwing dust at each other. They were told to "behave and go wandering at Mahanoy, Pa., for his body was impaled on a picket fence.

daughter: John Nosal. 20-months-old son: Albert Stehm. 33 years old. a rope around his neck and jumped the third-story window of his home prongs of the fence.

violent that it was necessary for the police to overpower mm. With Fatal Results. At Chicago five persons were killed and eleven were injured, three seriously, early Friday by the collapse of a two-story frame building at No. 55 Fry street, occupied as a boarding

to

Chief Waring and the trial at the Court of Sessions in await house. Four of the victims were instantly killed and the fifth victim died a few minutes later in a hospital. The bodies of the dead were taken from the ruins by policemen and firethe building to reach the victims. The dead: Mrs. Annie Nosal, 35 son: Albert Stehm. 33 years old. boarder: Annie Marswaranski, 22 off. His neck was broken by the home has been with his parents on To Make His Sweetheart Believe He

